OPEN GOVERNMENT IMPACT

Legislative Counsel has not adopted standards for drafting measures that establish exemptions from disclosure of public records.

This measure requires the Secretary of State to:

- a) Establish a provision in each nominating petition or declaration of candidacy that allows a candidate for public office to indicate the candidate's desire to limit the public disclosure of the candidate's residence address to written public records requests only; and
- b) Establish a method to allow a public office holder to indicate the public office holder's desire to limit the public disclosure of the public office holder's residence address to written public records requests only.

This measure also prohibits the public disclosure, by the Secretary of State or a county clerk, of the residence addresses of candidates for public office or public office holders who indicated a desire to limit the public accessibility of their residence addresses, except in response to written public records requests.

Those public records are currently subject to mandatory public disclosure.
