A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to public defense; creating new provisions; amending ORS 151.211, 151.213, 151.216 and 151.219; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

LOAN REPAYMENT ASSISTANCE

SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section:

(a) “Public defense attorney” means an attorney:

(A) Who is appointed to represent eligible individuals as required by Oregon statutes, the Oregon Constitution or the United States Constitution;

(B) Whose legal work is funded by the office of public defense services and who is employed by the state or a public defense services contractor; and

(C) Who meets any further definition of “public defense attorney” set forth by the Oregon State Bar.

(b) “Public defense staff member” means an investigator, support staff member or case manager who is employed by a public defense services contractor.

(2) The Public Defense Services Student Loan Repayment Assistance Program is established in the Oregon State Bar.

(3)(a) The program shall provide forgivable loans to an eligible public defense attorney or public defense staff member for up to $20,000 in payments of principal and interest on outstanding public or private student loans for each 12 months of service.

(b) The program may provide forgivable loans to a public defense attorney or public defense staff member for 10 years or until the program has provided a total of $200,000 in forgivable loans, whichever occurs first.

(4)(a) A public defense attorney is eligible for the program if:

(A) The attorney resides in this state;
(B) The attorney practices public defense services in this state full time or part time, as defined by the Oregon State Bar, while participating in the program;
(C) The attorney commits to provide public defense services for a period of 10 years; and
(D) The attorney meets other requirements established by the Oregon State Bar under subsection (5) of this section.

(b) A public defense staff member is eligible for the program if:
(A) The person resides in this state;
(B) The person is employed by a public defense services contractor in this state full time or part time, as defined by the Oregon State Bar, while participating in the program;
(C) The person commits to provide public defense services for a period of 10 years; and
(D) The person meets other requirements established by the Oregon State Bar under subsection (5) of this section.

(5) The Oregon State Bar shall adopt policies for administration of the program, including eligibility and application requirements. The policies shall include that amounts of forgivable loans for student loan payments be based on the amount of the person's working hours spent providing public defense services, provided that the provision of public defense services constitutes at least 70 percent of the person's working hours.

SECTION 2. No later than August 31 of each year, the Oregon State Bar shall report on the Public Defense Services Student Loan Repayment Assistance Program to a committee or interim committee of the Legislative Assembly related to the judiciary. The report must include:

(1) The number of attorneys and staff members who entered the program, and the month and year of entry.
(2) The average amount of forgivable loans provided to a participant.
(3) The total amount of forgivable loans provided.
(4) The number of attorneys and staff members who participated in the program in each county.
(5) The number of clients and cases and the case types in which public defense services were provided, disaggregated by anonymous participation.
(6) The number of attorneys and staff members who report that participation in the program is a substantial factor in removing economic barriers to the ability to perform public defense services.
(7) The average amount of outstanding student loan debt for each participant.
(8) Other information that is useful in evaluating the program.

SECTION 3. (1) The Oregon State Bar shall start accepting applications for the Public Defense Services Student Loan Repayment Assistance Program established in section 1 of this 2023 Act no later than December 1, 2023.
(2) The Oregon State Bar shall make the first report under section 2 of this 2023 Act no later than August 31, 2024.

SECTION 4. Section 5 of this 2023 Act is added to and made a part of ORS chapter 316.
duced by any deduction allowed for the same amounts to the taxpayer or any other taxpayer listed on the return for the tax year under section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SECTION 6. In addition to and not in lieu of any other appropriation, there is appropriated to the Judicial Department, for the biennium beginning July 1, 2023, out of the General Fund, the amount of $_______, which may be transferred to the Oregon State Bar for the purpose of providing forgivable loans under the Public Defense Services Student Loan Repayment Assistance Program established in section 1 of this 2023 Act. The Oregon State Bar may use up to five percent of the moneys transferred to pay the administrative costs of the program.

PUBLIC DEFENSE SERVICES COMMISSION
(Changes to its Branch of Government, Appointing Authority, Membership, Duties)

SECTION 7. ORS 151.211 is amended to read:

151.211. For purposes of ORS 151.211 to 151.221:
(1) “Bar member” means an individual who is an active member of the Oregon State Bar.
[4] (3) “Director” means the public defense services executive director appointed under ORS 151.216.
[5] (4) “Office of public defense services” means the office established by the commission under the director to handle the cases assigned and to carry out the administrative policies and procedures for the public defense system.

SECTION 8. ORS 151.213 is amended to read:

151.213. (1) The Public Defense Services Commission is established in the [judicial] executive branch of state government. Except for the appointment or removal of commission members, the commission and employees of the commission are not subject to the exercise of administrative authority and supervision by the [Chief Justice of the Supreme Court as the administrative head of the Judicial Department] Governor.

