A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to the Commission for Indigenous Communities; creating new provisions; amending ORS 176.350, 182.538, 185.005 and 329.492; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) It is declared to be the policy and intent of the Legislative Assembly that the Commission for Indigenous Communities is created to work for the implementation and establishment of economic, social, legal and political equity for diasporic Indigenous communities and speakers of Indigenous languages in Oregon.

(2) The commission shall make recommendations to the Governor and shall report to each odd-numbered year regular session of the Legislative Assembly.

SECTION 2. (1) The Commission for Indigenous Communities is established. The commission consists of 11 members, appointed as follows:

(a) The Governor shall appoint nine of the members, who are subject to confirmation by the Senate under ORS 171.562 and 171.565;

(b) The President of the Senate shall appoint one Senator; and

(c) The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint one Representative.

(2)(a) To the extent possible, the members appointed by the Governor shall provide for representation from all areas of the state.

(b) The members shall each have lived experience as individuals who are Indigenous.

(3) Members appointed by the Governor shall serve four-year terms. Legislators shall serve two-year terms. Appointments to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term shall be made by the appointing authority.

(4) Commission members shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson for terms of one year and shall determine the duties of the officers.

(5) Members shall meet at the call of the chairperson and shall meet at least three times annually.

(6) A majority of the members of the commission constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.
(7)(a) Members who are not legislators shall be paid compensation and expenses as provided in ORS 292.495, payable from funds appropriated to the Oregon Advocacy Commissions Office.

(b) Members who are legislators shall be paid compensation and expense reimbursement as provided in ORS 171.072, payable from funds appropriated to the Legislative Assembly.

SECTION 3. The Commission for Indigenous Communities shall, with a focus on communities of individuals who are speakers of Indigenous languages:

(1) Advocate for equitable policies to ensure success at the state level for Oregonians who are Indigenous;

(2) Engage community and state partners to promote equity statewide for Oregonians who are Indigenous;

(3) Study issues affecting communities of individuals who are Indigenous statewide and recommend policies to address those issues;

(4) Develop leaders in all branches of state government who are Oregonians who are Indigenous; and

(5) Increase the viability and visibility of contributions and achievements statewide of individuals who are Indigenous.

SECTION 4. ORS 176.350 is amended to read:

176.350. (1) The Racial Justice Council is created within the Office of the Governor.

(2) The membership of the council consists of the Governor, as chairperson, and no more than 40 additional members appointed by and serving at the pleasure of the Governor, subject to the following requirements:

(a) Each member must have a demonstrated commitment to racial equity, social and economic justice and diversity and inclusion;

(b) Each member must have connections to, or experience working with, historically underserved communities, particularly tribal communities, immigrants, refugees and communities of Black or Indigenous people or other people of color;

(c) Each member must have personal or professional experience and knowledge in public policy, criminal justice reform, police accountability, economic opportunity, housing, homelessness, health equity, behavioral health, education or research; and

(d) Appointments to the council must be made to ensure representation of the racial, gender and geographical diversity of Oregon.

(3) The Governor may assign one or more members to serve as a liaison between the council and the advocacy commissions.

(4)(a) The Governor shall establish committees to address policies of interest to the council. A committee may address multiple policy areas.

(b) The Governor shall appoint each council member to at least one committee. The Governor may appoint additional individuals who are not members of the council to serve as voting or non-voting members of a committee, provided that:

(A) Public officials who serve in the legislative or judicial branch may serve only as nonvoting members of a committee; and

(B) Members of the Legislative Assembly may serve on a committee only if the committee includes an equal number of members from each chamber of the Legislative Assembly.

(c) Committees shall report to the council. The council shall approve or disapprove recommendations of a committee.
(d) Appointments to each committee must be made to ensure representation of the racial, gender and geographical diversity of Oregon.

(5) The term of a member of the council is two years. Members are eligible for reappointment.
If there is a vacancy for any cause, the Governor shall make an appointment to become immediately effective for the unexpired term.

(6) Members of the council are not entitled to compensation under ORS 292.495. The chair, in the chair’s discretion, may reimburse members of the council as provided in ORS 292.495 for actual and necessary travel or other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as members of the council.

(7) Official action by the council requires modified consensus of the members of the council.

(8) The council shall meet at times and places specified by the call of the chairperson.

(9) All agencies of state government, as defined in ORS 174.111, are directed to assist the council in the performance of its duties and, to the extent permitted by laws relating to confidentiality, to furnish such information and advice as the council considers necessary to perform its duties.

(10) At least once per year, the council shall report to the Legislative Assembly, the Secretary of State, the Bureau of Labor and Industries, the State Treasurer and the Attorney General. The report must describe strategies designed to institutionalize racial justice into the conduct of state business and may include other matters pertinent to dismantling systemic and institutional racism.

(11) As used in this section:

(a) “Advocacy commission” means the Commission on Asian and Pacific Islander Affairs, the Commission on Black Affairs [and], the Commission on Hispanic Affairs and the Commission for Indigenous Communities.

(b) “Racial justice” means systematic fair treatment of people of all races that results in equitable opportunities and outcomes for all people.

