

FOLLOW THE LAW

OREGON LAW

Oregon Revised Statutes 171.134

Readability test for legislative digests and summaries

Any measure digest or measure summary prepared by the Legislative Assembly shall be written in a manner that results in a score of at least 60 on the Flesch readability test or meets an equivalent standard of a comparable test. [1979 c.270 §1]

SENATE RULE 13.02

Measure Summary

(5) All summaries must comply with ORS 171.134.

OREGON CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE IV – LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

Section 21. Acts to be plainly worded.

Every act, and joint resolution shall be plainly worded, avoiding as far as practicable the use of technical terms.

From the desk of Senator Tim Knopp