A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to sick leave for mental health; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 653.616, 653.626, 653.651 and 653.656.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2023 Act is added to and made a part of ORS 653.601 to 653.661.

SECTION 2. The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries shall develop and offer informational materials and training opportunities for employers and employees to increase awareness about the relationship between mental and physical health and the benefits of taking leave from work to address mental health needs.

SECTION 3. ORS 653.616 is amended to read:

653.616. An employee may use sick time earned under ORS 653.606:

(1) For an employee’s mental health, mental or physical illness, injury or health condition, need for medical diagnosis, care or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition or need for preventive medical care.

(2) For care of a family member with a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition, care of a family member who needs medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition or care of a family member who needs preventive medical care.

(3) Notwithstanding ORS 659A.153, for any other purpose specified in ORS 659A.159.

(4) For a purpose specified in ORS 659A.272, notwithstanding ORS 659A.270 (1).

(5) For care of the mental health needs of the employee’s family member, including the domestic partner of the employee.

[(5)] (6) To donate accrued sick time to another employee if the other employee uses the donated sick time for a purpose specified in this section and the employer has a policy that allows an employee to donate sick time to a coworker for a purpose specified in this section.

[(6)] (7) In the event of a public health emergency. For purposes of this subsection, a public health emergency includes, but is not limited to:

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

LC 3385
(a) Closure of the employee’s place of business, or the school or place of care of the employee’s child, by order of a public official due to a public health emergency;

(b) A determination by a lawful public health authority or by a health care provider that the presence of the employee or the family member of the employee in the community would jeopardize the health of others, such that the employee must provide self care or care for the family member; or

(c) The exclusion of the employee from the workplace under any law or rule that requires the employer to exclude the employee from the workplace for health reasons.

SECTION 4. ORS 653.626 is amended to read:

653.626. (1)(a) If an employee takes more than three consecutive scheduled workdays of sick time for a purpose described in ORS 653.616 (1) to (4) other than for mental health, an employer may require the employee to provide verification from a health care provider of the need for the sick time, or certification of the need for leave for purposes of ORS 659A.272 as provided in ORS 659A.280.

(b) If the need for sick time is foreseeable and is projected to last more than three scheduled workdays and an employee is required to provide notice under ORS 653.621, the employer may require that verification or certification be provided before the sick time commences or as soon as otherwise practicable.

(c) If the employee commences sick time without providing prior notice required by the employer under ORS 653.621:

(A) Medical verification shall be provided to the employer within 15 calendar days after the employer requests the verification; or

(B) Certification provided as specified in ORS 659A.280 shall be provided to the employer within a reasonable time after the employee receives the request for certification.

(2) The employer shall pay any reasonable costs for providing medical verification or certification required under this section, including lost wages, that are not paid under a health benefit plan in which the employee is enrolled.

(3)(a) An employer may not require that the verification or certification required under this section explain the nature of the illness or details related to mental health or to the domestic violence, sexual assault, harassment, or stalking that necessitates the use of sick time.

(b) If an employer suspects that an employee is abusing sick time, including engaging in a pattern of abuse, the employer may require verification from a health care provider of the need of the employee to use sick time, regardless of whether the employee has used sick time for more than three consecutive days. As used in this paragraph, “pattern of abuse” includes, but is not limited to, repeated use of unscheduled sick time on or adjacent to weekends, holidays, vacation days or paydays.

(4) As used in this section, “health care provider” has the meaning given that term in ORS 659A.150.

SECTION 5. ORS 653.651 is amended to read:

653.651. (1) An employee asserting a violation of ORS 653.641 (2) or (3) may file a complaint with the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries under ORS 659A.820 or a civil action as provided in ORS 659A.885.

(2) The commissioner has the same enforcement powers with respect to the rights established under ORS 653.601 to 653.661 as are established in ORS chapters 652 and 653.

(3) The commissioner may enter into contracts with mental health professionals to investigate complaints alleging retaliation for an absence covered under ORS 653.601 to 653.661 that relates to mental health.

SECTION 6. ORS 653.656 is amended to read:

653.656. The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries:

(1) Shall enforce the provisions of ORS 653.601 to 653.661; [and]

(2) Shall adopt rules concerning retaliation for absences related to mental health that are covered under ORS 653.601 to 653.661; and

[(2)] (3) May adopt rules necessary for the implementation and enforcement of ORS 653.601 to 653.661.

SECTION 7. In addition to and not in lieu of any other appropriation, there is appropriated to the Bureau of Labor and Industries, for the biennium beginning July 1, 2023, out of the General Fund, the amount of $______, which may be expended for carrying out the provisions of section 2 of this 2023 Act and for carrying out the amendments to ORS 653.651 and 653.656 by sections 5 and 6 of this 2023 Act.
