

I have 4 year old twins so safety is a priority, in addition to a sustainable future that decreases emissions.

Traffic is a big problem, especially getting into Portland, but let's be creative about solutions rather than just adding more highways/congestion.