Measure Description:

Requires the Oregon Racing Commission to investigate reports of a Multi-Jurisdictional Simulcasting and Interactive Wagering Totalizator Hub licensee that, in violation of the statutes, permits greyhound wagering in jurisdictions where a greyhound racing is unlawful. Prohibits the Hub licensee from accepting wagers on greyhound races that took place or are taking place outside of the United States.

Revenue Impact:

The purpose of this statement is to facilitate the movement of the bill between committees.

Impact Explanation:

The measure prohibits a Multi-Jurisdictional Simulcasting and Interactive Wagering Totalizator Hub licensee from accepting wagers on greyhound races that took place or are taking place outside of the United States. The prohibition needs to be analyzed further as it may have an implication on the Oregon Racing Commission revenue.

The measure has a subsequent referral to the Joint Committee on Ways and Means. Further analysis will be done when the measure reaches the committee.
