LC 281
ATTENTION ALL PUBLIC EMPLOYEES:

The restrictions imposed by the law of the State of Oregon on your political activities are that “No public employee shall solicit any money, influence, service or other thing of value or otherwise promote or oppose any political committee; [or] promote or oppose the appointment, nomination or election of a [candidate,] person to a public office; or promote or oppose the filing of or [the] gathering of signatures on an initiative, referendum or recall petition[,] or the adoption of a measure or the recall of a public office holder while on the job during working hours or while otherwise acting in their official capacity as a public employee. However, this section does not restrict the right of a public employee to express personal political views, provided that a reasonable person would not infer that the views represent those of the public employer.”

It is therefore the policy of the state and of your public employer that you may engage in political activity except to the extent prohibited by state law when on the job during working hours or while otherwise working in your official capacity as a public employee.
