A-Bill for an Act

Relating to workplace psychological safety.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) The Bureau of Labor and Industries shall prepare a model respectful workplace policy that employers may adopt. In preparing the model policy, the bureau shall take into consideration existing respectful workplace policies.

(2) The bureau shall create informational materials that identify the harms to employees and employers caused by workplace bullying and make the materials available to employers.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

LC 1955