

Please consider continuing to expand transportation options beyond the car. When I lived in Portland, it was important as a poor college student to be able to live without a car. But, that was only possible because of where I lived. I believe everyone should have the opportunity to be car-free if they would like. Therefore, please, prioritize car-free transportation options!

Thank you,
Matthew Moore

P.S. I left Portland due to housing affordability issues.