(a) The commission consists of nine members appointed [by order of the Chief Justice. In addition to the nine appointed members, the Chief Justice serves as a nonvoting, ex officio member. The Chief Justice shall appoint at least three persons who are not bar members, at least one person who was formerly engaged in the provision of public defense services and at least one person who has been formerly represented by a public defense provider in this state. All members must have a demonstrated record of commitment to public defense. Except for the Chief Justice or a senior judge under ORS 1.300, a member may not serve concurrently as a judge, a prosecuting attorney or an employee of a law enforcement agency. A person who is primarily engaged in providing public defense services may not serve as a member of the commission.] as follows:
  (A) The Governor shall appoint three members.
  (B) The Governor shall appoint three members from among persons recommended by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.
  (C) The Governor shall appoint three members from among persons jointly recommended by the Senate President and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
  (b) All members must have a demonstrated record of commitment to public defense.
(c) At least three members must be persons who are not bar members.

(d) At least one member must be a person who has been formerly represented by a public defense provider.

(e) Except for a senior judge under ORS 1.003, a member may not serve concurrently as a judge, a member of the Legislative Assembly, a prosecuting attorney or an employee of a law enforcement agency.

(f) A person who is primarily engaged in providing public defense services may not serve as a member of the commission.

(3) The term of a member is four years beginning on the effective date of the appointment. A member is eligible for reappointment if qualified for membership at the time of reappointment. A member may be removed from the commission by a two-thirds vote of the commission. If a vacancy occurs for any cause before the expiration of the term of a member, the Governor shall make an appointment to become immediately effective for the unexpired term.

(4) A chairperson and a vice chairperson shall be elected by the members of the commission every two years with such functions as the commission may determine. A member is eligible for reappointment as chairperson or vice chairperson.

(5) A majority of the voting members constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(6) A member of the commission is not entitled to compensation for services as a member, but is entitled to expenses as provided in ORS 292.495 (2).

SECTION 9. ORS 151.216 is amended to read:

151.216. (1) The Public Defense Services Commission shall:

(a) Establish and maintain a public defense system that ensures the provision of public defense services consistent with the Oregon Constitution, the United States Constitution and Oregon and national standards of justice.

(b) Establish an office of public defense services and appoint a public defense services executive director who serves at the pleasure of the commission.

(c) Adopt policies for contracting for public defense providers not employed by the office of public defense services that:

(A) Ensure compensation, resources and caseloads are in accordance with national and regional best practices;

(B) Promote policies for public defense provider compensation and resources that are comparable to prosecution compensation and resources;

(C) Ensure funding and resources to support required data collection and training requirements; and

(D) Recognize the need to consider overhead costs that account for the cost of living and business cost differences in each county or jurisdiction, including but not limited to rent, professional membership dues, malpractice insurance and other insurance and other reasonable and usual operating costs.

(d) Establish operational and contracting systems that allow for oversight, ensure transparency and stakeholder engagement and promote equity, inclusion and culturally specific representation.

(e) Review the caseload policies described in paragraph (c)(A) of this subsection annually, and revise the policies as necessary and at least every four years.

(f) Adopt a statewide workload plan, based on the caseload policies described in paragraph (c)(A) of this subsection, that takes into account the needs of each county or jurisdiction, practice structure and type of practice overseen by the office of public defense services.

(g) Submit the budget of the commission and the office of public defense services to the Legislative Assembly after the budget is submitted to the commission by the director and approved by the commission. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the chairperson of the commission shall present the budget to the Legislative Assembly.

(h) Review and approve any public defense services contract negotiated by the director before the contract can become effective.

(i) Adopt a compensation plan, classification system and personnel plan for the office of public defense services that are commensurate with other state agencies.

(j) Adopt policies, procedures, standards and guidelines regarding:

(A) The determination of financial eligibility of persons entitled to be represented by appointed counsel at state expense;

(B) The appointment of counsel, including the appointment of counsel at state expense regardless of financial eligibility in juvenile delinquency matters;

(C) The fair compensation of counsel appointed to represent a person financially eligible for appointed counsel at state expense;

(D) Appointed counsel compensation disputes;

(E) Any other costs associated with the representation of a person by appointed counsel in the state courts that are required to be paid by the state under ORS 34.355, 135.055, 138.500, 138.590, 161.346, 161.348, 161.365, 419A.211, 419B.201, 419B.208, 419B.518, 419B.908, 419C.206, 419C.209, 419C.408, 419C.535, 426.100, 426.135, 426.250, 426.307, 427.265, 427.295, 436.265 or 436.315 or any other provision of law that expressly provides for payment of such compensation, costs or expenses by the commission;

(F) Professional qualifications for counsel appointed to represent public defense clients;

(G) Performance for legal representation;

(H) The contracting of public defense services;

(I) Contracting with expert witnesses to allow contracting with out-of-state expert witnesses only if in-state expert witnesses are not available or are more expensive than out-of-state expert witnesses; and

(J) Any other matters necessary to carry out the duties of the commission.

(k) Establish a peer review system for the approval of nonroutine fees and expenses incurred in cases involving aggravated murder and the crimes listed in ORS 137.700 and 137.707. The review shall be conducted by a panel of attorneys who practice in the area of criminal defense.

