

Please invest in transit and road maintenance as well as passenger rail instead of bloated costly freeway expansions. We know how fast cars export the value from our cities. Invest in the future by laying the tracks to maintaining generational wealth.