“SECTION 1. (1) If an amendment to the Oregon Constitution is referred to the people by the Eighty-second Legislative Assembly during its 2023 regular session under Article XVII, section 1, of the Oregon Constitution, or if an Act of the Eighty-second Legislative Assembly that passes both houses of the Legislative Assembly during its 2023 regular session is referred to the people by the Legislative Assembly under Article IV, section 1 (3)(c), of the Oregon Constitution:

“(a) Notwithstanding ORS 250.035, 250.067, 250.075 (2) and 250.085, the ballot title for a measure described in this subsection shall be prepared by the joint legislative committee appointed under section 6 of this 2023 Act and filed with the Secretary of State not later than the date set by the Secretary of State by rule. The word limits described in ORS 250.035 (2) do not apply to a ballot title for a measure described in this subsection that is prepared by the joint legislative committee under this subsection. Unless modified under section 4 of this 2023 Act, the ballot title prepared by the committee under this subsection shall be the ballot title printed in the voters’ pamphlet and printed on, or included with, the ballot.

“(b) Notwithstanding ORS 251.205, 251.215, 251.225, 251.230 and 251.235, the explanatory statement to be printed in the voters’ pamphlet for a measure described in this subsection shall be prepared by the joint legislative committee appointed under section 6 of this 2023 Act and filed with the Secretary of State not later than the date set by the Secretary of State by rule. Unless modified under section 5 of this 2023 Act, the explanatory statement prepared by the committee under this subsection shall be the explanatory statement printed in the voters’ pamphlet.

“(2) The joint legislative committee may begin preparation of the ballot title or explanatory statement on the date the measure is filed with the Secretary of State.

“(3) Except as otherwise provided in sections 1 to 7 of this 2023 Act, ORS chapters 250, 251 and 254 apply to an election held on a measure described in subsection (1) of this section.

“(4) As used in sections 1 to 7 of this 2023 Act, ‘measure’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 250.005.

“SECTION 2. (1) The Secretary of State shall cause to be printed in the voters’ pamphlet the number, ballot title and text of a measure described in section 1 of this 2023 Act and the financial estimate, explanatory statement and arguments relating to the measure. The Secretary of State shall also cause to be printed in the voters’ pamphlet any other information required by law.

“(2) For purposes of sections 1 to 7 of this 2023 Act, the election referred to in ORS
251.295 is the general election.

“SECTION 3. (1) Notwithstanding the deadline specified in ORS 254.085, the Secretary of State shall prepare and deliver to each county clerk by the most expeditious means practicable a certified statement of a measure described in section 1 of this 2023 Act. The Secretary of State shall include with the statement the number, financial estimate and ballot title of the measure and any other information required by law. The Secretary of State shall keep a copy of the statement.

“(2) Each county clerk shall print on the ballot the number, financial estimate and ballot title of the measure, along with any other information required by law. In lieu of printing the financial estimate, the summary portion of the ballot title or other information required by law on the ballot, each county clerk may include with the ballot the complete text of the ballot title, the financial estimate and any other information required by law.

“SECTION 4. Notwithstanding ORS 250.085:

“(1) Any elector dissatisfied with the ballot title for a measure described in section 1 of this 2023 Act prepared by the joint legislative committee appointed under section 6 of this 2023 Act may petition the Supreme Court seeking a different ballot title. The petition shall state the reasons that the ballot title filed with the Secretary of State does not substantially comply with the requirements of ORS 250.035 and section 1 of this 2023 Act.

“(2) The petition shall name the Attorney General as the respondent and must be filed not later than the fifth business day after the joint legislative committee files the ballot title with the Secretary of State.

“(3) An elector filing a petition under this section shall notify the Secretary of State in writing that the petition has been filed. The notice must be received in the office of the Secretary of State not later than 5 p.m. on the next business day following the day the petition is filed.

“(4) The Supreme Court shall review the ballot title for substantial compliance with the requirements of ORS 250.035 and section 1 of this 2023 Act.

“(5) The review by the Supreme Court shall be conducted expeditiously to ensure the orderly and timely conduct of the election at which the measure is to be submitted to the electors.

“(6) If the Supreme Court determines that the ballot title prepared by the joint legislative committee substantially complies with the requirements of ORS 250.035 and section 1 of this 2023 Act, the court shall certify the ballot title to the Secretary of State. If the Supreme Court determines that the ballot title prepared by the joint legislative committee does not substantially comply with the requirements of ORS 250.035 and section 1 of this 2023 Act, the court shall modify the ballot title and certify the ballot title to the Secretary of State or refer the ballot title to the Attorney General for modification.

“(7) Not later than five business days after the Supreme Court refers a ballot title to the Attorney General for modification under this section, the Attorney General shall certify a modified ballot title to the Secretary of State. The modified ballot title is not subject to judicial review.

“SECTION 5. Notwithstanding ORS 251.235:

“(1) Any person dissatisfied with the explanatory statement for a measure described in section 1 of this 2023 Act prepared by the joint legislative committee appointed under section 6 of this 2023 Act may petition the Supreme Court seeking a different explanatory statement... and stating the reasons the explanatory statement is insufficient or unclear.

“(2) The court shall review the explanatory statement and certify an explanatory statement to the Secretary of State if the petition is filed and served as required in subsection
(4) of this section not later than the fifth business day after the joint legislative committee files the explanatory statement with the Secretary of State.

“(3) Failure to file and serve the petition within the time prescribed in subsection (2) of this section precludes Supreme Court review and certification of an explanatory statement.
If the court considers the petition, the court may allow oral argument. The review by the Supreme Court shall be conducted expeditiously to ensure the orderly and timely conduct of the election at which the measure is to be submitted to the electors. The explanatory statement certified by the court shall be the explanatory statement printed in the voters’ pamphlet.

“(4) At the time a person petitions the Supreme Court under subsection (1) of this section, the person also shall serve a copy of the petition on:
“(a) The Attorney General; and “(b) The Legislative Assembly.

“SECTION 6. (1) For each measure described in section 1 of this 2023 Act, a joint legislative committee consisting of three Senators and three Representatives shall be appointed to prepare and file with the Secretary of State the ballot title and explanatory statement for the measure.

“(2)(a) The President of the Senate shall appoint three members of a committee from among members of the Senate, two from the majority party and one from a minority party.
“(b) The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three members of a committee from among members of the House of Representatives, two from the majority party and one from a minority party.

“SECTION 7. The Secretary of State shall adopt rules governing the procedures for conducting an election on a measure described in section 1 of this 2023 Act as may be necessary to implement sections 1 to 7 of this 2023 Act. Rules adopted under this section may not require the joint legislative committee appointed under section 6 of this 2023 Act to:
“(1) Prepare or make publicly available a draft ballot title; or
“(2) File a ballot title with the Secretary of State before March 12, 2024.

“SECTION 8. This 2023 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2023 Act takes effect on its passage.”.
