SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure.

[Prohibits public bodies from seizing certain benefits and resources intended for persons in custody of Department of Human Services. Directs that such benefits and resources must be deposited with State Treasurer. Directs State Treasurer, in consultation with department, to establish specified accounts for benefit of person in department's custody.]

Prohibits Department of Human Services from using specified moneys received on behalf of child in care for maintenance costs. Directs department to maintain separate accounts for each child on whose behalf moneys are received. Specifies types of expenses that may be paid from account. Authorizes department, upon request, to instead pay moneys directly into specified accounts for child's benefit. Creates exceptions.

Declares emergency, effective on passage.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to management of resources for benefit of persons in custody of Department of Human Services; creating new provisions; amending ORS 419B.373; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section:

(a) “Child” means a ward, as defined in ORS 419A.004, in the custody of the Department of Human Services under ORS 419B.337.

(b) “Maintenance cost” means a payment to a foster parent or relative caregiver for the costs of providing a child with food, clothing, housing, daily supervision, personal incidentals and transportation.

(2) Except for moneys received pursuant to a child support order or as otherwise specifically required by federal or state law, court order or other legal instrument, the department may not use any funds, benefits, payments, proceeds, settlements, awards, inheritances, wages or any other moneys received by the department on behalf of a child for the purpose of maintenance costs.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2023 Act is amended to read:

Sec. 1. (1) As used in this section:

(a) “Child” means a ward, as defined in ORS 419A.004, in the custody of the Department of Human Services under ORS 419B.337.

(b) “Maintenance cost” means a payment to a foster parent or relative caregiver for the costs of providing a child with food, clothing, housing, daily supervision, personal incidentals and transportation.

(2) Except for moneys received pursuant to a child support order or as otherwise specifically required by federal or state law, court order or other legal instrument, the department may not use any funds, benefits, payments, proceeds, settlements, awards, inheritances, wages or any other moneys received by the department on behalf of a child for the purpose of maintenance costs.

(3)(a) The department shall establish separate accounts for each child for whom the department will receive any funds, benefits, payments, proceeds, settlements, awards, inheritances, wages or any other moneys.

(b) The department shall, in collaboration with the State Treasurer, administer each separate account established under this subsection consistent with the department's fiduciary duties, in the best interest of the child for whom the separate account is established and in compliance with any applicable state or federal law, court order or other legal instrument.

(c) The department may make distributions from a separate account for expenditures related to the personal needs of the child, including:

(A) Tuition, tutoring and training, including the costs of application fees, books, equipment and testing;

(B) Transportation to work or training or to maintain family connections;

(C) Travel for educational purposes;

(D) Expenses related to the child's transition into adulthood, including first and last months' rent, housing application fees and one-time purchases by the child of essential household supplies, including furniture, kitchen equipment, linens and cleaning supplies;

(E) Technology, including the purchase of a computer, needed to advance the child's skills in school, work or independence or to maintain connections with siblings;

(F) Clothing or supplies for special events typical for a person of the child's age and culture; and

(G) Instruments, books, supplies, fees and equipment to support the child in pursuing hobbies, sports, the arts and other special skills.

(d) Except as required by state or federal law or as specifically provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the department may not make distributions from a child's separate account for expenses related to the duties of a legal custodian as described in ORS 419B.373 (1), (2) or (3).

(4) Unless otherwise prohibited by state or federal law, at the request of the child or the child's attorney or representative, the department may:

(a) Direct that any moneys described in subsection (3) of this section that would be received by the department on behalf of the child instead be paid directly into a trust account, or subaccount of a trust account, that is established by the department under ORS 430.195 for the purpose of receiving moneys payable to the child and that earns interest for the benefit of the child; or

(b) Distribute any moneys described in subsection (3) of this section that are held by the department for the child to any of the following privately held accounts established for the sole benefit of the child:

(A) An Oregon Uniform Transfers to Minors Act account under ORS 126.805 to 126.886 that delays transfer of the custodial property until the child attains 25 years of age;

(B) An account established under ORS 178.335 within the Oregon 529 Savings Network in the name of the child;

(C) An ABLE account established under ORS 178.380 with the child named as the designee.
nated beneficiary;

(D) A trust established under ORS chapter 130, if the trust names the child as the sole beneficiary and appoints an independent, qualified trustee; or

(E) Any other privately held account described by the department by rule.

(5) Nothing in this section requires the department or the State Treasurer to establish or coordinate the establishment of, or, except as required by state or federal law, monitor or verify the viability of an account described in subsection (4)(b) of this section.

(6) The department shall adopt rules to carry out the provisions of this section.

SECTION 3. ORS 419B.373 is amended to read:

419B.373. A person, agency or institution having legal custody of a ward has the following duties and authority:

(1) To have physical custody and control of the ward.

(2) To supply the ward with food, clothing, shelter and incidental necessaries.

(3) To provide the ward with care, education and discipline.

(4) To authorize ordinary medical, dental, psychiatric, psychological, hygienic or other remedial care and treatment for the ward, and, in an emergency where the ward’s safety appears urgently to require it, to authorize surgery or other extraordinary care.

(5) To make such reports and to supply such information to the court as the court may from time to time require.

(6) To apply for any Social Security benefits, public assistance or medical assistance, as defined in ORS 414.025, to which the ward is otherwise entitled and, subject to section 1 of this 2023 Act, to use the benefits or assistance to provide for the care of the ward.

SECTION 4. (1) The amendments to section 1 of this 2023 Act by section 2 of this 2023
Act become operative on January 1, 2024.

(2) The Department of Human Services and the State Treasurer may take any action before the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section that is necessary for the department and the State Treasurer to carry out the provisions of the amendments to section 1 of this 2023 Act by section 2 of this 2023 Act on or after the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 5. This 2023 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2023 Act takes effect on its passage.
