SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Updates reporting requirements for worker leasing companies providing workers’ compensation coverage to client employers.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to worker leasing company reporting; amending ORS 656.018 and 656.850.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 656.850 is amended to read:

656.850. (1) As used in this section and ORS 656.018, 656.403, 656.855 and 737.270:

(a)(A) “Worker leasing company” means a person [who] that provides workers, by contract and for a fee, to work for a client [but].

(b) “Worker leasing company” does not include a person [who] that provides workers to a client on a temporary basis.

(temporary basis) means providing workers to a client:

(A) For special situations such as to cover employee absences, employee leaves, professional skill shortages, seasonal workloads and special assignments and projects with the expectation that the position or positions will be terminated upon completion of the special situation. [Workers also are provided on a temporary basis if they are provided]

(B) As probationary new hires with a reasonable expectation of transitioning to permanent employment with the client [and], if the client uses a preestablished probationary period in its overall employment selection program.

(c) “Temporary service provider” means a person [who] that provides workers, by contract and for a fee, to a client on a temporary basis.

(2) No person shall perform services as a worker leasing company in this state without first having obtained a license therefor from the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services. No person required by this section to obtain a license shall fail to comply with this section or ORS 656.855, or any rule adopted pursuant thereto.

(3) When a worker leasing company provides workers to a client, the worker leasing company shall ensure that the client provides adequate training, supervision and instruction for those workers to meet the requirements of ORS chapter 654.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

extends coverage to subject workers employed by the client and any workers leased by the client.

(b) If the client allows the coverage to expire and continues to employ subject workers or has leased workers, the client shall be considered a noncomplying employer unless the worker leasing company has complied with subsection (5) of this section.

(4) When a worker leasing company provides workers for a client, the worker leasing company shall assure that the client provides adequate training, supervision and instruction for those workers to meet the requirements of ORS chapter 654.

(5) When a worker leasing company provides subject workers to work for a client [and also provides workers’ compensation coverage for those workers], the worker leasing company shall:

(a) Notify the director in writing. The notification shall be given in such manner as the director may prescribe; and

(b) If the worker leasing company is obligated to provide workers’ compensation coverage to the client under subsection (4) of this section, notify the insurer in writing.

(6)(a) A worker leasing company may terminate its obligation to provide workers’ compensation coverage [for workers provided to a client by giving to the client and the director] under subsection
(4) of this section by giving written notice of the termination, in such manner as the director may prescribe, to:

(A) The client and the insurer; or

(B) If the worker leasing company is self-insured, the client and the director.

(b) [A notice of termination shall state the effective date and hour of the termination, but the termination shall be effective not less than] Unless a later date is specified, the termination shall become effective at 12 midnight [30 days after] on the 30th day following the date on which the notice is received by [the director.];

(A) An authorized representative of the insurer; or

(B) If the worker leasing company is self-insured, the director.

(c)(A) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection, a termination may take effect sooner than 30 days following the date on which the written notice is received if the client:

(i) Obtains other coverage from an insurer;

(ii) Has coverage provided to it by another worker leasing company; or

(iii) Becomes a self-insured employer.

(B) The written notice of termination authorized under this paragraph shall become ef-effective immediately upon the effective date of the other coverage or the client’s certification as a self-insured employer.

(7) When a worker leasing company satisfies its obligation to provide workers’ compensation coverage under subsection (4) of this section by obtaining a workers’ compensation insurance policy, the coverage under the policy shall continue until the earliest of the date on which:

(a) The term of the policy expires;

(b) Termination of the obligation becomes effective under subsection (6) of this section;

(c) Another insurer files proof of coverage on behalf of the client;

(d) Another worker leasing company provides coverage to the client; or

(e) The client becomes self-insured under ORS 656.430.

(8) Written notice to the client under this section shall be given by mail, addressed to the client at the client’s last-known address. If the client is a partnership, the notice may be given to any of the partners. If the client is a corporation, the notice may be given to any agent or officer of the corporation upon whom legal process may be served.

