limited liability company's purposes, activities and affairs, the court determines that:

achieve the limited liability company's purposes.

SECTION 8. Operating Agreement; Effect on Third Parties. (1) An operating agreement may specify that amending the operating agreement requires the approval of a person that is not a party to the operating agreement or the satisfaction of a condition. An amendment is ineffective if adopting the amendment requires the approval or satisfaction of the condition and the amendment is adopted without the approval or satisfaction of the condition.

(2) The obligations of a limited liability company and members to a person in the person’s capacity as a transferee or as a person that is dissociated as a member are governed by the operating agreement. Subject only to a court order issued under section 53 (2) of this Act to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the operating agreement that is made after a person becomes a transferee or is dissociated as a member:

(a) Is effective with regard to any debt, obligation or other liability of the limited liability company and members to the person in the person’s capacity as a transferee or as a person that is dissociated as a member; and

(b) Is not effective to the extent that the amendment imposes a new debt, obligation or other liability on the transferee or the person that is dissociated as a member.

(3) If a limited liability company delivers a record to the Secretary of State for filing that becomes effective but includes a provision that would be ineffective under section 6 (3) or (4)(a)(D), (E) or (F) of this Act if the provision was included in the operating agreement, the provision is ineffective in the record.

(4) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, if a record that a limited liability company delivers to the Secretary of State for filing becomes effective and conflicts with a provision of the operating agreement:

(a) The agreement prevails as to a member, a manager, a transferee and a person that is dissociated as a member; and

(b) The record prevails as to other persons to the extent the other persons reasonably rely on the record.

SECTION 9. Nature, Purpose and Duration. (1) A limited liability company is an entity that is distinct from a member.

(2) A limited liability company may have any lawful purpose, whether for profit or not for profit.

(3) A limited liability company has perpetual duration.

SECTION 10. Purposes; Prohibition on Illegal Purposes. (1) Except as otherwise provided in the laws of this state and in this section, a limited liability company organized under sections 1 to 125 of this Act may conduct or promote any lawful business or purpose that a partnership, corporation or professional corporation, as defined in ORS 58.015, may conduct or promote, unless the limited liability company’s articles of organization set forth a more limited purpose. A person may not organize a limited liability company under sections 1 to 125 of this Act for any illegal purpose or with an intent to fraudulently conceal any business activity from another person or a governmental agency.

(2) Subject to the laws of this state, to applicable rules and regulations of a regulatory board of a profession, if any, and to applicable standards of professional conduct of the profession, if any, a limited liability company or the company’s members may render professional services in this state. Notwithstanding any other law, members who are professionals, as defined in ORS 58.015, and managers who are members and professionals, are personally liable as members of the limited liability company to the same extent and in the same manner as provided for shareholders of a professional corporation in ORS 58.185 and 58.187 and as otherwise provided in sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.

(3) A business that is subject to regulation under other laws of this state may not be organized under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act if the business is required to be organized only under the other laws.

SECTION 11. Powers. A limited liability company has the capacity to sue and be sued in the company's own name and the power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry on the company's activities and affairs.

SECTION 12. Supplemental Principles of Law. Unless displaced by particular provisions of sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act, the principles of law and equity supplement sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 13. Permitted Names. (1) The name of a limited liability company must include the words “limited liability company” or the abbreviations “L.L.C.” or “LLC.”

(b) A determination as to whether a name is distinguishable in the records of the Sec-

(b) Each address that under paragraph (a) of this subsection must be set forth in an annual report must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(2)(a) A limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company shall deliver the annual report to the Secretary of State for filing on or before the date each year that is exactly one or more years after the date on which the Secretary of State filed the articles of organization for a limited liability company or the registration statement for a registered foreign limited liability company.

(b) Information in an annual report must be current as of 30 days before the date on which the limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company delivers the annual report to the Secretary of State for filing in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(3) The Secretary of State shall mail an annual report form to any address shown for the limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company in the current records of the Secretary of State. At a minimum, the annual report form must explain the requirements set forth in this section for the annual report. A limited liability company's or registered foreign limited liability company's failure to receive an annual report form from the Secretary of State does not relieve the limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company of the duty under this section to deliver an annual report to the Secretary of State for filing.

(4) If an annual report does not have the information this section requires, the Secretary of State shall notify the limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company in writing and return the annual report for correction. The limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company must correct the error within 45 days after the Secretary of State gives the notice.

(5)(a) A limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company may update information in an annual report filing at any time by delivering to the Secretary of State for filing:

(A) An amendment to the annual report, if a change in the information set forth in the annual report occurs after the report was delivered to the Secretary of State for filing and before the date on which the next annual report is due from the limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company; or

(B) A statement with the change if the update occurs before the limited liability company or registered foreign limited liability company files a first annual report.

(b) This subsection does not apply to an update of information that requires an amendment to a limited liability company's articles of organization or to a registered foreign limited liability company's statement of registration.

(c) An amendment to the annual report under paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection must set forth:

(A) The name of the limited liability company or the registered foreign limited liability company as shown in the records of the Secretary of State; and

(B) The information as updated.

RELATIONS OF MEMBERS AND MANAGERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY
SECTION 36. No Agency Power of Member as Member. (1) A member is not an agent of a limited liability company solely by reason of being a member.

(2) A person's status as a member does not prevent or restrict law other than sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act from imposing liability on a limited liability company because of the person's conduct.

SECTION 37. Statement of Limited Liability Company Authority. (1) A limited liability company may deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of authority. The statement:

(a) Must include the name of the limited liability company and the name and address, or mailing address, of the company's registered agent. Each address must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(b) May state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of the limited liability company, of all persons that hold any position that exists in the limited liability company, or of any specific person, to:

(A) Sign an instrument that transfers real property held in the name of the limited liability company; or

(B) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the limited liability company.

(2) To amend or cancel a statement of authority the Secretary of State has filed, the limited liability company shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a record that includes all of the following information:

(a) The name of the limited liability company and the name and address, or mailing address, of the company's registered agent. Each address must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(b) The date on which the Secretary of State filed the original statement of authority.

(c) The text of the amendment or a declaration that the statement of authority is canceled.

(3) A statement of authority affects only the power a person has to bind a limited liability company to persons that are not members.

(4) Subject to subsection (3) of this section and section 4 (4) of this 2023 Act, and except as provided in subsections (6), (7) and (8) of this section, a limitation in an effective statement of authority on the authority of a person or of a position within a limited liability company is not by itself evidence of any person's knowledge or notice of the limitation.

(5) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, if an effective statement of authority grants authority that does not pertain to transfers of real property, the grant is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when the person gives value:

(a) The person has knowledge to the contrary;

(b) The limited liability company has canceled or restrictively amended the statement of authority under subsection (2) of this section; or

(c) A limitation on the grant is in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement of authority with the grant became effective.

(6) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, if an effective statement of authority grants authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company and a certified copy of the statement of authority is recorded with a county clerk as provided in
ORS 205.180, the grant is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value:

(a) The limited liability company has canceled or restrictively amended the statement of authority under subsection (2) of this section and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment is recorded with a county clerk as provided in ORS 205.180; or

(b) A limitation on the grant is in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement of authority with the grant became effective and a certified copy of the other statement of authority is recorded with a county clerk as provided in ORS 205.180.

7 Subject to subsection (3) of this section, if a certified copy of an effective statement that limits the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company is recorded with a county clerk as provided in ORS 205.180, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

8 Subject to subsection (9) of this section, an effective statement of dissolution or statement of termination is a cancellation of any filed statement of authority for the purposes of subsection (6) of this section and is a limitation of authority for the purposes of subsection (7) of this section.

9 After a statement of dissolution becomes effective, a limited liability company may deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a post-dissolution statement of authority and, if appropriate, may record the post-dissolution statement of authority with a county clerk as provided in ORS 205.180. A post-dissolution statement of authority operates as provided in subsections (6) and (7) of this section.

10 Unless canceled earlier, a statement of authority is canceled by operation of law five years after the date on which the statement or the most recent amendment of the statement became effective. A cancellation under this subsection does not require recording under subsections (6) or (7) of this section.

11 An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment under this section and a certified copy of the statement may be recorded for the purposes of, and as provided in, subsection (6)(a) of this section.

SECTION 38. Statement of Denial. A person named in a filed statement of authority granting the person authority may deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of denial that:

1 Identifies the limited liability company that delivered the statement of authority to the Secretary of State for filing and the caption of the statement of authority to which the denial pertains; and

2 Denies the grant of authority.

SECTION 39. Liability of Members and Managers. (1) A debt, obligation or other liability of a limited liability company is solely the debt, obligation or other liability of the company. A person is not personally liable, directly or indirectly or by way of contribution or otherwise, for the limited liability company's debt, obligation or other liability solely because the person is, or acts as, a member or manager. This subsection applies even if a limited liability company is dissolved.

