 Senate Bill 457

Sponsored by Senator HANSELL (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor’s brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Directs Employment Department to develop Agricultural Worker Overtime Relief Payment Program to provide eligible agricultural workers with payments for hours worked beyond 40 hours but not exceeding 48 hours per workweek.

Requires employers to pay overtime to agricultural workers who work in excess of 48 hours per workweek. For agricultural workers who earn agricultural salary and for agricultural workers who perform work during peak labor period, sets maximum allowable hour threshold before employer is required to pay overtime to 55 hours per workweek.

Repeals provisions related to refundable income or corporate excise tax credit allowed to employer for excess amount of wages paid as overtime pay for agricultural workers.

Takes effect on 91st day following adjournment sine die.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to agricultural overtime; creating new provisions; amending ORS 314.772, 316.502, 317.850 and 318.031 and section 16, chapter 82, Oregon Laws 2022, and sections 1, 2 and 12, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022; repealing sections 12, 13, 14 and 15, chapter 82, Oregon Laws 2022, and sections 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12a and 12b, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) The Employment Department shall develop an Agricultural Worker Overtime Relief Payment Program under which agricultural workers, as defined in section 1, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022, who meet the eligibility criteria under subsection (3) of this section may apply to the department to receive payments for hours worked by the worker in excess of 40 hours in one workweek but not exceeding the maximum hours allowable per workweek as specified in section 2, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022.

(2)(a) The department shall prescribe by rule application forms and the process by which agricultural workers may apply for payments under the program.

(b) Applicants shall apply directly to the third-party administrator with which the department enters into an agreement under subsection (4) of this section for administration of the program.

(c) Applicants may apply once each calendar month that is a month in which the agricultural worker worked more than 40 hours in one workweek but not more than the maximum hours allowable per workweek as specified under section 2, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022.

(d) A worker who submits an application under this section shall include with the application a copy of the worker’s paycheck stubs.

(e) Applications shall be submitted under penalties for false swearing under ORS 162.075.

(3) An agricultural worker is eligible for a payment under the program established under this section if the worker:

(a) Lives in Oregon;
(b) Worked more than 40 hours in one workweek at a farm located in this state; and
(c) Did not receive one and one-half times the worker's regular rate of pay for the hours worked in excess of 40 hours in one workweek but not exceeding the maximum hours allowable per workweek as specified in section 2, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022.

(4) The department shall enter into an agreement with an exempt organization under which the organization shall administer the program developed under subsection (1) of this section.

(5) As soon as practicable after receiving an application under this section, the third-party administrator shall:
(a) Consider the application if it is timely and complete;
(b) Determine the eligibility of the applicant for payments under this section;
(c) Approve or reject the application; and
(d) Notify the applicant of the administrator’s decision.

(6)(a) Within 30 days following approval of an application, the third-party administrator shall make a payment directly to the agricultural worker in an amount equal to one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour the worker worked over 40 hours in one workweek but not exceeding the maximum hours allowable per workweek as specified in section 2, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022.
(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, if there are insufficient moneys available for relief payments, all payments shall be reduced proportionately based on the relative dollar amounts of the payments until there are sufficient moneys to make the payments.

(7) As used in this section:
(a) “Exempt organization” means an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code that is exempt from income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.
(b) “Third-party administrator” means the exempt organization with which the department enters into an agreement under this section for administration of the program established under this section.

SECTION 2. (1) The Agricultural Worker Overtime Relief Fund is established in the State Treasury, separate and distinct from the General Fund. Interest earned by the fund shall be credited to the fund. The fund consists of moneys appropriated, allocated, deposited or transferred to the fund by the Legislative Assembly. The moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the Employment Department for the purposes specified in section 1 of this 2023 Act.

(2)(a) The department shall use the moneys in the fund to reimburse the department for actual costs incurred by the department in developing and implementing the program developed under section 1 of this 2023 Act.
(b) After payment of the costs described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the department shall distribute the remaining balance to the third-party administrator with which the department enters into an agreement under section 1 of this 2023 Act for payments to eligibale agricultural workers.

