6	TRANSCRIPTION FEES
8	SECTION 1. ORS 21.345 is amended to read:
9	21.345. (1)(a) A transcriber may not charge more than [$3] $4.25 per page for preparation of a
10	transcript.
11	(b) The Judicial Department may periodically increase the maximum fee a transcriber
12	may charge to account for changes in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers
13	West Region (All Items), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States
14	Department of Labor, since the last time the fee was increased. If the Judicial Department
15	increases the fee under this paragraph, the adjusted maximum fee shall be rounded to the
16	nearest quarter dollar, but the unrounded amount shall be used to calculate subsequent ad-
17	justments. The increased fee becomes effective on July 1 following the election to increase
18	the fee and applies to transcripts ordered on or after July 1 following the election to increase
19	the fee.
20	[(b)] (c) A transcriber may not charge a fee in addition to the fee established under this sub-
21	section for:
22	(A) An electronic conv required to be served on a party

22(A) An electronic copy required to be served on a party;

(B) A paper copy required to be served on an unrepresented party under ORS 19.370 (4)(a) or 1 2 (b); or 3 (C) A paper copy required to be filed with the trial court under ORS 19.370 (4)(d). (2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, a reporter employed by one of the parties 4 may charge fees as agreed to between the reporter and all of the parties to the proceeding for pre-5 paring transcripts on appeal. The reporter and the parties must agree to the fees to be charged be-6 fore the commencement of the proceeding to be recorded. A share of any fees agreed upon shall be 7 charged to parties joining the proceeding after the commencement of the proceeding. 8 9 (3) A reporter employed by one of the parties may not charge a public body, as defined by ORS 10 174.109, fees for preparing transcripts on appeal that exceed the fees established by subsection (1) of this section. 11 12(4) Each page of the original transcript on appeal prepared under this section must be prepared 13 as specified by rules for transcripts on appeal adopted by the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals. 14 15 (5) Except as otherwise provided by law, the fees for preparing a transcript requested by a party 16shall be paid forthwith by the party, and when paid shall be taxable as disbursements in the case. The fees for preparing a transcript requested by the court, and not by a party, shall be paid by the 17 18 state from funds available for the purpose. 19 (6) When the court provides personnel to prepare transcripts from audio records of court proceedings, the fees provided in subsection (1) of this section to be paid by a party shall be paid to 20the clerk of the court. 2122(7) For purposes of this section, "transcript" has the meaning given that term in ORS 19.005. 23SENIOR JUDGES 24 25SECTION 2. ORS 1.300 is amended to read: 26271.300. (1) A judge who retires from the circuit court, Oregon Tax Court, Court of Appeals or Supreme Court, except a judge retired under the provisions of ORS 1.310, may be designated a senior 28judge of the State of Oregon by the Supreme Court and, if so designated, shall be so certified by the 2930 Secretary of State. 31 (2)(a) Upon filing with the Secretary of State an oath of office as a senior judge as prescribed 32in ORS 1.212, a senior judge is eligible for temporary assignment, with the consent of the senior judge, by the [Supreme Court] Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or the designee of the Chief 33 34 Justice, to a state court as provided in this subsection, whenever the [Supreme Court] Chief Justice 35 or the designee of the Chief Justice determines that the assignment is reasonably necessary and will promote the [more] efficient administration of justice. 36 37 (b) A senior judge who retired from the Supreme Court may be assigned under this subsection 38 to any state court. (c) A senior judge who retired from a court other than the Supreme Court may be assigned 39 under this subsection to any state court other than the Supreme Court. 40 (d) A senior judge assigned to serve as a circuit court judge may be assigned under this 41 subsection to serve in any one or more counties or judicial districts during the term of the 42 43 assignment. (3) The assignment of a senior judge [shall be made by an order which] shall designate the court 44 or courts to which the judge is assigned and the duration of the assignment. [Promptly after as-45

1 signment of a senior judge under this section, the Supreme Court shall cause a certified copy of the

2 order to be sent to the senior judge and another certified copy to the court to which the judge is as-

3 signed.] The Chief Justice or the designee of the Chief Justice shall promptly notify the senior

4 judge, and the court or courts to which the judge is assigned, of the assignment.

