ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

The Oregon Department of Justice (DOJ) maintains a Division of Child Support (Division). The Division offers several child support services for parents who pay or receive child support. Those services include such things as assistance in establishing paternity, establishing a child support order, and collecting child support payments.

Currently, Oregon law requires certain employers to notify the Division of the hiring or rehiring of persons in Oregon whom the employer will pay earnings to. Senate Bill 184 modifies this employer reporting requirement to include independent contractors.