SECTION 5. ORS 182.538, as amended by section 2, chapter 58, Oregon Laws 2022, is amended to read:

182.538. (1) The Environmental Justice Council is established within the office of the Governor.
The council consists of [13] 14 members appointed by the Governor. The members must be persons who, to the greatest extent practicable, represent minority communities, low-income communities, environmental interests, industry groups and geographically diverse areas of this state. The members shall be appointed as follows:

(a) Eight members shall be persons who have expertise and knowledge in environmental justice,

(A) Climate change, climate resilience or climate justice;

(B) Environmental laws, regulations and standards;

(C) Natural resources management;

(D) Land use planning and development;

(E) Sustainability;

(F) Community organizing;

(G) Civil rights and disability rights;

(H) Environmental health;

(I) Energy;

(J) Agricultural operations and food systems;

(K) Water planning and management; or
(L) Forest management.
(b) Of the members appointed under paragraph (a) of this subsection, at least one shall represent remote communities, at least one shall represent rural communities and at least one shall represent coastal communities. The Governor may solicit nominations for members described in this paragraph from community-supported natural resource collaboratives.
(c) One member shall be appointed from among persons nominated by the Commission on Asian and Pacific Islander Affairs.
(d) One member shall be appointed from among persons nominated by the Commission on Black Affairs.
(e) One member shall be appointed from among persons nominated by the Commission on Hispanic Affairs.
(f) One member shall be appointed from among persons nominated by the Commission on Indian Services.
(g) One member shall be appointed from among persons nominated by the Commission for Indigenous Communities.

   (g1) (h) One member shall be appointed as a youth representative, who must be at least 16 but no more than 24 years of age when appointed.

(2) The council shall submit an annual report to the Governor and the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to the environment, in the manner provided under ORS 192.245, setting forth its view of the progress of natural resource agencies toward achieving the goals established pursuant to ORS 182.542 and identifying any other environmental issues that the council determines need attention.

(3) The term of office of each member is four years, except that the term of office of the member appointed as youth representative is two years. A member serves at the pleasure of the Governor. Before the expiration of the term of a member, the Governor shall appoint a successor whose term begins on January 1 of the following year. A member may be reappointed. If there is a vacancy for any cause, the Governor shall make an appointment to become immediately effective for the unexpired term.

(4) A member of the council is entitled to compensation and expenses in the manner and amounts provided for in ORS 292.495. Claims for compensation and expenses incurred in performing functions of the council shall be paid out of funds appropriated to the Governor for that purpose.

(5) The council shall elect one of its members as a chairperson and another as vice chairperson, for the terms and with the duties and powers necessary for the performance of the functions of such offices as the council determines.

(6) A majority of the members of the council constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(7) The council shall meet at least once every three months at times and places specified by the chairperson. The council also shall meet at other times and places specified by the call of the chairperson or of a majority of the members of the council.

(8) The office of the Governor may enter into an interagency agreement under ORS 190.110 with the Department of Environmental Quality for purposes of providing clerical and administrative staff support to the council and for sharing in the administrative or other expenses of the council.

(9) Natural resource agencies and other state agencies as requested by the council are directed to assist the council in the performance of its duties and, to the extent permitted by laws relating to confidentiality, to furnish such information and advice as the members of the council consider necessary to perform their duties.

SECTION 6. ORS 185.005 is amended to read:

185.005. The Oregon Advocacy Commissions Office is established to provide administrative support to:

(1) The Commission on Hispanic Affairs;
(2) The Commission on Black Affairs;
(3) The Commission for Women; [and]
(4) The Commission on Asian and Pacific Islander Affairs[.]; and

SECTION 7. ORS 329.492 is amended to read:

329.492. (1) The Department of Education shall develop academic content standards for Oregon Studies and shall prepare materials to support teacher training and classroom instruction in Oregon Studies.

(2) In the development of the academic content standards in Oregon Studies and in the preparation of materials to support teacher training and classroom instruction in Oregon Studies, the department shall consult with:

(a) The Oregon Historical Society;
(b) The Commission on Black Affairs;
(c) The Commission on Hispanic Affairs;
(d) The Commission on Indian Services;
(e) The Commission on Asian and Pacific Islander Affairs; [and]
(f) The Commission for Indigenous Communities; and [/(f)] (g) Any other organization identified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(3) The materials prepared as provided by subsection (2) of this section shall include a balanced presentation of the relevant contributions to society by men and women of African-American, Hispanic, Native American and Indigenous, Asian-American and other racial groups in Oregon.

(4) The Oregon Historical Society or any commission identified in subsection (2) of this section may use any public funds allocated to the society or commission for the purposes of this section. In addition, the Oregon Historical Society or any commission identified in subsection (2) of this section may raise additional funds from private sources for the purposes of this section.

SECTION 8. Notwithstanding the term of office specified in section 2 of this 2023 Act, of the members first appointed by the Governor to the Commission for Indigenous Communities:

(1) Three shall serve for terms ending January 1, 2026.
(2) Three shall serve for terms ending January 1, 2027.
(3) Three shall serve for terms ending January 1, 2028.

SECTION 9. There is appropriated to the Oregon Advocacy Commissions Office, for the biennium beginning July 1, 2023, out of the General Fund, the amount of $1,000,000 for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of sections 1 to 3 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 10. (1) Sections 1 to 3 of this 2023 Act and the amendments to ORS 176.350, 182.538, 185.005 and 329.492 by sections 4 to 7 of this 2023 Act become operative on January 1, 2024.

(2) The Governor, the Racial Justice Council, the Environmental Justice Council, the Oregon Advocacy Commissions Office and the Department of Education may take any action before the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section that is necessary to enable the Governor, the councils, the department and the office to exercise, on and after the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section, all of the duties, functions and powers conferred on the Governor, the councils, the department and the office by sections 1 to 3 of this 2023 Act and the amendments to ORS 176.350, 182.538, 185.005 and 329.492 by sections 4 to 7 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 11. This 2023 Act takes effect on the 91st day after the date on which the 2023 regular session of the Eighty-second Legislative Assembly adjourns sine die.
