

Oregon Arts & Culture Caucus

Cultural Advocacy Coalition of Oregon Advocacy Day April 19

What: Three members of Oregon’s Arts and Culture Caucus will show off their special talents during a noon-hour Advocacy Day Celebration. Organized by the Cultural Advocacy Coalition of Oregon, Advocacy Day brings arts and culture supporters to Salem – both virtually and in person – to share impact stories and advocate with Legislators for cultural funding. Featured in the noon-hour event will be performances by Portland Opera a la Cart, PHAME and jazz artist Tyrone Hendrix. The Oregon Coast Art Bus will also be on-site offering hands-on art activities.

Who: Joining Tyrone Hendrix as “special guest” performers will be Representative Rob Nosse, Rep. Dacia Grayber and Senator Mark Meek.

When: Wednesday April 19, 2023. 12pm – 1 p.m

Where: Wilson Park Gazebo, located on Oregon State Capitol grounds

Background: Advocacy Day 2023 will begin with a 9-11 a.m. virtual Zoom gathering and concludes with 1-4 p.m. Zoom and in-person meetings with Legislators.