SECTION 2. ORS 656.018 is amended to read:

ORS 656.018. (1)(a) The liability of every employer who satisfies the duty required by ORS 656.017 (1) is exclusive and in place of all other liability arising out of injuries, diseases, symptom complexes or similar conditions arising out of and in the course of employment that are sustained by subject workers, the workers’ beneficiaries and anyone otherwise entitled to recover damages from the employer on account of such conditions or claims resulting therefrom, specifically including claims for contribution or indemnity asserted by third persons from whom damages are sought on account of such conditions, except as specifically provided otherwise in this chapter.

(b) This subsection shall not apply to claims for indemnity or contribution asserted by a railroad, as defined in ORS 824.020, or by a corporation, individual or association of individuals which is subject to regulation pursuant to ORS chapter 757 or 759.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, all agreements or warranties contrary to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection entered into after July 19, 1977, are void.

(2) The rights given to a subject worker and the beneficiaries of the subject worker under this chapter for injuries, diseases, symptom complexes or similar conditions arising out of and in the course of employment are in lieu of any remedies they might otherwise have for such injuries, diseases, symptom complexes or similar conditions against the worker’s employer under ORS 654.305 to 654.336 or other laws, common law or statute, except to the extent the worker is expressly given the right under this chapter to bring suit against the employer of the worker for an injury, disease, symptom complex or similar condition.

(3) The exemption from liability given an employer under this section is also extended to the employer’s insurer, the self-insured employer’s claims administrator, the Department of Consumer and Business Services, and to the contracted agents, employees, partners, limited liability company members, general partners, limited liability partners, limited partners, officers and directors of the employer, the employer’s insurer, the self-insured employer’s claims administrator and the department, except that the exemption from liability shall not apply:

(a) If the willful and unprompted aggression by a person otherwise exempt under this subsection is a substantial factor in causing the injury, disease, symptom complex or similar condition;

(b) If the worker and the person otherwise exempt under this subsection are not engaged in the furtherance of a common enterprise or the accomplishment of the same or related objectives;

(c) If the failure of the employer to comply with a notice posted pursuant to ORS 654.082 is a substantial factor in causing the injury, disease, symptom complex or similar condition; or

(d) If the negligence of a person otherwise exempt under this subsection is a substantial factor in causing the injury, disease, symptom complex or similar condition and the negligence occurs outside of the capacity that qualifies the person for exemption under this section.

(4) The exemption from liability given an employer under this section applies to a worker leasing company and the client to whom workers are provided when the worker leasing company and the client comply with ORS 656.850 [(3)] (4).

(5)(a) The exemption from liability given an employer under this section applies to a temporary service provider, as that term is used in ORS 656.850, and also extends to the client to whom workers are provided when the temporary service provider complies with ORS 656.017.

(b) The exemption from liability given a client under paragraph (a) of this subsection is also extended to the client’s insurer, the self-insured client’s claims administrator, the department, and the contracted agents, employees, officers and directors of the client, the client’s insurer, the selfinsured client’s claims administrator and the department, except that the exemption from liability shall not apply:

(A) If the willful and unprovoked aggression by a person otherwise exempt under this subsection is a substantial factor in causing the injury, disease, symptom complex or similar condition;

(B) If the worker and the person otherwise exempt under this subsection are not engaged in the furtherance of a common enterprise or the accomplishment of the same or related objectives;

(C) If the failure of the client to comply with a notice posted pursuant to ORS 654.082 is a substantial factor in causing the injury, disease, symptom complex or similar condition; or

(D) If the negligence of a person otherwise exempt under this subsection is a substantial factor in causing the injury, disease, symptom complex or similar condition and the negligence occurs outside of the capacity that qualifies the person for exemption under this subsection.

(6) Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit payment, voluntarily or otherwise, to injured workers or their beneficiaries in excess of the compensation required to be paid under this chapter.

(7) The exclusive remedy provisions and limitation on liability provisions of this chapter apply to all injuries and to diseases, symptom complexes or similar conditions of subject workers arising out of and in the course of employment whether or not they are determined to be compensable under this chapter.
