Requires that reports to district attorney from Department of Corrections and State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision, concerning person released from department facility, must include length of sentence originally imposed on person by court and length of sentence actually served by person.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to sentencing information; amending ORS 144.260.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 144.260 is amended to read:

ORS 144.260. (1) Prior to the release on parole or post-prison supervision of a convicted person from a Department of Corrections institution, the chairperson of the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision shall inform the Department of Corrections, the district attorney and the sheriff or arresting agency of the prospective date of release and of any special conditions thereof and shall inform the sentencing judge and the trial counsel upon request. If the person is a sex offender, as defined in ORS 163A.005, the chairperson shall also inform the chief of police, if the person is going to reside within a city, and the county sheriff of the county in which the person is going to reside of the person’s release and the conditions of the person’s release.

(2) At least 30 days prior to the release from actual physical custody of any convicted person, other than by parole or post-prison supervision, whether such release is pursuant to work release, institutional leave, or any other means, the Department of Corrections shall notify the district attorney of the impending release and shall notify the sentencing judge upon request.

(3) The victim may request notification of the release and if the victim has requested notification, the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision or the Department of Corrections, as the case may be, shall notify the victim in the same fashion and under the same circumstances it is required to give notification to other persons under this section.

(4) Any report or notification provided to a district attorney under this section concerning the release of a person must additionally include the following information:

(a) The length of the sentence of incarceration originally imposed upon the person by the court; and

(b) The length of the sentence of incarceration actually served by the person.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