2 A limited liability company's failure to observe formalities relating to an exercise of the company's powers or management of the company's activities or affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a member or manager for the company's debt, obligation or other liability.

(3)(a) Notwithstanding any other law, member who is a professional, as defined in ORS 58.015, is personally liable as a member to the same extent and in the same manner as a shareholder in a professional corporation is liable under ORS 58.185 and 58.187.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection applies to a member who is a manager.

(c) In addition to the liability described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, a member is liable to the extent otherwise provided in sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 40. Liability for Certain Actions in Connection with Operation of Shell Entity; Actions as False Claim; Enforcement by Civil Action. (1) A member, manager, employee or agent of a shell entity is liable for damages to a person that suffers an ascertainable loss of money or property as a result of the member, manager, employee or agent:

(a) Making, issuing, delivering or publishing, or participating in making, issuing, delivering or publishing, a prospectus, report, circular, certificate, financial statement, balance sheet, public notice or document concerning the shell entity or the shell entity's shares, assets, liabilities, capital, dividends, earnings, accounts or business operations that the member, manager, employee or agent knows is false in any material respect;

(b) Making an entry or causing another person to make an entry in a shell entity's books, records, minutes or accounts that the member, manager, employee or agent knows is false in any material respect; or

(c) Removing, erasing, altering or canceling, or causing another person to remove, erase, alter or cancel, an entry in a shell entity's books, records, minutes or accounts if by means of the removal, erasure, alteration or cancellation the member, manager, employee or agent intends to deceive another person.

(2) A member, manager, employee or agent of a shell entity that engages in any of the actions described in subsection (1) of this section in a submission to, or an interaction with, a public agency, as defined in ORS 180.750, makes a false claim and is subject to a civil action as provided in ORS 180.750 to 180.785.

RELATIONS OF MEMBERS TO EACH OTHER AND TO THE LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

SECTION 41. Becoming Member. (1) If a limited liability company will have only one member upon formation, a person becomes a member in accordance with an agreement with the organizer of the limited liability company. The person and the organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If the person and the organizer are different persons, the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.

(2) If a limited liability company will have more than one member upon formation, persons become members in accordance with an agreement among the persons before the formation of the limited liability company. The organizer of the limited liability company acts on behalf of the persons and may be, but need not be, one of the persons.

(3) After the formation of the limited liability company, a person becomes a member:

(a) As provided in the operating agreement;

(b) As the result of a transaction that is effective under sections 90 to 120 of this 2023 Act;

(c) With the affirmative vote or consent of all members; or
(d) As provided in section 58 (1)(c) of this 2023 Act.

(4) A person may become a member without acquiring a transferable interest or making, or being obligated to make, a contribution to the limited liability company.

SECTION 42. Form of Contribution. A contribution may consist of property, services or another benefit that a person transfers or provides to a limited liability company, or an agreement to transfer property to or provide services or another benefit to the company.

SECTION 43. Liability for Contributions. (1) A person's death, disability, termination or other inability to perform personally does not excuse the person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited liability company.

(2) If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person must, at the option of the limited liability company, contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution the person did not make.

(3) Only the affirmative vote or consent of all members may compromise a person's obligation to make a contribution.

(4) If a creditor of a limited liability company extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (1) of this section, without knowledge or notice of a compromise under subsection (3) of this section, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

SECTION 44. Sharing of and Right to Distributions Before Dissolution. (1) Any distribution a limited liability company makes before the company's dissolution and winding up must be in equal shares among members and persons that are dissociated as members, except to the extent necessary to comply with a transfer that is effective under section 52 of this 2023 Act or a charging order that is in effect under section 53 of this 2023 Act.

(2) A person has a right to a distribution before a limited liability company dissolves and winds up only if the company decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation as a member does not entitle the person to a distribution.

(3) A person may not demand or receive a distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in section 65 (4) of this 2023 Act, a company may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset that is equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(4) If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.

(5) A limited liability company's obligation to make a distribution to a member or a person dissociated as a member is subject to offset for any amount owed to the limited liability company by the member or the person that is dissociated as a member on account of which the company made the distribution.

SECTION 45. Limitations on Distributions. (1) A limited liability company may not make a distribution, including a distribution under section 65 of this 2023 Act, if after the distribution:

(a) The limited liability company could not pay the company's debts as the debts became due in the ordinary course of the company's activities and affairs; or

(b) The limited liability company's total assets would be less than the sum of the company's total liabilities, plus the amount necessary to satisfy the preferential rights that belong, upon the limited liability company's dissolution and winding up, to members and transferees with preferential rights that are superior to the rights of persons that receive the distribution, if the limited liability company was dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution.

(2) A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (1) of this section upon:
(a) Financial statements that are prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable under the circumstances; or
(b) A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section:
(a) The effect of a distribution under subsection (1) of this section is measured as of the earlier of:
(A) The date on which the limited liability company transfers money or property or in-curs debt; or
(B) The date on which the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right that the limited liability company acquires in return for the distribution;
(b) The effect of any other allocation of indebtedness is measured as of the date the indebtedness is allocated; and
(c) In all other cases, the effect is measured as of the date the limited liability company:
(A) Authorizes the distribution, if the payment occurs not later than 120 days after the date of the authorization; or
(B) Makes the payment, if the payment occurs more than 120 days after the date of the authorization.
(4) Indebtedness to a member or transferee that a limited liability company incurs by making a distribution in accordance with this section is at parity with the company’s indebtedness to the company’s general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.
(5) A limited liability company’s indebtedness, including indebtedness the company issues as a distribution, is not a liability for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section if the terms of the indebtedness provide that the company pays principal and interest only if, and to the extent that, the company could then pay a distribution under this section. If the limited liability company issues indebtedness as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date of the payment.

(6) In measuring the effect of a distribution under section 65 of this 2023 Act, the liabilities of a dissolved limited liability company do not include any claim that has been disposed of under section 62 or 63 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 46. Liability for Improper Distributions. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, if a member of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager of a manager-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution that violates section 45 of this 2023 Act and, in consenting to the distribution, fails to comply with section 49 of this 2023 Act, the member or manager is personally liable to the limited liability company for the amount of the distribution that exceeds the amount could have been distributed without violating section 45 of this 2023 Act.

(2) To the extent that the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company expressly relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes the authority and responsibility on one or more other members, the liability described in subsection (1) of this section applies to the other members and not the member that the operating agreement relieves of the authority and responsibility.

(3) A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violates section
45 of this 2023 Act is personally liable to the limited liability company, but only to the extent that the distribution that the person received exceeded the amount that the company could have properly paid under section 45 of this 2023 Act.

(4) A person defending in an action against a claim of liability under subsection (1) of this section may:
(a) Impose any other person that is liable under subsection (1) of this section and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the other person; and
(b) Impose any person that received a distribution that violated subsection (3) of this section and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection (3) of this section.

(5) A person may not commence an action under this section later than two years after the date of the distribution.

SECTION 47. Management of Limited Liability Company. (1) A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless the operating agreement expressly provides, or uses words of similar import to provide, that:
(a) The limited liability company is or will be “manager managed”; or
(b) The limited liability company is or will be “managed by managers”; or
(c) Management of the limited liability company is or will be “vested in managers.”

(2) In a member-managed limited liability company:
(a) Members control the management and conduct of the limited liability company unless sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act expressly provide otherwise.
(b) Each member has equal rights in managing and conducting the limited liability company’s activities and affairs.
(c) A majority of the members of the limited liability company may decide a difference that arises among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the limited liability company’s activities and affairs.
(d) All members must vote affirmatively or consent:
(A) To undertake an act outside the ordinary course of the limited liability company’s activities and affairs;
(B) To amend the operating agreement; or
(C) As otherwise required under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.
(3) In a manager-managed limited liability company:
(a) A manager or, if there is more than one manager, a majority of managers exclusively decides any matter that relates to the activities or affairs of the limited liability company, unless sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act expressly provide otherwise.
(b) Each manager has equal rights in managing and conducting the limited liability company’s activities and affairs.
(c) All members must vote affirmatively or consent:
(A) To undertake an act outside the ordinary course of the limited liability company’s
activities and affairs;
(B) To amend the operating agreement; or
(C) As otherwise required under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.
(d) A majority of the members by affirmative vote or consent may choose a manager at any time. The manager remains a manager until the members choose a successor or until the manager resigns, is removed, dies or, if the manager is not an individual, terminates. A majority of the members by affirmative vote or consent may remove a manager at any time without notice or cause.

