A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to threatening a mass injury event; creating new provisions; amending ORS 161.005; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) A person commits the crime of threatening a mass injury event if:
(a) The person intentionally causes fear, alarm or terror in another person by conveying a threat to cause unlawful serious physical injury or death to two or more persons;
(b) The person expresses the intent to carry out the threat; and
(c) A reasonable person would:
(A) Be placed in fear, alarm or terror by the threat; and
(B) Believe that the threat was likely to be carried out.

(2) Threatening a mass injury event is a Class C felony.

(3) A threat under this section may be conveyed orally, in writing or telephonically, or may be an electronic threat as defined in ORS 166.065.

(4) In a prosecution under this section, the state is not required to specifically identify the two or more persons against whom the threat is made.

SECTION 2. (1)(a) The Department of Corrections shall distribute moneys to counties to fund supervision services for persons convicted under section 1 of this 2023 Act.

(b) The Oregon Youth Authority shall distribute moneys to counties to fund supervision services for persons found to be within the jurisdiction of the court under ORS 419C.005 for committing an act that, if committed by an adult, would constitute an offense under section 1 of this 2023 Act.

(2) The obligation of the department and authority to distribute moneys under subsection (1) of this section is limited to the extent of moneys specifically appropriated to the department and authority for that purpose.

SECTION 3. ORS 161.005 is amended to read:

161.005. ORS 161.005 to 161.055, 161.085 to 161.125, 161.150 to 161.175, 161.190 to 161.275, 161.290 to 161.373, 161.405 to 161.485, 161.505 to 161.585, 161.605, 161.615 to 161.685, 161.705 to 161.737, 162.005, 162.015 to 162.035, 162.055 to 162.115, 162.135 to 162.205, 162.225 to 162.375, 162.405 to
