The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Modifies purpose and duties of Youth Development Council and Youth Development Division. Modifies requirements of local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to the coordination of services for youth; amending ORS 417.847, 417.850, 417.852 and 417.855.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 417.847 is amended to read:

417.847. (1) The Youth Development Council is established.

(2) The council is established for the purpose of coordinating a unified and aligned system that provides services to school-age children through youth 24 years of age in a manner that supports educational and workforce success, [focuses on crime prevention,] promotes protective factors, prevents justice system involvement, reduces high risk behaviors and is [integrated,] measurable and accountable. The council shall [provide direction] develop policy for and provide guidance to the Youth Development Division.

(3) The council consists of no fewer than 15 members who are appointed by the Governor. The Governor shall ensure that membership of the council satisfies any federal requirements for membership of a state advisory group on juvenile justice, and shall include tribal representation in the membership of the council.

(4) The council shall:

(a) [Determine the availability of funding] Approve funding processes to support community-based youth development programs, services and initiatives with demonstrated outcomes and strategic objectives established by the council by rule.

(b) Prioritize funding for services related to:

(A) The prevention of and intervention in the risk factors that lead to [juvenile delinquency] justice system involvement and the promotion of protective factors that improve the health and well-being of children and youth, as supported by evidence-based program models [and other research-based models; and], culturally specific and traditional practices and other emerging models;

(B) The prevention of and intervention in [gang] community violence and gang [involvement.] activity, with an emphasis on a public health approach and community-based programs; and

(C) The provision of workforce development, reengagement and other types of programming designed to support educational success, increase youth career readiness and post-secondary success or otherwise deliver training and remove barriers in order to promote

(c) [Administer and] Coordinate the statewide youth reengagement system described in ORS 417.859, in collaboration with the Youth Development Division.

(5) The council may:

(a) Enter into intergovernmental agreements with county and municipal governments, tribal governments, educational institutions and other governmental entities identified by rule of the council for the provision of youth development programs, services and initiatives.

(b) Enter into grant agreements and contracts with community-based organizations, educational institutions, regional entities and other entities identified by rule of the council for the provision of youth development programs, services and initiatives.

(c) Determine the means by which services to children and youth may be provided effectively and efficiently across multiple programs to improve the academic and social outcomes of children and youth.

(d) Assess state programs and services related to youth development and training, and identify methods by which programs and services may be coordinated or consolidated.

(e) Establish common academic and social indicators to support attainment of goals established by the council.

(f) Establish common program outcome measurements and coordinate data collection across multiple programs and services.

(g) Ensure implementation of best practices that:

(A) Are evidence based;

(B) Are culturally, gender and age appropriate;

(C) Address individual protective and risk factors;

(D) Build upon factors that improve the health and well-being of children and youth; and

(E) Include tribal best practices.

(h) Delegate responsibilities to the Youth Development Division.

(6) The Governor may designate one member of the council to serve as the chairperson or, if the Governor chooses not to designate a chairperson, the council may elect one of its members to serve as chairperson.

(7) In accordance with applicable provisions of ORS chapter 183, the council may adopt rules necessary for the administration of the laws that the council is charged with administering.

SECTION 2. ORS 417.850 is amended to read:

417.850. The Youth Development Council established by ORS 417.847 shall:

(1) Review the budget and allocation formula for appropriations for the purpose of juvenile crime prevention.

(2) Review the components of local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans developed under ORS 417.855 and make recommendations to the Governor about the local plans.

(3) Ensure that high-risk juvenile crime prevention planning criteria are met by state and local public and private entities.

(4) Recommend high-risk juvenile justice and juvenile crime prevention policies to the Governor and the Legislative Assembly.

(5) Ensure initiation of contracts based on approved local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans and oversee contract changes.
(6) Review data and outcome information.

(7) Establish and publish review and assessment criteria for the local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans. The criteria shall include, but not be limited to, measuring changes in juvenile crime and juvenile recidivism.

