Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 646A.090 is amended to read:

646A.090. (1) As used in this section:

(a) “Buyer” means a person that purchases [or leases] a motor vehicle or is the lessee in a lease transaction for a motor vehicle.

(b) “Final approval of funding” means a lender’s irrevocable agreement to purchase a retail installment contract or lease agreement from a seller according to the exact terms that the seller and the buyer have negotiated.

(c) “Lender” means a person that purchases a retail installment contract or lease agreement for a motor vehicle.

(d) “Motor vehicle” means a motor vehicle, as defined in ORS 801.360, that is sold or leased in this state for personal, family or household purposes.

(e) “Seller” means a person that holds a current, valid vehicle dealer certificate issued under ORS 822.020 or renewed under ORS 822.040.

(2) A seller may not offer to sell or lease a motor vehicle to a buyer or prospective buyer under a retail installment contract or lease agreement that is [subject to] contingent upon a lender’s agreement to purchase the retail installment contract or lease agreement into which the buyer enters.

[(3) In any transaction described in subsection (2) of this section:] [(a) If, within 14 days after a buyer takes possession of a motor vehicle, a lender does not agree to purchase a retail installment contract or lease agreement on the exact terms that the seller and the buyer negotiate and the seller does not receive final approval of funding from the lender, the seller shall]
(b) If the seller has accepted a trade-in motor vehicle from the buyer, the seller may not sell or lease the buyer's trade-in motor vehicle before the seller receives final approval of funding from the lender.

(4) In any transaction described in subsection (2) of this section, if the buyer has accepted a motor vehicle from the seller that is subject to a retail installment contract or lease agreement, and a lender does not agree to purchase the retail installment contract or lease agreement on the exact terms the seller and the buyer negotiated, the buyer shall return to the seller all items of value the buyer received from the seller as part of the transaction. The seller may charge the buyer only for amounts that the retail installment contract or lease agreement provides in writing that the seller may charge. The retail installment contract or lease agreement may provide only for these amounts:

(a) The fair market value of damage to, excessive wear and tear on or loss of the motor vehicle that occurs between the date the buyer takes possession of the motor vehicle and the date the buyer returns the motor vehicle to the seller's custody; and

(b) If, within 14 days after the date on which the buyer takes possession of the motor vehicle, the seller sends notice to the buyer by first class mail or written electronic communication that a lender has not agreed to purchase the retail installment contract or lease agreement, a reasonable charge per mile for the use of the motor vehicle. The charge may not exceed the rate per mile allowed under federal law as a deduction for federal income tax purposes for an ordinary and necessary business expense.

(5) If the buyer makes a reasonable attempt to return the vehicle within five days after the seller sends a notice under subsection (4)(b) of this section, but the seller is not available to accept the return, the seller may not charge the buyer under subsection (4)(b) of this section.

(6)(a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, a seller has an affirmative defense to a claim or charge of violating subsection (3)(a) of this section by showing that the buyer failed to return the motor vehicle after the seller sent the notice described in subsection (4)(b) of this section.

(b) A seller shall retain proof of the date on which the seller sent to the buyer the notice described in subsection (4)(b) of this section.

(3)(a) If, after selling or leasing a motor vehicle to a buyer, the seller sells the retail installment contract or lease agreement for the motor vehicle to a lender, the seller must receive final approval of funding from the lender within 14 days after the buyer takes possession of the motor vehicle. If the lender does not provide final approval of funding with the 14-day period or if the lender does not agree to purchase the retail installment contract or lease agreement on the exact terms that the seller and buyer negotiated:

(A) The seller shall retain the retail installment contract or lease agreement and, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, thereafter may not sell, assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of the benefits, duties or obligations due under the retail installment contract or lease agreement; and

(B) The seller shall notify the buyer in writing by first class mail that a lender has not agreed to purchase the retail installment contract or lease agreement and that the seller will retain the retail installment contract or lease agreement.

(b) The seller must send the notice described in paragraph (a)(B) of this subsection not less than 10 days before the buyer must make a payment under the retail installment contract or lease agreement. The notice must include the name and address of the person to which the buyer must make payments, the amount of each monthly payment, the number of payments due under the contract or agreement and the date on which the first payment is due.

(c) A seller may contract with another person to collect payments from a buyer on the seller's behalf and otherwise service a retail installment contract or lease agreement the seller retained under paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection, but a contract between the seller and the other person may not impose additional duties or obligations on the buyer and does not relieve the seller of any duty or obligation to the buyer under the retail installment contract or lease agreement, notwithstanding any term or condition set forth in the contract between the seller and the other person.

(4)(a) If a buyer does not make a payment that, under the terms of a retail installment contract or lease agreement, is due before the seller sends a notice under subsection (3)(a)(B) of this section or in fewer than 10 days after the buyer receives the notice, the seller must credit the buyer's account as though the seller had received the payment and may not thereafter collect the amount of the missed payment from the buyer.

(b) If a seller refuses a buyer's payment under a retail installment contract or lease agreement the seller retained, or should have retained, as provided in subsection (3)(a)(A) of this section, the seller must credit the buyer's account as though the buyer had made the payment and may not thereafter collect the amount of the payment that the seller refused.

(5) A seller that does not comply with this section breaches the retail installment contract or lease agreement and may not enforce any term or condition that provides for colclecting any payments or repossessing the motor vehicle that is the subject of the retail installment contract or lease agreement. A buyer may assert the seller's failure to comply with this section as an affirmative defense in any action to repossess the motor vehicle or collect a payment due under the retail installment contract or lease agreement.