SECTION 3. Section 1, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022, is amended to read:
Sec. 1. As used in this section and sections 2 and 4a, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022 [of this “Agricultural salary” means no less than the wage set pursuant to ORS 653.025, multiplied by 2,704 hours per year, then divided by 12 months.

“Agricultural worker” means an individual who performs services in agriculture for an employer in exchange for an agreed remuneration or rate of pay.

“Agriculture” includes:

(a) Farming in all its branches, including the cultivation and tillage of the soil;
(b) Dairying;
(c) The production, cultivation, growing and harvesting of any agricultural or horticultural commodities;
(d) The raising of livestock, bees, fur-bearing animals or poultry; and
(e) Any other practices performed by a farmer or on a farm as an incident to or in conjunction with farming operations, including preparation for market, delivery to storage or to market, or delivery to carriers for transportation to market.

“Salary” has the meaning given that term in ORS 653.010.

“Workweek” means a fixed period of time established by an employer that reflects a regularly recurring period of 168 hours or seven consecutive 24-hour periods.

SECTION 4. Section 2, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022, as amended by section 3, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, an employer may not permit, require or suffer an agricultural worker to work a total number of hours in excess of 48 hours in one workweek.

(2)(a) An employer may permit, require or suffer an agricultural worker who does not earn an agricultural salary to work more than 48 hours in one workweek if the employer compensates the agricultural worker at one and one-half times the worker’s regular rate of pay for each overtime hour or portion of an hour that the worker works in excess of 48 hours.

(b) An employer may permit, require or suffer an agricultural worker who earns an agricultural salary to work more than 55 hours in one workweek if the employer compensates the agricultural worker at one and one-half times the applicable minimum wage rate under ORS 653.025 for each overtime hour or portion of an hour that the worker works in excess of 55 hours in one workweek.

(3)(a) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, during a peak labor period, an employer may permit, require or suffer an agricultural worker who does not earn an agricultural salary to work more than 55 hours in one workweek if the employer compensates the agricultural worker at one and one-half times the worker’s regular rate of pay for each overtime hour or portion of an hour that the worker works in excess of 55 hours in one workweek.

(b)(A) An employer shall designate the time period during which a peak labor period will occur but in no event may a peak labor period exceed 15 weeks per calendar year.

(B) The weeks that comprise a peak labor period need not be consecutive nor coincide with a designated peak labor period in any previous calendar year.

(4)(a) For purposes of this section, a workweek may begin on any day of the week and at any hour of the day and need not coincide with a calendar week.

(b) An employer may change the beginning of an agricultural worker’s workweek if the change is intended to be permanent and is not designed to evade overtime requirements.
A claim for a violation of this section may be made under ORS 653.055.

SECTION 5. ORS 316.502, as amended by section 13, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022, is amended to read:

316.502. (1) The net revenue from the tax imposed by this chapter, after deducting refunds and amounts described in ORS 285B.630 and 285C.635, shall be paid over to the State Treasurer and held in the General Fund as miscellaneous receipts available generally to meet any expense or obligation of the State of Oregon lawfully incurred.

(2) A working balance of unreceipted revenue from the tax imposed by this chapter may be retained for the payment of refunds, but such working balance shall not at the close of any fiscal year exceed the sum of $1 million.

(3) Moneys are continuously appropriated to the Department of Revenue to make:

(a) The refunds authorized under subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) The refund payments in excess of tax liability authorized under ORS 315.174, 315.262, 315.264, 315.266 and 316.090 and section 3, chapter 589, Oregon Laws 2021, and section 8, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022.

SECTION 6. ORS 317.850, as amended by section 14, chapter 115, Oregon Laws 2022, is amended to read:

317.850. (1) The net revenue from the tax imposed by this chapter, after deduction of refunds, shall be paid over to the State Treasurer and held in the General Fund as miscellaneous receipts available generally to meet any expense or obligation of the State of Oregon lawfully incurred.

(2) A working balance of unreceipted revenue from the tax imposed by this chapter may be retained for the payment of refunds, but such working balance shall not at the close of any fiscal year exceed the sum of $500,000.

(3) Moneys are continuously appropriated to the Department of Revenue to make:
