

House Bill 2708

Sponsored by Representative NERON (Pre-session filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Provides that first full week in March is known as Classified School Employees Week.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to the recognition of classified school employees.

Whereas classified school employees go above and beyond for public schools in this state every day; and

Whereas classified school employees keep students safe, healthy, nourished and learning; and

Whereas the work of classified school employees is often unrecognized; and

Whereas classified school employees are dedicated educators and civil servants who do important jobs that are essential to our schools; now, therefore,

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) The first full week in March, beginning with the first Monday, shall be known as Classified School Employees Week.

(2) In recognition of Classified School Employees Week, all communities that support children in public schools are encouraged to take time to recognize the essential, daily contributions of classified school employees to the success of the children of this state.
