Senate Bill 798

Sponsored by Senator BOQUIST

SUMMARY
The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor’s brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Establishes General Counsel Committee within Legislative Assembly and directs committee to select General Counsel. Sets forth duties and qualifications of General Counsel. Provides that duties General Counsel must perform become operative July 1, 2024. Takes effect on 91st day following adjournment sine die.

A BILL FOR AN ACT
Relating to general counsel services performed for the Legislative Assembly; creating new provisions; amending ORS 173.130 and 244.050; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:
SECTION 1. (1) The General Counsel Committee is established as a joint committee of the Legislative Assembly.
(2) The committee shall select a General Counsel to serve as its executive officer. The General Counsel shall serve at the pleasure of the committee.
(3) The General Counsel must be a member of a state bar association in the United States and must become a member of the Oregon State Bar within six months of the General Counsel’s appointment.
(4) The committee shall fix the annual salary of the General Counsel. Subject to the limitations otherwise provided by law for expenses of state officers, the General Counsel shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred or paid by the General Counsel in the performance of duties of the General Counsel.

SECTION 2. (1)(a) The General Counsel Committee shall consist of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, members of the House appointed by the Speaker so that there is an equal number of majority party and minority party members of the House including the Speaker, and members of the Senate appointed by the President so that there is an equal number of majority party and minority party members of the Senate including the President. The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate may each designate, from among the members of the appropriate house, majority party and minority party alternates to exercise powers as members of the committee.
(b) The appointing authorities shall appoint members of a new committee within 30 days after the earlier of:
(A) The date of the convening of an odd-numbered year regular session of the Legislative Assembly; or
(B) The date of the convening of an organizational session of the odd-numbered year regular session of the Legislative Assembly.
(2)(a) The term of a member of the committee shall expire upon the earlier of:
(A) The date of the convening of the odd-numbered year regular session of the Legislative Assembly next following the member's appointment; or

(B) The date of the convening of an organizational session of the odd-numbered year regular session of the Legislative Assembly next following the member's appointment.

(b) Vacancies occurring in the membership of the committee shall be filled by the appointing authority so as to ensure an equal number of majority party and minority party members from the appropriate house.

(3) The committee has a continuing existence and may meet, act and conduct its business during the sessions of the Legislative Assembly or any recess thereof, and in the interim period between sessions, but the committee has no authority to affect the rules of either house.

(4) The committee may appoint advisory committees or subcommittees. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, individuals other than members of the Legislative Assembly may serve on such advisory committees or subcommittees. A member of an advisory committee or subcommittee who is not a member of the Legislative Assembly shall be compensated and reimbursed in the manner provided in ORS 292.495.

(5) The committee may not transact business unless a quorum is present. A quorum consists of a majority of committee members from the House of Representatives and a majority of committee members from the Senate.

(6) Action by the committee requires the affirmative vote of a majority of committee members from the House of Representatives and a majority of committee members from the Senate.

SECTION 3. (1) The expiration of the terms of members of the General Counsel Committee, as provided in section 2 of this 2023 Act, does not affect the employment of any individual filling a position previously approved by the committee.

(2) Upon the expiration of the terms of members and until the newly appointed General Counsel Committee provides otherwise, the General Counsel may employ and fix the compensation of individuals the General Counsel considers necessary for the effective conduct of the work supervised or managed by the General Counsel.

(3) Notwithstanding sections 1 and 2 of this 2023 Act, if a vacancy occurs in the position of General Counsel after the expiration of the terms of members and before the appointment of members of a new General Counsel Committee, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives may jointly select a General Counsel. The General Counsel selected by the President and the Speaker serves at the pleasure of the President and the Speaker at a salary jointly fixed by the President and the Speaker that does not exceed the salary last fixed by the committee. The President and Speaker may act in lieu of the committee under ORS 293.335 in designating the General Counsel they select to approve disbursements and in filing the statement of designation. After appointment of a General Counsel Committee, the General Counsel selected under this subsection serves at the pleasure of the committee and the committee may exercise power and authority over the General Counsel as if the General Counsel had been selected by the committee.

SECTION 4. (1) The General Counsel shall, subject to available resources, provide legal advice in the following subject areas, insofar as the legal advice addresses operations, transactions and activities of the Legislative Assembly and its committees, offices and staff, that are unrelated to proposed legislation or the meaning or lawfulness of existing or proposed law:
  (a) Human resources and personnel matters;
  (b) Procurement and contract review;
  (c) Protest activity, Capitol building security, telephonic or social media harassment and trespass matters;
  (d) Public record request processing and management;
  (e) Ethics and election law compliance issues; and
  (f) Other matters as assigned by the General Counsel Committee.
(2) The General Counsel may employ and fix the compensation of such professional assistants and clerical and other employees as the General Counsel deems necessary for the effective conduct of the work under the charge of the General Counsel.
(3) The General Counsel may enter into contracts to carry out the functions of the General Counsel.
SECTION 5. ORS 173.130 is amended to read: 173.130. (1) The Legislative Counsel shall prepare or assist in the preparation of legislative measures when requested to do so by a member or committee of the Legislative Assembly.
(2) Upon the written request of a state agency, the Legislative Counsel may prepare or assist in the preparation of legislative measures that have been approved for preparation in writing by the Governor or the Governor’s designated representative. The Legislative Counsel may also prepare or assist in the preparation of legislative measures that are requested in writing by the Judicial Department, the Governor, the Secretary of State, the State Treasurer, the Attorney General or the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries. In accordance with ORS 283.110, the Legislative Counsel may charge the agency or officer for the services performed.
(3) The Legislative Counsel shall give such consideration to and service concerning any measure or other legislative matter before the Legislative Assembly, except a matter before the General Counsel Committee, as is requested by the House of Representatives, the Senate or any committee of the Legislative Assembly that has the measure or other matter under consideration.
(4) The Legislative Counsel, pursuant to the policies and directions of the Legislative Counsel Committee and in conformity with any applicable rules of the House of Representatives or Senate, shall perform or cause to be performed research service requested by any member or committee of the Legislative Assembly in connection with the performance of legislative functions. Research assignments made by joint or concurrent resolution of the Legislative Assembly shall be given priority over other research requests received by the Legislative Counsel. The research service to be performed includes the administrative services incident to the accomplishment of the research requests or assignments.
(5) The Legislative Counsel shall give an opinion in writing upon any question of law in which the Legislative Assembly or any member or committee of the Legislative Assembly may have an interest when the Legislative Assembly or any member or committee of the Legislative Assembly requests the opinion. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section and ORS 173.135, the Legislative Counsel shall not give opinions or provide other legal services to persons or agencies other than the Legislative Assembly and members and committees of the Legislative Assembly.
(6) The Legislative Counsel may enter into contracts to carry out the functions of the Legislative Counsel.