(8) Review local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans and ensure alignment of the plans with diversion plans and basic services grants of county juvenile departments. [For purposes of this subsection,] The council shall [adopt rules in consultation] consult or communicate with county juvenile departments, federally recognized Indian tribes and the Oregon Youth Authority to adopt rules to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

(9) Work to ensure broad-based citizen involvement in the planning and execution of high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans at both the state and local levels.

(10) Develop a funding policy that provides incentives for flexible programming and promotes strategies that [stress reinvestment in youth] build protective factors and contribute to the well-being of youth and families.

(11) Periodically report to the Governor and the Legislative Assembly on the progress of the council.

(12) As required by the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, 34 U.S.C. 11133 et seq., approve funding and policy recommendations of the state advisory group and adopt rules for overseeing approved funding and policy recommendations.

(13) Work with tribal governments to develop tribal high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans.

SECTION 3, ORS 417.852 is amended to read:

417.852. (1) The Youth Development Division is established in the Department of Education. The purpose of the division is to ensure that services are provided to school-age children through youth 24 years of age in a manner that [supports educational success, focuses on crime prevention, reduces high risk behaviors and is integrated, measurable and accountable.] supports education and career success, disrupts youth crime and violence and affirms youth strengths and safety.

(2) The division shall function under [the direction and control of] and be coordinated by the Youth Development Council with the Youth Development Director serving as the administrative officer.

(3) The division shall:

(a) Administer grant funding processes and programs;

(b) Carry out compliance monitoring and other required activities as directed by the Youth Development Council, under the federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, 34 U.S.C. 11133 et seq.;

(c) Collaborate with the Youth Development Council to develop youth development policies and programs that support youth, family, practitioners and community needs;

(d) Collaborate with other state agencies serving youth in order to align services, programs and activities and to share expertise;

(e) Engage in administrative functions to ensure the effective operation of the division and council and work with the Department of Education when services are shared;

(f) Seek to increase opportunities for youth to participate in leadership roles and have direct influence on youth development programs, in collaboration with the council and through the programs administered by the division; and

(g) Ensure that youth development services administered by the division are delivered to youth in an equitable, accountable and effective manner, through the collection of data from...
administered programs, communication with entities delivering services and recipients of program services, and coordination with other state agencies.

SECTION 4. ORS 417.855 is amended to read:

417.855. (1)(a) Each board of county commissioners shall designate an agency or organization to serve as the lead planning organization to facilitate the creation of a partnership among state and local public and private entities in each county. The partnership shall include, but is not limited to, education representatives, public health representatives, local alcohol and drug planning committees, representatives of the court system, local mental health planning committees, city or municipal representatives and local public safety coordinating councils. [The partnership shall develop a local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plan.]

(b) The partnership described in paragraph (a) of this subsection shall develop a local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plan. The board of county commissioners shall submit the plan to the Youth Development Council, on a timeline established by the council, for review and approval in order for the county to receive an allocation described in subsection (3) of this section.

(c) A board of county commissioners may decline to submit a local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plan in writing to the Youth Development Council. A board that declines to submit a plan to the Youth Development Council may choose to convene the partnership described in paragraph (a) of this subsection and develop and submit a local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plan in a subsequent biennium.

(2) The local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans shall use services and activities to meet the needs of a targeted population of youths who:

(a) Have more than one of the following risk factors:

(A) Antisocial behavior;

(B) Poor family functioning or poor family support;

(C) Failure in school;

(D) Substance abuse problems; or

(E) Negative peer association; and

(b) Are clearly demonstrating at-risk behaviors that have come to the attention of government or community agencies, schools or law enforcement and will lead to imminent or increased involvement in the juvenile justice system.

(3)(a) The Youth Development Council shall allocate funds available to support the local high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans to counties based, in part, on the youth population age 18 or younger in those counties.

(b) The Youth Development Council shall award a minimum grant to small counties. The minimum grant level shall be determined by the council through a public process and reviewed by the council biennially.

(c) The Youth Development Council shall allocate funds to federally recognized Indian tribes to support tribal high-risk juvenile crime prevention plans. The amount of the allocation shall be determined by the council through a public process and reviewed by the council biennially.