(e) A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person that is both a member and a manager ceases to be a manager, the cessation by itself does not dissociate the person as a member.

(f) A person’s ceasing to be a manager does not discharge a debt, obligation or other liability to a limited liability company, or to members, that the person incurred while a manager.

(4) Members may vote or consent under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act without a meeting. A member may appoint a proxy or other agent to vote, consent or otherwise act for the member by personally signing, or having an agent sign, an appointing record.

(5) The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the applicability of this section, but a person that wrongfully causes a dissolution of the company loses the right to participate as a member and manager in managing the company.

(6) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member for an advance the member makes to the company in addition to the amount of capital the member agreed to contribute.

(7) A member's payment or advance that creates an obligation for a limited liability company under subsection (6) of this section or under section 48 (1) of this 2023 Act constitutes a loan to the limited liability company that accrues interest at the rate provided in ORS 82.010 (1)(a) from the date of the payment or advance.

(8) A member is not entitled to remuneration for performing services for a member-managed limited liability company, except for reasonable compensation for services the member renders in winding up the activities of the company.

SECTION 48. Reimbursement; Indemnification; Advancement; and Insurance.

(1) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member of a member-managed limited liability company or the manager of a manager-managed limited liability company for any payment the member or manager makes in the course of the member's or manager's activities on behalf of the limited liability company if the member or manager complies with sections 45, 47 and 48 of this 2023 Act in making the payment.

(2) A limited liability company shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation or other liability the person incurs in the person's capacity as a former or current member or manager if the claim, demand, debt, obligation or other liability does not arise from the person's violation of sections 45, 47 or 49 of this 2023 Act.

(3) A limited liability company in the ordinary course of the company's activities and affairs may advance funds for reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and costs, that a person incurs in connection with a claim or demand against the person in the person's capacity as a former or present member provided that the person promises to repay the company if the person is ultimately not indemnified under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) A limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a member or manager against liability asserted against or incurred by the member or manager as, or in the capacity of, a member or manager even if, under section 6 of this 2023 Act, the operating agreement could not limit or eliminate the member's or manager's liability to the limited liability company for the conduct that gave rise to the liability.

SECTION 49. Standards of Conduct for Members and Managers. (1) A member of a member-managed limited liability company owes to the limited liability company and to other members the duties of loyalty and care described in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) A member's fiduciary duty of loyalty to a member-managed limited liability company includes the duty to:

(a) Account to the limited liability company, and hold as trustee for the company, any property, profit or benefit the member derives from:

(A) Conducting or winding up the limited liability company's activities and affairs;

(B) Using the limited liability company's property; or

(C) Appropriating an opportunity that belongs to the limited liability company;

(b) Refrain from dealing with the limited liability company, in conducting or winding up the company's activities and affairs, as or on behalf of a person with an interest that is adverse to the interests of the company; and

(c) Refrain from competing with the limited liability company in conducting the company's activities and affairs before the dissolution of the company.

(3) A member's duty of care with respect to conducting or winding up a member-managed limited liability company's activities and affairs is to refrain from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, willful or intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law.

(4) A member shall discharge the member's duties and obligations under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act or under the operating agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the contractual obligations of good faith and fair dealing.

(5) A member does not violate a duty or obligation under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act or under the operating agreement solely because the member's conduct furthers the member's own interest.

(6) All members of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager-managed limited liability company, after full disclosure of all material facts, may together authorize or ratify a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty.

(7) A member may defend against a claim under subsection (2)(b) of this section and any comparable claim in equity or at common law on the basis that the transaction was fair to the limited liability company.

(8) If a member enters into a transaction with a limited liability company that is not permitted under subsection (2)(b) of this section, but all of the other members of the company authorize or ratify the transaction under subsection (6) of this section or the member does not have a duty to the company under subsection (9)(f) of this section, the member's rights and obligations that arise from the transaction are the same as the rights of a person that is not a member.

(9) In a manager-managed limited liability company:

(a) Subsections (1), (2), (3) and (7) of this section apply to a manager but not to a member.

(b) The duty set forth in subsection (2)(c) continues until winding up is completed.

(c) Subsection (4) of this section applies to members and managers.

(d) Subsection (5) of this section applies only to members.
(e) Only members have the power to ratify under subsection (6) of this section.

(f) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, a member does not have a duty to the limited liability company or to any other member solely by reason of being a member.

SECTION 50. Rights to Information of Member, Manager and Person Dissociated as Member. (1)(a) A limited liability company shall keep at the company's principal office:

(A) A copy of the limited liability company's articles of organization and all amendments to the articles of organization;

(B) A copy of any record of the limited liability company's operating agreement and a copy of any amendments made in a record to the operating agreement;

(C) A statement in a record, unless the information appears in the limited liability company's articles of organization, of:

(i) The amount of cash and a description and statement of the agreed value of the other benefits a member contributed or agreed to contribute to the limited liability company;

(ii) When a member must make or agree to make additional contributions and any events following which a member must make or agree to make additional contributions;

(iii) Any right a member has to receive distributions that include a return of all or any part of the member's contribution; and

(iv) Any events following which the limited liability must be dissolved and the activities and affairs of the company must be wound up;

(D) A copy of the limited liability company's federal, state and local tax returns and reports, if any, for the three most recent years;

(E) A copy of any of the limited liability company's financial statements for the three most recent years;

(F) A copy of any record the limited liability company made of any vote or consent a member made or gave under the company's operating agreement or under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act;

(G) Copies of the three most recent annual reports the limited liability company delivered to the Secretary of State for filing;

(H) A copy of any articles of conversion or articles of merger the limited liability company delivered to the Secretary of State for filing;

(I) A copy of any statement or certificate of dissolution or statement or certificate that revokes dissolution; and

(J) A current list of the full name and last-known business address, residence address or mailing address of each current and former member. An address under this paragraph must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(b) A member may inspect and copy any record a limited liability company must keep under paragraph (a) of this section if the member delivers a demand for the inspection in a record that the company receives at least 10 days before the inspection. The member may make the inspection at the limited liability company's principal office during regular business hours and need not have any particular purpose for the inspection.

(2)(a) A limited liability company shall provide to each member, without demand, any information concerning the company's activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances that the company knows and that are material to a proper exercise of the member's rights and duties under the operating agreement or sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act, unless the company can establish that the company reasonably believes the member already knows the information.

(b) In a member-managed limited liability company, each member has the duty required of the company in paragraph (a) of this subsection to the extent the member knows any of the information described in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(c) If the operating agreement for a limited liability company or sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act provide for a member to vote on or give or withhold consent to a matter, the company without demand shall provide the member with all information the company knows that is material to the member's decision.

(3) If a member meets the requirements set forth in subsection (4) of this section, a member may inspect and copy during reasonable business hours, at a reasonable location the limited liability company specifies, the following records:

(a) Excerpts from any record of a meeting of members or managers and any record of a limited liability company's action that members or managers approved without a meeting.

(b) The limited liability company's accounting records.

(c) Any other records of the activities, affairs, financial condition and other circumstances of the limited liability company as is just and reasonable.

(4)(a) To inspect and copy the records described in subsection (3) of this section, a member must:

(A) Seek the records for a purpose that is reasonably related to the member's interest in the limited liability company; and

(B) Deliver to the limited liability company a record with a demand that describes with reasonable particularity the records the member seeks and the member's purpose for seeking the records.

(b) Records the member seeks to inspect and copy under paragraph (a) of this subsection must be directly connected to the member's purpose.

(5) Within 10 days after receiving a demand from a member under subsection (4) of this section, a limited liability company shall:

(a) Inform the member which records the limited liability company will provide in response to the demand;

(b) State when and where the limited liability company will provide the records; and

(c) State reasons for declining to provide records the member demanded, if the limited liability company declines all or part of the member's demand.

(6)(a) A person that is dissociated as a member may have access to any record or information to which the person was entitled as a member if the person delivers a demand for access in a record that the limited liability company receives at least 10 days before the access and if:

(A) The records and information pertain to the period during which the person was a member or transferee;

(B) The person seeks the records and information in good faith; and

(C) The person meets the requirements set forth for a member in subsection (4) of this section.

(b) A limited liability company must respond to a demand under paragraph (a) of this subsection in the manner described in subsection (5) of this section.

(7) A limited liability company may not fail to keep the records listed in subsection (1) of this section, but the company may, in the operating agreement or otherwise, impose reasonable restrictions on the availability or use of the records and other information a person obtains under this section. The restrictions may include designating information as confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient of the records and other information. In a dispute over the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the limited liability company has the burden of proving the restriction is reasonable.

