What is the Federal Poverty Level for different household sizes?

For 2023, the Federal Poverty Level by household size is:

Household Size	100% Federal Poverty Level
1	$14,580
2	$19,720
3	$24,860
4	$30,000
5	$35,140
6	$40,280
7	$45,420
8	$50,560

For families/households with more than 8 persons, add $5,140 for each additional person.

A more detailed chart showing 138%, 200%, and other percentages is attached. More information on the Federal Poverty Level is available here:

<https://aspe.hhs.gov/topics/poverty-economic-mobility/poverty-guidelines>.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any further questions or clarifications.

Sincerely,

David Baden
Chief Financial Officer