(L) Establish a complaint process that allows district attorneys, criminal defense counsel and the public to file complaints concerning the payment from public funds of nonroutine fees and expenses incurred in cases.

(m) Reimburse the State Court Administrator from funds deposited in the Public Defense Services Account established by ORS 151.225 for the costs of personnel and other costs associated with location of eligibility verification and screening personnel pursuant to ORS 151.489 by the State Court Administrator.

(2) Policies, procedures, standards and guidelines adopted by the commission supersede any conflicting rules, policies or procedures of the Public Defender Committee, State Court Administrator, circuit courts, the Court of Appeals, the Supreme Court and the Psychiatric Security Review Board related to the exercise of the commission’s administrative responsibilities under this section and transferred duties, functions and powers as they occur.
(3) The commission may accept gifts, grants or contributions from any source, whether public or private. However, the commission may not accept a gift, grant or contribution if acceptance would create a conflict of interest. Moneys accepted under this subsection shall be deposited in the Public Defense Services Account established by ORS 151.225 and expended for the purposes for which given or granted.

(4) The commission may not:
   (a) Make any decision regarding the handling of any individual case;
   (b) Have access to any case file; or
   (c) Interfere with the director or any member of the staff of the director in carrying out professional duties involving the legal representation of public defense clients.

SECTION 10. ORS 151.219 is amended to read:
151.219. (1) The public defense services executive director shall:
   (a) Recommend to the Public Defense Services Commission how to establish and maintain, in a cost-effective manner, the delivery of legal services to persons entitled to, and, where applicable, financially eligible for, appointed counsel at state expense under Oregon statutes, the Oregon Constitution, the United States Constitution and consistent with Oregon and national standards of justice.
   (b) Implement and ensure compliance with contracts, policies, procedures, standards and guidelines adopted by the commission or required by statute.
   (c) Prepare and submit to the commission for its approval the biennial budget of the commission and the office of public defense services.
   (d) Negotiate contracts, as appropriate, for providing legal services to persons eligible for appointed counsel at state expense. No contract so negotiated is binding or enforceable until the contract has been reviewed and approved by the commission as provided in ORS 151.216.
   (e) Employ personnel or contract for services as necessary to carry out the responsibilities of the director and the office of public defense services.
   (f) Supervise the personnel, operation and activities of the office of public defense services.
   (g) Provide services, facilities and materials necessary for the performance of the duties, functions and powers of the Public Defense Services Commission.
   (h) Pay the expenses of the commission and the office of public defense services.
   (i) Prepare and submit to the commission an annual report of the activities of the office of public defense services.
   (j) Prepare and submit to the Legislative Assembly a biennial report on the activities of the office of public defense services.
   (k) Provide for legal representation, advice and consultation for the commission, its members, the director and staff of the office of public defense services who require such services or who are named as defendants in lawsuits arising from their duties, functions and responsibilities. If requested by the director, the Attorney General may also provide for legal representation, advice and consultation for the commission, its members, the director and staff of the office of public defense services in litigation.
   (L) Establish within the office of public defense services a trial division that includes three or four regional offices and supervisor, attorney, investigator and support staff positions, in order to support areas within the state with the highest provider caseloads or most unrepresented defendants.
   (m) Develop training programs for employees of the office of public defense services, set training protocols and expectations for the trainings and coordinate with professional associations to provide continuing legal education opportunities.

(n) Ensure that the contracts negotiated under subsection (1)(d) of this section:

(A) Provide for staff members within the offices of public defense providers who train and supervise other attorneys, assist in the orientation of new employees and coordinate continuing legal educational opportunities, while having the ability to have a lower caseload than other attorneys within the office.

(B) Compensate contracted public defense providers at the same rate as employees of the office of public defense services performing comparable work.

(2) The director may designate persons as representatives of the director for the purposes of determining and paying bills submitted to the office of public defense services and determining preauthorization for incurring fees and expenses under ORS 135.055.

SECTION 11. (1) A person who is a member of the Public Defense Services Commission on the operative date specified in section 12 (1) of this 2023 Act shall remain a member of the commission until the end of the person’s term, subject to removal for cause as described in ORS 151.213 (3).

(2) Upon the conclusion of the term of a person who is a commission member on the operative date specified in section 12 (1) of this 2023 Act, the person may be reappointed to the commission by the Governor if the person meets the requirements described in ORS 151.213 (2).

(3) Notwithstanding ORS 151.213 (3), the initial term of a person appointed by the Governor may be staggered by one, two, three and four years as necessary so that no more than three terms end each year.

(Operative Date)

SECTION 12. (1) The amendments to ORS 151.211, 151.213, 151.216 and 151.219 by sections 7 to 10 of this 2023 Act become operative on January 1, 2025.

(2) The Public Defense Services Commission, the Judicial Department and the Governor may take any action before the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section that is necessary to enable the commission, the department or the Governor to exercise, on and after the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section, all of the duties, functions and powers conferred on the commission, the department or the Governor by the amendments to ORS 151.211, 151.213, 151.216 and 151.219 by sections 7 to 10 of this 2023 Act.