(8) A limited liability company may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying records, but only the costs of labor and materials and not more than the estimated cost to produce or reproduce the records.

(9) A person may exercise the person's rights under this section through an agent, including an attorney or, if the person is under a legal disability, through the person's legal representative. A restriction that a limited liability company imposes under subsection (7) of this section applies to the person and the person's agent or legal representative.

(10) Subject to section 54 of this 2023 Act, rights under this section do not extend to a transferee.

(11)(a) Each manager, or each member of a manager if the manager is more than one person, may inspect and copy during regular business hours:

(A) The records described in subsection (1) of this section, at the limited liability company's principal office; and

(B) Any other records the limited liability company maintains concerning the company's activities and financial condition or that otherwise relate to managing the company, at a reasonable location the company specifies.

(b) A manager or a member of a manager need not have a particular purpose for seeking records or information under this subsection.

(12)(a) If a limited liability company does not allow a member to inspect and copy any records or information the member has a right to inspect and copy under subsection (2)(a) of this section, the member may seek an order to require the inspection and copying from the circuit court of the county in which the company's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, the county in which the company's registered office is or was last located. The court may summarily order the inspection and copying at the limited liability company's expense.

(b) If a limited liability company does not within a reasonable time allow a member to inspect and copy any record or information other than records or information described in subsection (2)(a) of this section, the member may seek an order to permit the inspection and copying from the circuit court of the county in which the company's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, the county in which the company's registered office is or was last located.

(c) If a court orders a limited liability company to permit a member to inspect and copy records and information under subsection (a) or (b) of this subsection, the court:

(A) Shall also order the limited liability company to pay the costs, including reasonable attorney fees, that the member incurred to obtain the order, unless the company proves that the company refused the inspection and copying in good faith because a reasonable basis existed to doubt the member's right to inspect and copy the records and information; and

(B) May impose reasonable restrictions on the member's use or distribution of the records or information.
(13) A court may not issue an order under subsection (12) of this section without notice to the limited liability company at least five days before the time specified for a hearing on the matter, unless the court specifies a different period for the notice. The court shall set the hearing at the earliest possible time, giving the matter precedence over all other matters except matters of the same character or applications for a preliminary injunction under ORCP 79B (3).

TRANSFERABLE INTERESTS AND THE RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREES AND CREDITORS

SECTION 51. Nature of Transferable Interest. A transferable interest is personal property.

SECTION 52. Transfer of Transferable Interest. (1) Subject to section 53 (6) of this 2023 Act, a transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

(a) Is permissible;
(b) Does not, alone, cause a person’s dissociation as a member or a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company’s activities and affairs; and
(c) Does not entitle the transferee, subject to section 54 of this 2023 Act, to:
   (A) Participate in managing or conducting the limited liability company’s activities or affairs; or
   (B) Have access to records or other information about the limited liability company’s activities and affairs, except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section.
(2) A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.
(3) In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a transferee is entitled to an account of the limited liability company’s transactions only from the date of the dissolution.
(4) A limited liability company may issue a certificate in a record as evidence of a transferable interest. Subject to this section, transferring the certificate may transfer the interest that the certificate represents.
(5) A limited liability company need not give effect to a transferee’s rights under this section until the company knows or has notice of the transfer.
(6) A transfer of a transferable interest that violates a restriction on transfers in the operating agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee knows or has notice of the restriction at the time of the transfer.
(7) Except as otherwise provided in section 56 (5)(b) of this 2023 Act, if a member transfers a transferable interest, the member retains all of the rights, duties and obligations of a member other than the interest the member transferred.
(8) If a member transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a member with respect to the transferred interest, the person is liable for the member’s obligations under sections 43 and 46 of this 2023 Act that the person knows of at the time the person becomes a member.

SECTION 53. Charging Order. (1) A judgment creditor of a member or transferee may apply for and a court may enter a charging order against the member’s or transferee’s transferable interest for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, a charging order is a lien on a judgment debtor's transfereable interest and requires the limited liability company to pay over to the person that obtained the order any distribution that the company otherwise would pay to the judgment debtor.

(2) To the extent necessary to collect distributions subject to a charging order a court entered under subsection (1) of this section, the court may appoint a receiver for distrib-utions that are subject to the charging order and may enter other orders as necessary to give effect to the charging order. The receiver may make any inquiries the judgment debtor may make.

(3) A court may foreclose a lien on and order a sale of a transfereable interest if the judgment debtor shows that distributions that are subject to a charging order under subsection (1) of this section will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, the purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transfereable interest and is subject to section 52 of this 2023 Act, but does not become a member.

(4) At any time before a court forecloses a lien under subsection (3) of this section, a member or transferee whose transfereable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection (1) of this section may extinguish the charging order by:
(a) Satisfying the judgment; or
(b) Obtaining a satisfaction document under ORS 18.225 and filing, or causing the judgment creditor to file, the satisfaction document with the court that entered the charging order.

(5) At any time before a court forecloses a lien under subsection (3) of this section, the limited liability company or a member whose transfereable interest is not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and obtain the rights of the judgment creditor against the judgment debtor, including rights under the charging order.

(6) If a court forecloses a lien on the transfereable interest of the sole member of a limited liability company:
(a) The court shall order and confirm a sale of the interest;
(b) The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains the member's entire interest, not just the transfereable interest, and becomes a member; and
(c) The member whose interest the court foreclosed and ordered sold is dissociated as a member.

(7) Sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act do not deprive a member or transferee of the benefit of any exemption law that applies to the member's or transferee's transfereable interest.

(8) This section sets forth a judgment creditor's exclusive remedy for enforcing a judgment against a member's or transferee's transfereable interest.

SECTION 54. Power of Legal Representative of Deceased Member. If a member dies, the deceased member's legal representative may exercise the rights of a transferee under section 52 (3) of this 2023 Act and, for purposes of settling the member's estate, the rights the deceased member had under section 50 of this 2023 Act.

DISSOCIATION
SECTION 55. Power to Dissociate as Member; Wrongful Dissociation. (1) A person may dissociate as a member at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by withdrawing by express will under section 56 of this 2023 Act.
(2) A person's dissociation as a member is wrongful only if the dissociation:
(a) Breaches an express provision of the operating agreement; or
(b) Occurs before a winding up of the limited liability company is complete and the person:
   (A) Withdraws as a member by express will;
   (B) Is expelled as a member by judicial order under section 56 (6) of this 2023 Act;
   (C) Is dissociated under section 56 (8) of this 2023 Act; or
   (D) Is dissociated as a member because the person willfully dissolved or terminated, if the person is not a trust, other than a business trust, an estate or an individual.
(3) A person that wrongfully dissociates as a member is liable  to the limited liability company and to the other members for damages the dissociation causes. The liability is in addition to any debt, obligation or liability the member has to the limited liability company or to the other members.
SECTION 56. Events Causing Dissociation. A person is dissociated as a member when:
(1) The limited liability company knows or has notice of the person's express will to withdraw as a member, except that if the person specifies a withdrawal date later than the date on which the company knew or had notice of the person's express will, the withdrawal occurs on the later date;
(2) An event occurs that, under the operating agreement, is cause for a dissociation;
(3) A foreclosure sale under section 53 (6) of this 2023 Act or a purchase under section
74 of this 2023 Act transfers the person's entire interest in the limited liability company;
(4) The person is expelled as a member in accordance with the operating agreement;
(5) All the other members vote affirmatively or consent to expel the person, which may occur if:
   (a) The limited liability company may not lawfully carry on the company's activities and affairs with the person as a member;
   (b) A transfer of all of the person's transferable interest in the limited liability company occurs, other than a transfer:
      (A) For security purposes; or
      (B) In accordance with a charging order that is in effect and has not been foreclosed;
      (c) The person is an entity and:
         (A) The limited liability company notifies the person that the person will be expelled as a member because:
            (i) The person filed a statement of dissolution or the equivalent of a statement of dissolution;
            (ii) The person was administratively dissolved;
            (iii) The person's charter, or the equivalent of a charter, was revoked; or
            (iv) The person's jurisdiction of formation suspended the person's right to conduct business and, not later than 90 days after the date of the notification:
                (I) The person has not withdrawn, rescinded or revoked the statement of dissolution or the equivalent of the statement of dissolution; or (II) The person has not been reinstated after the administrative dissolution, after the charter was revoked or after the person's right to do business was suspended; or

(B) The person is an unincorporated entity that was dissolved and the affairs of which are being wound up;

(6) The person is expelled as a member by judicial order that the limited liability company sought because the person:

(a) Engaged or is engaging in wrongful conduct that has had or will have an adverse material effect on the limited liability company's activities and affairs;

(b) Committed or is committing, willfully or persistently, a material breach of the operating agreement or a duty or obligation under section 49 of this 2023 Act; or