5 (4) Each senior judge assigned as provided in this section has all the judicial powers and duties, 6 while serving under the assignment, of a regularly elected and qualified judge of the court to which 7 the senior judge is assigned. The powers, jurisdiction and judicial authority of the senior judge in 8 respect to any case or matter tried or heard by the senior judge while serving under the assignment 9 shall continue beyond the expiration of the assignment so far as may be necessary to:

10 (a) Decide and dispose of any case or matter on trial or held under advisement.

11 (b) Hear and decide any motion for a new trial or for a judgment notwithstanding a verdict, or 12 objections to any cost bill, that may be filed in the case.

(c) Settle a transcript for appeal and grant extensions of time therefor.

(5) A senior judge assigned as provided in this section shall receive as compensation for each 14 15 day the senior judge is actually engaged in the performance of duties under the assignment an 16amount equal to five percent of the gross monthly salary of a regularly elected and qualified judge of the court to which the senior judge is assigned, or one-half of that daily compensation for services 17 18 of one-half day or less. However, a retired judge shall not receive for services as a senior judge 19 during any calendar year a sum of money which when added to the amount of any judicial retire-20ment pay received by the senior judge for the year exceeds the annual salary of a judge of the court from which the senior judge retired. The compensation shall be paid upon the certificate of the 2122senior judge that the services were performed for the number of days shown in the certificate. Ser-23vices by a senior judge under an assignment and receipt of compensation for services shall not reduce or otherwise affect the amount of any retirement pay to which the senior judge otherwise 2425would be entitled.

(6) A senior judge assigned to a court located outside the county in Oregon in which the senior judge regularly resides shall receive, in addition to daily compensation, reimbursement for hotel bills and traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of duties under the assignment. The expenses shall be paid upon presentation of an itemized statement of the expenses, certified by the senior judge to be correct.

SECTION 3. ORS 133.545 is amended to read:

133.545. (1) A search warrant may be issued only by a judge. A search warrant issued by a judge 32of the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals may be executed anywhere in the state. Except as 33 34 otherwise provided in subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section, a search warrant issued by a judge of a circuit court may be executed only within the judicial district in which the court is located. 35 A search warrant issued by a justice of the peace may be executed only within the county in which 36 37 the justice court is located. A search warrant issued by a municipal judge authorized to exercise the 38 powers and perform the duties of a justice of the peace may be executed only in the municipality in which the court is located. 39

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a circuit court judge may authorize execution of a search warrant outside the judicial district in which the court is located, if the judge finds from the application that one or more of the objects of the search relate to an offense committed or triable within the judicial district in which the court is located. If the warrant authorizes the installation or tracking of a mobile tracking device, the officer may track the device in any county to which it is transported.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a circuit court judge duly assigned pursuant 1 2 to ORS 1.615 to serve as a judge pro tempore in a circuit court, or a senior judge duly assigned to serve in a circuit court under ORS 1.300 and who has authorization from the presiding 3 judge of that judicial district, may authorize execution of a search warrant in any judicial district 4 in which the judge [serves as judge pro tempore if the application requesting the warrant includes an $\mathbf{5}$ affidavit showing that a regularly elected or appointed circuit court judge for the judicial district is 6 not available, whether by reason of conflict of interest or other reason, to issue the warrant within a 7 reasonable time] is assigned to serve as judge pro tempore or as senior judge. 8 9 (4) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a circuit court judge may authorize execution of a search warrant outside the judicial district in which the court is located if the judge finds that: 10 (a) The search relates to one of the following offenses involving a victim who was 65 years of 11 12 age or older at the time of the offense: 13 (A) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree as described in ORS 163.205 (1)(b)(D) or (E); (B) Identity theft; 14 15 (C) Aggravated identity theft; (D) Computer crime; 16 17 (E) Fraudulent use of a credit card; 18 (F) Forgery in any degree; (G) Criminal possession of a forged instrument in any degree; 19 (H) Theft in any degree; or 20(I) Aggravated theft in the first degree; 21 22(b) The objects of the search consist of financial records; and 23(c) The person making application for the search warrant is not able to ascertain at the time of the application the proper place of trial for the offense described in paragraph (a) of this sub-2425section. (5) Application for a search warrant may be made only by a district attorney, a police officer 2627or a special agent employed under ORS 131.805. (6) The application shall consist of a proposed warrant in conformance with ORS 133.565, and 28shall be supported by one or more affidavits particularly setting forth the facts and circumstances 2930 tending to show that the objects of the search are in the places, or in the possession of the indi-31 viduals, to be searched. If an affidavit is based in whole or in part on hearsay, the affiant shall set forth facts bearing on any unnamed informant's reliability and shall disclose, as far as possible, the 32means by which the information was obtained. 33 34 (7) Instead of the written affidavit described in subsection (6) of this section, the judge may take 35 an oral statement under oath. The oral statement shall be recorded and a copy of the recording submitted to the judge who took the oral statement. In such cases, the judge shall certify that the 36 37 recording of the sworn oral statement is a true recording of the oral statement under oath and shall 38 retain the recording as part of the record of proceedings for the issuance of the warrant. The recording shall constitute an affidavit for the purposes of this section. The applicant shall retain a 39 40 copy of the recording and shall provide a copy of the recording to the district attorney if the district attorney is not the applicant. 41 42(8)(a) In addition to the procedure set out in subsection (7) of this section, the proposed warrant and the affidavit may be sent to the court by facsimile transmission or any similar electronic 43 transmission that delivers a complete printable image of the signed affidavit and proposed warrant. 44

