

I'm writing to urge legislators to prioritize maintaining and improving existing streets and infrastructure, seismically and for pedestrian safety. We do not need extraordinarily expensive freeway expansions when while we are in climate crisis and can't afford to manage what we already have.

Shelby Schroeder