(c) Engaged or is engaging in conduct with respect to the limited liability company's activities and affairs that makes carrying on the activities and affairs with the person as a member not reasonably practicable;

(7) The person is an individual who:

(a) Dies; or

(b) In a member-managed limited liability company:

(A) Has had a guardian or general conservator appointed for the person; or

(B) Is the subject of a court order that determines that the individual has otherwise become incapable of performing the individual's duties as a member under the operating agreement or under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act;

(8) The person is a member of a member-managed limited liability company and:

(a) Becomes a debtor in bankruptcy;

(b) Signs an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or

(c) Is subject to, or all or substantially all of the person's property is subject to, a trustee's, receiver's or liquidator's administration or control;

(9) The person is a testamentary or inter vivos trust or is acting as a member by virtue of being a trustee of a testamentary or inter vivos trust and the person's entire transferable interest in the limited liability company is distributed;

(10) The person is an estate or is acting as a member by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate and the estate's entire transferable interest in the limited liability company is distributed;

(11) The person is not an individual and the existence of the person terminates;

(12) The limited liability company of which the person is a member participates in a merger under sections 97 to 102 of this 2023 Act and the limited liability company is not the surviving entity or the person otherwise ceases to be a member as a result of the merger;

(13) The limited liability company of which the person is a member participates in an interest exchange under sections 103 to 108 of this 2023 Act and as a result of the interest exchange the person ceases to be a member;

(14) The limited liability company of which the person is a member participates in a conversion under sections 109 to 114 of this 2023 Act;

(15) The limited liability company of which the person is a member participates in a domestication under section 115 to 120 of this 2023 Act and, as a result of the domestication, the person ceases to be a member; or

(16) The limited liability company of which the person is a member dissolves and completes winding up.

SECTION 57. Effect of Dissociation. (1) If a person is dissociated as a member:
(a) The person's right to participate as a member in managing and conducting the limited liability company's activities and affairs terminates;
(b) The duties and obligations under section 49 of this 2023 Act that apply to members no longer apply to the person with respect to matters that arise and events that occur after the person's dissociation; and
(c) Subject to sections 54 and 90 to 120 of this 2023 Act, the person owns solely as a transferee any transferable interest that the person owned immediately before dissolution in the person's capacity as a member.
(2) A person's dissociation as a member does not of itself discharge the person from any debt, obligation or other liability to the limited liability company or to the other members that the person incurred while a member.

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

SECTION 58. Events Causing Dissolution. (1) A limited liability company is dissolved and the activities and affairs of the company must be wound up if any of the following conditions occur:
(a) An event occurs that, under the operating agreement, is cause for a dissolution.
(b) All of the members vote for or consent to the dissolution.
(c) Ninety consecutive days pass during which the limited liability company does not have any members, unless before the period ends:
   (A) One or more transferees that own the rights to receive a majority of distributions as transferees consent to admit at least one specified person as a member if the transferees own the rights at the time the consent is effective; and
   (B) At least one person becomes a member in accordance with the consent described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.
(d) On a member's application, a court enters an order dissolving the limited liability company on the grounds that:
   (A) The conduct of all or substantially all of the limited liability company's activities and affairs is unlawful;
   (B) Carrying on the limited liability company's activities and affairs in conformity with the company's articles of organization or operating agreement is not reasonably practicable; or
   (C) The members or managers that control the limited liability company:
      (i) Have acted, are acting or will act in a manner that is illegal or fraudulent; or
      (ii) Have acted or are acting in a manner that is oppressive and was, is or will be directly harmful to the applicant.
(e) The Secretary of State administratively dissolves the limited liability company under section 66 of this 2023 Act.
(f) The Attorney General brings an action that results in a court finding that:
   (A) The limited liability company filed articles of organization with fraudulent intent, with fraudulent information or in a manner that otherwise indicates fraud;
   (B) The limited liability company has continued to exceed or abuse the authority the law confers upon the company; or
   (C) The limited liability company is a shell entity. For purposes of this subparagraph:
(i) A court may find that a limited liability company is a shell entity if the court determines that the limited liability company was used or organized for an illegal purpose, was used or organized to defraud or deceive a person or a governmental agency or was used or organized to fraudulently conceal any business activity from another person or a governmental agency; and

(ii) The Attorney General may make a prima facie showing that a limited liability company is a shell entity by stating in an affidavit that:

(I) The limited liability company did not provide a name or address the Secretary of State required, or the name or address the company provided was false, fraudulent or inadequate;

(II) The limited liability company's articles of organization, a record the company must keep under section 50 of this 2023 Act or the limited liability company's annual report is false, fraudulent or inadequate;

(III) A public body, as defined in ORS 174.109, attempted to communicate with, or serve legal process upon, the limited liability company at the address or by means of other contact information the company provided to the Secretary of State, but the company failed to respond; or

(IV) The Attorney General has other evidence that shows that the limited liability company was used or organized for an illegal purpose, was used or organized to defraud or deceive a person or a governmental agency or was used or organized to fraudulently conceal any business activity from another person or a governmental agency.

(2) If the basis of a member's application for an order under subsection (1)(d) of this section is the grounds described in subsection (1)(d)(C) of this section, a court may order a remedy other than dissolution.

(3) In addition to subjecting a limited liability company to dissolution under subsection
(1)(f)(C) of this section, a finding that the company is a shell entity has the following effects:

(a) A court may rebuttably presume that the limited liability company's filings with the Secretary of State constitute a false claim, as defined in ORS 180.750, in any action the Attorney General brings against the company under ORS 180.760 and may award to the Attorney General reasonable attorney fees and the costs of investigation, preparation and litigation if the Attorney General prevails in the action; and

(b) A public body, as defined in ORS 174.109, in any proceeding against the limited liability company, may move to enjoin a member, manager or other person that exercises significant direction or control over the company from engaging in commercial activity in this state, including but not limited to incorporating or organizing another entity in this state.

(4) A limited liability company may affirmatively defend against an allegation that the company is a shell entity by showing that the company, within 60 days after receiving a request to provide or correct a name, address or other information required for a filing or in articles of organization, a record the company must keep or an annual report, or within 60 days after the date of a request to respond to a communication or service of process, provided or corrected the name, address or other information or responded to the communication or service of process.

SECTİON 59. Procedure for Judicial Dissolution. (1) The Attorney General shall bring an action to dissolve a limited liability company under section 58 of this 2023 Act in Marion County. Any other person that brings an action under section 58 of this 2023 Act must bring the action in the county in which a limited liability company's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, the county in which the registered office of the company is or was last located.

(2) A member is not a necessary party to an action to dissolve a limited liability company unless the person bringing the action seeks relief against the individual member.

(3) A court in an action to judicially dissolve a limited liability company may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or a custodian with all powers and duties the court directs, and take other action necessary to carry on the business of the company or to preserve or liquidate the company's assets wherever the assets are located.

SECTION 60. Judgment of Dissolution. (1) If after a hearing a court determines that one or more grounds for judicial dissolution described in section 58 of this 2023 Act exist, the court may enter a judgment to dissolve the limited liability company and specify the effective date of the dissolution. The clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the judgment to the Secretary of State for filing. The Secretary of State shall file the certified copy of the judgment.

(2) After entering the judgment of dissolution, the court shall direct the winding up and liquidation of the limited liability company's activities and affairs in accordance with section 61 of this 2023 Act, the notification of claimants and enforcement of claims in accordance with sections 63 and 64 of this 2023 Act and the distribution of limited liability company assets in accordance with section 65 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 61. Winding Up. (1) A dissolved limited liability company shall wind up the settle and close the company's activities and affairs and collect and distribute the company's assets.

(b) May:

(A) Deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of dissolution that includes the name of the limited liability company and a declaration that the company is dissolved;

(B) Preserve the limited liability company's activities, affairs and property as a going concern for a reasonable time;

(C) Bring and defend actions and proceedings, whether civil, criminal or administrative;

(D) Transfer the limited liability company's property;

(E) Settle disputes by mediation or arbitration;

(F) Deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of termination that includes the name of the limited liability company and a declaration that the company is terminated;

(G) Perform other acts that are necessary or appropriate for the winding up.

(3) If a dissolved limited liability company does not have members, the legal representative of the person that was the last member may wind up the limited liability company's activities and affairs. If the legal representative winds up the limited liability company's activities and affairs, the legal representative has the powers of a sole manager under section 47 (3) of this 2023 Act and is a manager for the purposes of section 39 (1) of this 2023 Act.