45 The affidavit may have a notarized acknowledgment, or the affiant may swear to the affidavit by

1 telephone. If the affiant swears to the affidavit by telephone, the affidavit may be signed electron-

2 ically. A judge administering an oath telephonically under this subsection must execute a declaration that recites the manner and time of the oath's administration. The declaration must be filedwith the return.

5 (b) When a court issues a warrant upon an application made under paragraph (a) of this sub-6 section:

7 (A) The court may transmit the signed warrant to the person making application under sub-8 section (5) of this section by means of facsimile transmission or similar electronic transmission, as 9 described in paragraph (a) of this subsection. The court shall file the original signed warrant and 10 a printed image of the application with the return.

(B) The person making application shall deliver the original signed affidavit to the court with the return. If the affiant swore to the affidavit by telephone, the affiant must so note next to the affiant's signature on the affidavit.

SERVICE OF PARENTING TIME MOTION

SECTION 4. ORS 107.434 is amended to read:

107.434. (1) The presiding judge of each judicial district shall establish an expedited parenting 19 time enforcement procedure that may or may not include a requirement for mediation or partic-19 ipation in an alternative dispute resolution conference under ORS 107.103. The procedure must be 20 easy to understand and initiate. Unless the parties otherwise agree or an alternative dispute resol-22 ution conference under ORS 107.103 is scheduled, the court shall conduct a hearing no later than 23 45 days after the filing of a motion seeking enforcement of a parenting time order. The court shall 24 provide forms for:

(a) A motion filed by either party alleging a violation of parenting time or substantial violations of the parenting plan. When a person files this form, the person must include a copy of the order establishing the parenting time.

(b) An order requiring the parties to appear and show cause why parenting time should not be enforced in a specified manner. The party filing the motion shall serve a copy of the motion and the order on the other party in the manner provided by law for service of a summons. The order must include:

(A) A notice of the remedies imposable under subsection (2) of this section and the availability of a waiver of any mediation requirement; and

(B) A notice in substantially the following form:

35 36

34

37 When pleaded and shown in a separate legal action, violation of court orders, including 38 visitation and parenting time orders, may also result in a finding of contempt, which can lead to 39 fines, imprisonment or other penalties, including compulsory community service.

40 41

42 (c) A motion, supported by an affidavit or a declaration under penalty of perjury in the form
43 required by ORCP 1 E, and an order that may be filed by either party and providing for waiver of 44 any mediation requirement on a showing of good cause.

45 (2) In addition to any other remedy the court may impose to enforce the provisions of a judg-

1	ment relating to the parenting plan, the court may:
2	(a) Modify the provisions relating to the parenting plan by:
3	(A) Specifying a detailed parenting time schedule;
4	(B) Imposing additional terms and conditions on the existing parenting time schedule; or
5	(C) Ordering additional parenting time, in the best interests of the child, to compensate for
6	wrongful deprivation of parenting time;
7	(b) Order the party who is violating the parenting plan provisions to post bond or security;
8	(c) Order either or both parties to attend counseling or educational sessions that focus on the
9	impact of violation of the parenting plan on children;
10	(d) Award the prevailing party expenses, including, but not limited to, attorney fees, filing fees
11	and court costs, incurred in enforcing the party's parenting plan;
12	(e) Terminate, suspend or modify spousal support;
13	(f) Terminate, suspend or modify child support as provided in ORS 107.431; or
14	(g) Schedule a hearing for modification of custody as provided in ORS 107.135 (11).
