(M) A member from the Pacific Northwest Regional Council of Carpenters;

(N) A member from a public sector labor union; and

(O) A member with experience in residential construction lending.

(3) In making appointments under this section, the appointing authorities shall, to the extent possible, strive to maintain geographic, linguistic, socioeconomic and experiential diversity among members of the task force.

SECTION 2. (1) The State Public Bank Task Force shall study and make recommendations regarding the establishment of a state public bank. The task force shall:

(a) Explore potential benefits and harms from the bank to state and local jurisdictions and private industries, including potential benefits and harms of a state bank engaging in lending, payments or providing other public financial infrastructure relating to:

- (A) Secondary loan markets for credit unions and community banks;
- (B) A depository for community credit unions and community banks;
- (C) Affordable housing construction during economic downturns;
- (D) Student loans;
- (E) Agricultural loans to incentivize sustainable farming practices;
- (F) A green bank to capture federal funds and leverage private capital;
- (G) Financing for local government infrastructure projects; and
- (H) Financial services for cannabis businesses;

(b) Explore possible governing and corporate structures for the bank;

(c) Explore possible means of capitalizing the bank, including by acting as a depository for credit unions and community banks; and

(d) Study other relevant issues identified by the task force.

(2) In carrying out its duties, the task force shall adhere to the principles of the bank being:

- (a) Publicly controlled and operated for the public benefit;
- (b) A means to save public dollars; and
- (c) A tool to spur greater economic activity within this state.

(3) No later than September 1, 2024, the task force shall submit a final report on its findings and recommendations, which may include recommendations for legislation, to an appropriate standing or interim committee of the Legislative Assembly. The report must include a recommendation for a governing structure for a public bank.

(4) A majority of the members of the task force constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(5) Official action by the task force requires the approval of a majority of the members of the task force.

(6) The task force shall elect one of its members to serve as chairperson and one of its members to serve as vice chairperson.

(7) If there is a vacancy for any cause, the appointing authority shall make an appointment to become immediately effective.

(8) The task force shall meet at times and places specified by the call of the chairperson or of a majority of the members of the task force.

(9) The task force may adopt rules necessary for the operation of the task force.

(10) The Oregon Business Development Department shall provide staff support to the task force.

(11) The task force may apply for public grants or private grants from nonprofit organizations for expenses related to its duties.

(12) Members of the task force who are members of the Legislative Assembly are entitled to compensation and expenses as provided in ORS 171.072. Members of the task force who are not members of the Legislative Assembly are entitled to compensation and expenses in the same manner and amount as provided in ORS 292.495.

(13) All agencies of state government, as defined in ORS 174.111, are directed to assist the task force in the performance of the duties of the task force and, to the extent permitted by laws relating to confidentiality, to furnish information and advice the members of the task force consider necessary to perform their duties.

SECTION 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this 2023 Act are repealed on January 2, 2025.

SECTION 3a. In addition to and not in lieu of any other appropriation, there is appropriated to the Oregon Business Development Department, for the biennium beginning July

1, 2023, out of the General Fund, the amount of $431,562, for staff support to the State Public Bank Task Force established by section 1 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 4. This 2023 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2023 Act takes effect on its passage.