(4) If a legal representative declines to or fails to wind up a limited liability company's activities and affairs under subsection (3) of this section, one or more transferees that own the rights to receive a majority of distributions as transferees may consent to appoint a person to wind up the limited liability company’s activities and affairs if the transferees own the rights at the time the consent is effective. A person appointed under this subsection:

(a) Has the powers of a sole manager under section 47 (3) of this 2023 Act and is a manager for the purposes of section 39 (1) of this 2023 Act; and

(b) Shall deliver promptly to the Secretary of State for filing an amendment to the limited liability company’s articles of organization that states:

(A) That the limited liability company does not have any members;

(B) The person’s name, address and mailing address, which must be physical addresses that include the number and name of the street;

(C) That the person was appointed under this subsection to wind up the limited liability company’s activities and affairs.

(5) A court may order a judicial supervision of, and appointment of a receiver to manage, a limited liability company’s winding up if:

(a) A member applies for the order and establishes good cause;

(b) A transferee petitions for the order and:

(A) The limited liability company does not have any members;

(B) The legal representative of the person that was the last member declines or fails to wind up the limited liability company’s activities and affairs; and

(C) A person was not appointed under subsection (4) of this section within a reasonable time after the dissolution; or

(e) A court enters an order in connection with a proceeding under section 60 (1)(d) of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 62. Rescinding Dissolution. (1) A limited liability company may rescind a dissolution unless a statement of termination for the limited liability company is effective, a court has entered an order to dissolve the limited liability company under section 60 of this 2023 Act or the Secretary of State has dissolved the limited liability company under section 66 of this 2023 Act.

(2) Rescinding a dissolution under this section requires:

(a) The affirmative vote or consent of each member; and

(b) Delivering to the Secretary of State for filing:

(A) A statement of withdrawal under section 31 of this 2023 Act that applies to the dissolution, if the statement of dissolution is not effective; or

(B) A statement of rescission that states the name of the limited liability company and declares a rescission of the dissolution, if the statement of dissolution is effective.

(3) If a limited liability company rescinds a dissolution:

(a) The limited liability company resumes carrying on the company’s activities and affairs as if the dissolution never occurred;

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) of this subsection, any liability the limited liability company incurred after the dissolution and before the rescission became effective must be determined as if the dissolution never occurred; and

(c) The rights of a third party arising out of the third party’s conduct in reliance on the dissolution before the third party knew or had notice of the rescission may not be adversely affected.

SECTION 63. Known Claims Against Dissolved Limited Liability Company. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a dissolved limited liability company may give notice of a known claim under subsection (2) of this section that has the effect described in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) A dissolved limited liability company in a record may notify known claimants of the dissolution. The notice must:
   (a) Specify the information that must be included in a claim;
   (b) State that a claim must be in writing and provide a mailing address to which the claim may be sent;
   (c) State the deadline for receiving a claim, which may not be less than 120 days after the date on which the claimant receives the notice; and
   (d) State that a claim will be barred if the dissolved limited liability company does not receive the claim by the deadline.

(3) A claim against a dissolved limited liability company is barred if the requirements in subsection (2) of this section are met and the company:
   (a) Does not receive the claim by the specified deadline; or
   (b) Receives the claim timely but rejects the claim and:
       (A) Causes the claimant to receive a notice in a record stating that the claim is rejected and will be barred unless the claimant brings an action against the dissolved limited liability company to enforce the claim not later than 90 days after the claimant receives the notice; and
       (B) The claimant does not bring an action to enforce the claim within 90 days after receiving the notice.

(4) This section does not apply to a claim that is based on an event that occurs after the date of dissolution or to a liability that, on the date of dissolution, is contingent.

SECTION 64. Other Claims Against Dissolved Limited Liability Company. (1) A dissolved limited liability company may publish a notice of the dissolution and in the notice request persons that have claims against the company to present the claims in accordance with the notice.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) of this section must:
   (a) Appear at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county of this state in which the dissolved limited liability company's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in the county in which the company's registered agent is or was last located;
   (b) Describe the information that a claim must include, state that the claim must be in writing and provide a mailing address to which a claimant may send a claim; and
   (c) State that a claim against the dissolved limited liability company is barred if a claimant does not bring an action to enforce the claim within five years after the date of the notice.

(3) If a dissolved limited liability company publishes a notice that complies with the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, a claim from each of the following claimants is barred unless within five years after the date of the notice the claimant brings an action against the dissolved limited liability company to enforce the claim:
   (a) A claimant that did not receive a notice in a record under section 63 of this 2023 Act.
   (b) A claimant that sent a timely claim to the dissolved limited liability company, but the company did not act on the claim.
(c) A claimant with a claim that on the date of the dissolution was contingent or a claim that is based on an event that occurred after the date of dissolution.

(4) A claimant may enforce a claim that is not barred under this section or under section 63 of this 2023 Act against:

(a) A dissolved limited liability company to the extent of the company's undistributed assets; and

(b) A member or transferee, if the dissolved limited liability company's assets were distributed after dissolution, but only to the extent of the member's or transferee's proportionate share of the claim or of the assets that were distributed to the member or transferee after the dissolution, whichever is less, but a member's or transferee's total liability for all claims under this paragraph may not exceed the total amount of assets that were distributed to the member or transferee after the dissolution.

SECTION 65. Disposition of Assets in Winding Up. (1) In winding up a limited liability company's activities and affairs, the person that conducts the winding up shall apply the company's assets to discharge obligations to creditors, including to members that are creditors.

(2) After complying with subsection (1) of this section, a person that winds up the activities and affairs of a dissolved limited liability company must distribute any surplus in the following order, subject to any charging order that is in effect under section 53 of this 2023 Act:

(a) To each person that owns a transferable interest that reflects contributions the person made that the dissolved limited liability company did not previously return, an amount that is equal to the value of the unreturned contributions; and

(b) Among persons that own transferable interests in proportion to the persons' respective rights to share in distributions immediately before the dissolution of the limited liability company.

(3) If a dissolved limited liability company does not have a surplus that is sufficient to comply with subsection (2)(b) of this section, any surplus must be distributed among the owners of transferable interests in proportion to the value of the respective unreturned contributions.

(4) All distributions under subsections (2) and (3) of this section must be paid in money.

(5) If a creditor, claimant or member to which a dissolved limited liability company must distribute assets is not competent to receive the assets or cannot be found, the person that is responsible for liquidating or winding up the dissolved limited liability company shall reduce the assets to cash and, within six months after the final distribution from the liquidation or winding up is payable, shall pay or deliver the cash to the State Treasurer for deposit in the Unclaimed Property and Estates Fund under ORS 98.352. The person shall prepare a statement under oath and in duplicate that includes the names and last known addresses of the persons that are entitled to the deposited amounts. The person shall file one statement with the State Treasurer and shall deliver the other statement to the Secretary of State for filing.

SECTION 66. Administrative Dissolution. (1)(a) The Secretary of State may dissolve a limited liability company administratively if the limited liability company does not:

(A) Pay when due any fee, tax, interest or penalty the limited liability company must pay to the Secretary of State or to another agency of the state;
(B) Deliver to the Secretary of State for filing an annual report when the annual report is due;

(C) Comply with an order of the Secretary of State under section 23 of this 2023 Act.

(D) Maintain a registered agent in this state; or

(E) Notify the Secretary of State that the limited liability company's registered agent or registered office has changed, that the registered agent has resigned or that the registered office was discontinued.

(b) The Secretary of State may also dissolve a limited liability company administratively if the company becomes the subject of a recommendation for dissolution from the Director of the Department of Revenue under section 23 of this 2023 Act.

(2) Before taking action to dissolve a limited liability company administratively under subsection (3) of this section, the Secretary of State shall serve the company with a notice in a record that states that the Secretary of State has found grounds for the administrative dissolution under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If within 45 days after service of a notice under subsection (2) of this section the limited liability company does not cure the failure the Secretary of State identified or does not demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that grounds for dissolution no longer exist, the Secretary of State may administratively dissolve the company by signing a statement of administrative dissolution that recites the grounds for the dissolution and the effective date of the dissolution. The Secretary of State shall file the statement as provided in section 33 of this 2023 Act and serve the limited liability company with a copy of the statement.

(4) A limited liability company that is administratively dissolved continues in existence as an entity but may not carry on any activities other than winding up the company's activities and affairs and liquidating the company's assets under sections 61, 63, 64 and 65 of this 2023 Act, or applying for reinstatement under section 67 of this 2023 Act.

(5) An administrative dissolution of a limited liability company does not terminate the authority of the company's registered agent.

SECTION 67. Reinstatement. (1) A limited liability company that is administratively dissolved under section 66 of this 2023 Act may apply to the Secretary of State for reinstatement not later than five years after the effective date of the dissolution. An application under this section must state:

(a) The name of the limited liability company at the time of the administrative dissolution and, if needed, a different name that complies with section 13 of this 2023 Act.

