Prohibits peace officer, school resource officer or special campus security officer from conducting custodial interview with person under 18 years of age unless person has consulted with attorney.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to custodial interviews of persons under 18 years of age.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section:
(a) “Custodial interview” means an interview in which the person questioned is in custody and is required to be advised of the person's constitutional rights.
(b) “Peace officer” has the meaning given that term in ORS 133.005.
(c) “School resource officer” means a peace officer who is assigned to a school.
(d) “Special campus security officer” means a special campus security officer described in ORS 352.118.

(2) A peace officer, school resource officer or special campus security officer may not conduct a custodial interview with a person under 18 years of age unless the person has consulted with an attorney, either in person, by phone or by video conference.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2023 Act applies to custodial interviews occurring on or after the effective date of this 2023 Act.
