

Please do not degrade our farming base by favoring the semiconductor industry over our well established land use laws. And speaking of wells, until there is a source of water, we have already have drought: where is the water going to come from?

Lark Brandt

Sent from my iPhone