(b) The address of the limited liability company's principal office and the name, address and mailing address of the company's registered agent in this state. All addresses must be physical addresses that include the number and street name.

(c) The effective date of the limited liability company's administrative dissolution.

(d) That the limited liability company has cured all conditions that provided grounds for the Secretary of State to administratively dissolve the company under section 66 of this 2023 Act, or that the conditions no longer exist.

(2) To become reinstated, a limited liability company shall pay all fees, taxes, interest and penalties the company:

(a) Owed to the Secretary of State or to another agency of this state at the time of dissolution; and
(b) Would have owed to the Secretary of State or to another agency of the state during the period in which the limited liability company was dissolved.

(3) If the Secretary of State determines that an application under subsection (1) of this section is complete and correct and that the limited liability company has made all payments described in subsection (2) of this section, the Secretary of State shall prepare and file a statement of reinstatement that:
   (a) Identifies the name of the reinstated limited liability company; and
   (b) States the Secretary of State's determination and the effective date of the reinstatement.

(4) The Secretary of State may waive the requirement under subsection (1) of this section that the limited liability company apply for reinstatement within five years after the date of administrative dissolution if the company requests the waiver and provides evidence of the company's continued existence as an active concern during the period of administrative dissolution.

(5) When a reinstatement under this section becomes effective:
   (a) The reinstatement relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the administrative dissolution; and
   (b) The limited liability company resumes carrying on the company's activities and affairs as if the administrative dissolution had not occurred.

(6) A person's rights that arise out of an act or omission in reliance on the dissolution before the person knew or had notice of the reinstatement are not affected.

SECTION 68. Judicial Review of Denial of Reinstatement. (1) If the Secretary of State denies a limited liability company's application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution, the Secretary of State shall serve the company with a notice in a record that explains the reasons for the denial.

(2) The limited liability company may appeal the denial of the reinstatement under ORS chapter 183.

ACTIONS BY MEMBERS

SECTION 69. Derivative Action. A member may bring a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited liability company if:

(1) The member first demands of other members of a member-managed limited liability company or of the managers of a manager-managed limited liability company that the other members or the managers cause the company to bring an action to enforce the right, but the other members or managers do not bring the action within a reasonable time; or

(2) A demand under subsection (1) of this section would be futile.

SECTION 70. Proper Plaintiff. A person that brings a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited liability company must be a member at the time the action commences and:

(1) Must have been a member when the conduct that gave rise to the action occurred;
or

(2) Must have become a member, by operation of law or under the terms of the limited liability company's operating agreement, as a successor of another person that was a mem-er when the conduct that gave rise to the action occurred.

SECTION 71. Pleading. In a derivative action, a complaint must state with particularity:
(1) The date and content of the plaintiff's demand under section 69 of this 2023 Act, and the responses of the members or managers to the plaintiff's demand; or
(2) Why a demand should be excused as futile.

SECTION 72. Stay Pending Investigation. A court may stay any proceeding in a derivative action until a limited liability company completes an investigation of the charges in the complaint, even if the plaintiff did not make a demand under section 69 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 73. Proceeds and Expenses. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action, whether obtained by judgment, compromise or settlement, belong to the limited liability company and not to the plaintiff. If the plaintiff receives any proceeds, the plaintiff shall remit the proceeds immediately to the limited liability company.

(2) If a derivative action is successful in whole or in part, a court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney fees and costs, from the limited liability company's recovery.

(3) A person may not voluntarily dismiss or settle a derivative action on behalf of a limited liability company without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed dismissal or settlement will substantially affect the interest of a member or a class of members, the court shall require notice to be given to the affected members.

SECTION 74. Purchase of Interest During Court Proceeding. (1)(a) At any time within 90 days after a member brings an action under section 58 (1)(d) of this 2023 Act to dissolve a limited liability company, or at a time the court determines is equitable, the company or one or more members may elect to purchase at fair value the entire interest of the member that brought the action, not just the member's transferable interest, if the company does not have interests that are listed on a national securities exchange or are regularly traded in a market that one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association maintain.

(b) If an election to purchase occurs:
(A) The election is irrevocable unless the court determines that setting aside or modifying the election is equitable; and
(B) The limited liability company shall notify all members within 10 days after the date of the election.
(c) A notice that a limited liability company gives under paragraph (b) of this subsection must state:
(A) The name of the member that brought the action and the entire interest, including the transferable interest, that the member owns;
(B) The name of each member that elects to purchase the interest and the whole transferable interest the electing member owns;
(C) The amount that each electing member will pay for the entire interest of the member that brought the action; and
(D) That recipients may join in the election to purchase the entire interest.
(d) A member that intends to participate under paragraph (c)(D) of this subsection shall notify the court of an intention to join in the election to purchase not later than 30 days after the date of the notice or at a time the court in the court's discretion allows. Each member that elects to purchase the interest or that notifies the court of an intention to participate in the election to purchase becomes a party to the action and participates in the purchase in proportion to the member's right to share in distributions as of the date on which the action commenced, unless the members agree otherwise or the court directs otherwise.

(2) The court, at the court's discretion, may allow the limited liability company and members to elect to purchase the entire interest of the member that brought the action at a price higher than the amount previously offered. If the court allows the purchase at the higher price, the court shall allow other members an opportunity to join in the election to purchase at the higher price in proportion to each member's right to share in distributions as of the date on which the action commences.

(3)(a) After the limited liability company or a member elects to purchase the entire interest of the member that brought the action, the member that brought the action may not discontinue or settle the action or sell or otherwise dispose of any part of the member's entire interest, unless the court determines that permitting the member to discontinue or settle the action or sell or otherwise dispose of the interest is equitable for the limited liability company or the other members.

(b) In considering whether equity exists to approve any settlement under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may consider the reasonable expectations the members had at the time the limited liability company was organized, the reasonable expectations that the members developed over the course of the members' relationship with each other and with the limited liability company and any existing agreement among the members. In making a determination under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court shall endeavor to minimize harm to the limited liability company's business.

(4)(a) If, within 30 days after the court allows the most recent election to purchase, the parties agree as to the fair value and terms of purchase of the entire interest of the member that brought the action, the court shall enter an order directing the purchase of the entire interest upon the terms and conditions to which the parties agreed.

(b) If the parties do not within a reasonable time agree as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, a member may request and the court shall grant a stay of the action and shall, under subsection (5) of this section, determine the fair value and terms of purchase of the entire interest of the member that brought the action as of the day before the date on which the member brought the action or as of another date as the court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

(5)(a) If the court orders a purchase under subsection (4)(b) of this section, the court shall:

(A) Determine the fair value of the entire interest, with or without the assistance of appraisers, taking into account any impact on the value of the entire interest that resulted from the actions that gave rise to the action;

(B) Consider any financial or legal constraints on the ability of the limited liability company or the purchasing member to purchase the entire interest;

(C) Specify the terms of the purchase, including, if appropriate, terms for installment payments, interest at the rate and from the date the court determines is equitable, a subordination of the purchase obligation to the rights of the limited liability company's other creditors, security for a deferred purchase price and a covenant not to compete or other restriction on the seller;

(D) Require the seller to deliver the seller's entire interest to the purchaser upon receiving the purchase price or the first installment of the purchase price;

(E) Retain jurisdiction to enforce the purchase order by, among other remedies, ordering the dissolution of the limited liability company if the purchase is not completed in accordance with the terms of the purchase order; and

(F) Require the limited liability company to:

(i) Pay reasonable compensation to the appraiser for the appraiser's services; and

(ii) Pay the appraiser's reasonable costs and expenses directly or reimburse the appraiser for the costs and expenses.

(b) The parties must consummate a purchase the court orders under subsection (4)(b)
of this section within 20 days after the date the order becomes final unless before the 20-day period expires the limited liability company files with the court a notice of the company's intention to dissolve and, within 50 days after filing the notice with the court, delivers articles of dissolution to the Secretary of State for filing.

(c) After the court enters the order to purchase and before the purchase price is fully paid, any party may petition the court to modify the terms of the purchase. The court may modify the terms of purchase if the court finds that the modifications are equitable.

(d) Unless the court modifies the order to purchase, the selling member is dissociated as a member from the date the selling member delivers the selling member's entire interest to the purchaser or as of another date the court specifies.

(e) If the court orders one or more members to purchase the entire interest of the member that brought the action, unless equity requires otherwise the court in allocating the shares that the other members must purchase shall attempt to preserve the existing distribution of voting rights and other designations, preferences, qualifications, limitations, restrictions and special or relative rights among the holders of a class or classes of interests and may direct that holders of a specific class or classes not participate in the purchase.

