(h) Community-based housing, as described in ORS 430.643 (1)(a).

(3) “Zoning requirement” means any standard, criteria, condition, review procedure, permit requirement or other requirement adopted [by a city or county under the authority of ORS chapter 215 or 227] as a land use regulation that applies to the approval or siting of a residential facility or residential home. A zoning requirement does not include a [state or] local health, safety, [building,] occupancy or fire code requirement.

SECTION 2. ORS 197.843 is amended to read:

ORS 197.843. (1) The Land Use Board of Appeals shall award attorney fees to an applicant whose application is only for the development of affordable housing, as defined in ORS 197.308, or publicly supported housing, as defined in ORS 456.250, or supportive housing, if the board affirms a quasi-judicial land use decision approving the application or reverses a quasi-judicial land use decision denying the application.

(2) A party who was awarded attorney fees under this section or ORS 197.850 shall repay the fees plus any interest from the time of the judgment if the property upon which the fees are based is developed for a use other than affordable housing or supportive housing.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) “Affordable housing” includes affordable housing as defined in ORS 197.308 and publicly supported housing as defined in ORS 456.250.

[(a)] (b) “Applicant” includes:

(A) An applicant with a funding reservation agreement with a public funder for the purpose of developing publicly supported housing;
(B) A housing authority, as defined in ORS 456.005;
(C) A qualified housing sponsor, as defined in ORS 456.548;
(D) A religious nonprofit corporation;
(E) A public benefit nonprofit corporation whose primary purpose is the development of affordable housing; and
(F) A local government that approved the application of an applicant described in this paragraph.

[(b)] (c) “Attorney fees” includes prelitigation legal expenses, including preparing the application and supporting the application in local land use hearings or proceedings.

(d) “Supportive housing” means a residential facility or residential home, as those terms are defined in ORS 197.660.

SECTION 3. ORS 197.667 is amended to read:

ORS 197.667. (1) A residential facility [shall be] is a permitted use in any zone where multifamily residential uses are a permitted use.

(2) A residential facility [shall be] is a conditional use in any zone where multifamily residential uses are a conditional use.

(3) A [city or county] local government may allow a residential facility in a residential zone other than those zones described in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, including a zone where a single-family dwelling is allowed.

(4) A [city or county] local government may require an applicant proposing to site a residential facility within its jurisdiction to supply the [city or county] local government with a copy of the entire application and supporting documentation for state licensing of the facility, except for information which is exempt from public disclosure under ORS 192.311 to 192.478. However, [cities and counties] a local government may not require independent proof of the same conditions that have been required by the Department of Human Services under ORS 418.205 to 418.327 for licensing of a residential facility.

SECTION 4, ORS 197.665 is amended to read:

ORS 197.665 is amended to read:

197.665. (1) Residential homes shall be a permitted use in:

(a) Any residential zone, including a residential zone which allows a single-family dwelling; and

(b) Any commercial zone which allows a single-family dwelling.

(2) A [city or county] local government may not impose any zoning requirement on the establishment and maintenance of a residential home in a zone described in subsection (1) of this section that is more restrictive than a zoning requirement imposed on a single-family dwelling in the same zone.

(3) A [city or county] local government may:

(a) Allow a residential home in an existing dwelling in any area zoned for farm use, including an exclusive farm use zone established under ORS 215.203;

(b) Impose zoning requirements on the establishment of a residential home in areas described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, provided that these requirements are no more restrictive than those imposed on other nonfarm single-family dwellings in the same zone; and

(c) Allow a division of land for a residential home in an exclusive farm use zone only as described in ORS 215.263 (9).

SECTION 5, ORS 197.670 is amended to read:

ORS 197.670 is amended to read:

197.670. (1) As of October 3, 1989, no city or county shall:

(a) Deny an application for the siting of a residential home in a residential or commercial zone described in ORS 197.665 (1).

(b) Deny an application for the siting of a residential facility in a zone where multifamily residential uses are allowed, unless the [city or county] local government has adopted a siting procedure [which] implements the requirements of ORS 197.667.

(2) Every city and county shall amend its zoning ordinance to comply with ORS 197.660 to 197.667
as part of periodic land use plan review occurring after January 1, 1990. Nothing in this section prohibits a city or county from amending its zoning ordinance prior to periodic review.]
