7 147.115. (1) All information submitted to the Department of Justice by an applicant and all
8 hearings of the Workers' Compensation Board under ORS 147.005 to 147.367 shall be open to the 9 public unless the department or board determines that the information shall be kept confidential or 10 that a closed hearing shall be held because:

11 (a) The alleged assailant has not been brought to trial and disclosure of the information or a
12 public hearing would adversely affect either the apprehension or the trial of the alleged assailant;

13 (b) The offense allegedly perpetrated against the victim is rape, sodomy, [or] sexual abuse,
14 trafficking in persons or a crime involving domestic violence as defined in ORS 135.230, and
15 the interests of the victim or of the victim's dependents require that the information be kept confi-
16 dential or that the public be excluded from the hearing;

17 (c) The victim or alleged assailant is a minor; or

18 (d) The interests of justice would be frustrated rather than furthered, if the information were 19 disclosed or if the hearing were open to the public.

20 (2)(a) A record shall be kept of the proceedings held before the board and shall include the 21 board's findings of fact and conclusions concerning the amount of compensation, if any, to which the 22 applicant and the dependents of a deceased victim are entitled.

23 (b) No part of the record of any proceedings before the board may be used for any purpose in 24 a criminal proceeding except in the prosecution of a person alleged to have committed perjury in 25 testimony before the board.

26 (c) Where the interests of justice require, the board may refuse to disclose to the public the 27 names of victims or other material in the record by which the identity of the victim could be dis-
28 covered.

29 (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(b) and (c) of this section, the record of the proceedings held 30 before the board is a public record. However, any record or report obtained by the board, the 31 confidentiality of which is protected by any other law, shall remain confidential subject to such law.

32 (4) Witnesses required to appear at any proceeding before the board shall receive such fees and 33 mileage allowance as are provided for witnesses in ORS 44.415 (2).

34 SECTION 7. ORS 147.125 is amended to read:

35 147.125. (1) In determining the amount of compensation for which an applicant is eligible, the 36 Department of Justice shall consider the facts stated on the application filed pursuant to ORS 37 147.105, and:

38 (a) Need not consider whether or not the alleged assailant has been apprehended or brought to 39 trial or the result of any criminal proceedings against that person;

40 (b) Shall determine the amount of the loss to the applicant and, in the case of a deceased victim,
41 of the victim's survivors or dependents as determined under ORS 147.035;

42 [(c) Shall determine the degree or extent to which the victim's acts or conduct contributed to the 43 injuries or death of the victim, and may reduce or deny the award of compensation accordingly. How-
44 ever, the department may disregard for this purpose the responsibility of the victim for the injury of the 45 victim where the record shows that such responsibility was attributable to efforts by the victim to pre-

1 vent a crime or an attempted crime from occurring in the presence of the victim or to apprehend a
2 person who had committed a crime in the presence of the victim;]

3 [(d)] (c) Except as provided in paragraph [(e)] (d) of this subsection, shall deduct the amount of 4 benefits, payments or awards that are payable under the Workers' Compensation Law, from local
5 governmental, state or federal funds or from any source, and that the victim or survivors or depen-
6 dents of the victim have received or to which the victim or survivors or dependents of the victim
7 are entitled as a result of the death or injury of the victim;

8 [(e)] (d) Shall not deduct the amount of proceeds from life insurance or contributions from the 9 community that the survivors or dependents of the victim have received or to which the survivors
10 or dependents of the victim are entitled as a result of the death of the victim;

11 [(f)] (e) Shall consider the amount of money available for victim compensation awards as pro-
12 vided in the current biennial department budget approved by the Legislative Assembly or the 13 Emergency Board, and the anticipated claims against that money; and 14 [(g)] (f) Shall award the resultant amount to the applicant as provided in ORS 147.165.

15 (2) In determining the amount of an award to be made to an applicant, the department may 16 consider the number and type of claims filed and anticipated to be filed with the department during 17 the current biennial budget period. If the department determines that insufficient funds will be 18 available during the current biennial budget period to pay all filed and anticipated awards, it may 19 prioritize claims or prorate awards based upon the anticipated available funds. The department's 20 decision to prioritize or prorate claims or awards is not subject to administrative or judicial review,
21 including review under ORS 147.155.

22 SECTION 8. ORS 147.045 is repealed.

23 SECTION 9. ORS 147.055 is amended to read:

24 147.055. (1) [Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 147.045 (1),] The Department of Justice may 25 make an emergency award to the applicant pending a final decision in the claim, if it appears to the 26 department, prior to taking action upon the claim that:

27 (a) The claim is one with respect to which an award probably will be made; and

28 (b) Undue hardship will result to the applicant if immediate payment is not made.

29 (2)(a) The amount of such emergency award shall not exceed $1,000.

30 (b) The amount of such emergency award shall be deducted from any final award made as a

32 (c) The excess of the amount of such emergency award over the amount of the final award, or 33 the full amount of the emergency award if no final award is made, shall be repaid by the recipient
34 to the department.