FOREIGN LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES

SECTION 75. Governing Law. (1) The law of a foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation governs:

(a) The internal affairs of the foreign limited liability company;

(b) The liability of a member as a member and of a manager as a manager for a debt, obligation or other liability of the foreign limited liability company; and

(c) The liability of a series of the foreign limited liability company.

(2) A difference between the laws of this state and the laws of a foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation does not preclude the foreign limited liability company from registering to do business in this state.

(3) Registration of a foreign limited liability company to do business in this state does not authorize the foreign limited liability company to engage in any activities and affairs or exercise any power that a limited liability company may not engage in or exercise in this state.

SECTION 76. Registration to do Business in this State. (1) A foreign limited liability company may not do business in this state and may not maintain an action or proceeding in the courts of this state until the company registers with the Secretary of State under section 77 of this 2023 Act.
(2) If a foreign limited liability company did not register with the Secretary of State before doing business in this state, a successor of the company or an assignee of a cause of action that arises from the business may not maintain an action or proceeding based on the cause of action in a court of this state until the company or the successor registers with the Secretary of State to do business in this state.

(3) A court may stay an action or proceeding that a foreign limited liability company or a successor or assignee of the company commences until the court determines whether the company, the successor or the assignee must register with the Secretary of State to do business in this state. If the court determines that registration is required, the court may further stay the action or proceeding until the company, the successor or the assignee registers with the Secretary of State.

(4) A foreign limited liability company that does business in this state without registering with the Secretary of State is liable to the state in an amount that is equivalent to all of the fees the company would have paid to the Secretary of State if the company had registered and had delivered for filing all required annual reports during each of the years or parts of years in which the company transacted business in this state without registering.

(5) A foreign limited liability company's failure to register to do business in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the company or preclude the company from defending an action or proceeding in this state.

(6) A limitation on the liability of a member or manager of a foreign limited liability company is not waived solely because the company does business in this state without registering with the Secretary of State.

(7) Section 75 (1) and (2) of this 2023 Act applies even if a foreign limited liability company fails to register with the Secretary of State to do business in this state.

SECTION 77. Foreign Registration Statement. To register to do business in this state, a foreign limited liability company shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a registration statement that includes all of the following elements:

(1) The name of the foreign limited liability company or, if the name the company uses is not available in this state, a name that complies with section 13 of this 2023 Act.

(2) A declaration that the foreign limited liability company is a foreign limited liability company.

(3) The name of the foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation and the company's registry number in the jurisdiction of formation.

(4) The address and mailing address of the foreign limited liability company's principal office and of any other office the company must maintain under the laws of the company's jurisdiction of formation. Each address must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(5) The name, address and mailing address of the foreign limited liability company's registered agent in this state. Each address must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(6) An identification of the foreign limited liability company as member-managed or manager-managed.

(7) A certificate of existence or a document of similar legal effect that was valid within the 60 days before the date the foreign limited liability company delivered the statement of registration and that is duly authenticated by the official that has custody of the records of limited liability company registrations in the foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation. A foreign limited liability company need not submit a certificate of existence or equivalent document if the official provides free access via the Internet to a searchable database that has evidence of limited liability company registrations.

SECTION 78. Amendment of Foreign Registration Statement. A registered foreign limited liability company shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing an amendment to the company’s registration statement if a change occurs in:

(1) The name of the registered foreign limited liability company;
(2) The registered foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation or the company's registry number in the jurisdiction of formation;
(3) The period of the registered foreign limited liability company's duration;
(4) An address required under section 77 (4) of this 2023 Act; or
(5) The information required under section 77 (5) of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 79. Activities Not Constituting Doing Business. (1) For the purposes of sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act, the following activities of a foreign limited liability company do not constitute doing business in this state:

(a) Maintaining, defending, mediating, arbitrating or settling an action or proceeding;
(b) Carrying on any activity concerning the foreign limited liability company's internal affairs, including holding meetings among members or managers;
(c) Maintaining accounts in financial institutions;
(d) Maintaining offices or agencies for transferring, exchanging and registering the foreign limited liability company's securities or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to the securities;
(e) Selling through independent contractors;
(f) Soliciting or obtaining orders by any means if the orders require acceptance outside this state before the orders become contracts;
(g) Creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages or security interests in property;

(j) Owning property, without more;
(k) Engaging in interstate commerce; and
(L) Other activities that are substantially similar or related to the activities described paragraphs (a) to (k) of this subsection.

(2) A person does not do business in this state solely by being a member or manager of a foreign limited liability company that does business in this state.

(3) This section does not apply in determining whether a contract or activity subjects a foreign limited liability company to service of process, taxation or regulation under a law of this state other than sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 80. Noncomplying Name of Foreign Limited Liability Company. (1) A foreign limited liability company may not register to do business in this state if the company's name does not comply with section 13 of this 2023 Act. If the company registers to do business in this state under a different name, the company shall do business in this state under:

(a) The company's name, with the addition of the company's jurisdiction of formation; or
(b) The assumed business name the company registered under ORS chapter 648.

(2) A foreign limited liability company that changes names to a name that does not comply with section 13 of this 2023 Act may not do business in this state until the company complies with subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 81. Withdrawal Deemed on Conversion to Domestic Filing Entity or Domestic Limited Liability Partnership. A registered foreign limited liability company that converts to a domestic limited liability partnership or to a domestic entity the formation of which requires delivering a record to the Secretary of State for filing withdraws the foreign limited liability company's registration on the effective date of the conversion.

SECTION 82. Withdrawal on Dissolution or Conversion to Nonfiling Entity Other than Limited Liability Partnership. (1) A registered foreign limited liability company that has dissolved and completed winding up or has converted to a domestic entity or foreign entity the formation of which does not require the public filing of a record, other than a limited liability partnership, shall deliver a statement of withdrawal to the Secretary of State for filing. The statement of withdrawal must:

(a) For a registered foreign limited liability company that completed winding up:

(A) State the name of the registered foreign limited liability company, the name of the company's jurisdiction of formation and the company's registry number in the jurisdiction of formation; and

(B) Declare that the registered foreign limited liability company surrenders the company's registration to do business in this state; and

(A) State the name of the converting registered foreign limited liability company, the name of the company's jurisdiction of formation and the company's registry number in the jurisdiction of formation;

(B) State the entity type into which the registered foreign limited liability company has converted and the converted entity's jurisdiction of formation;

(C) Declare that the converting registered foreign limited liability company surrenders the registration to do business in this state and revokes the authority of the company's registered agent to act as a registered agent in this state on behalf of the company or the converted entity; and

(D) State a mailing address to which service of process may be made under subsection (2) of this section.

(2) After a withdrawal under this section becomes effective, service of process in any action or proceeding that is based on a cause of action that arose during the time in which the foreign limited liability company was registered to do business in this state may be made in accordance with section 20 of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 83. Transfer of Registration. (1) If a registered foreign limited liability company merged into a foreign entity that is not registered to do business in this state or converted to a foreign entity that must register with the Secretary of State to do business in this state, the foreign entity shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing an application to transfer the registered foreign limited liability company's registration to the foreign entity. The application must state:

(a) The name of the registered foreign limited liability company before the merger or conversion;
(b) That before the merger or conversion the registration pertained to a foreign limited liability company;

c) The name of the foreign entity into which the registered foreign limited liability company has merged or converted and to which the company intends to transfer the registration;

d) The entity type of the foreign entity and the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation and registry number in the jurisdiction of formation;

e) The address and mailing address of the principal office of the foreign entity to which the registered foreign limited liability company will transfer the registration and of any other office the foreign entity must maintain under the laws of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation. Each address must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(f) The name, address and mailing address of the foreign entity's registered agent in this state. Each address must be a physical address that includes the number and street name.

(2) When a transfer of registration under this section becomes effective, the foreign limited liability company's registration to do business in this state transfers without interruption to the foreign entity into which the foreign limited liability company merged or converted.

SECTION 84. Termination of Registration. (1) The Secretary of State may terminate the registration of a registered foreign limited liability company as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section if any of the following grounds exist for the termination:

(a) The registered foreign limited liability company does not:

(A) Timely pay any fee, interest or penalty the registered foreign limited liability company must pay to the Secretary of State under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act or under other applicable law;

(F) Comply with the requirements of section 75 (3) of this 2023 Act;

(b) An organizer, manager, member or agent of the registered foreign limited liability company signs a record with intent to deliver the record to the Secretary of State for filing, knowing that the record is false in any material respect;

(c) The Secretary of State receives from the official that has custody of the records of limited liability company registrations in the limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation a duly authenticated certificate that states that the foreign limited liability company was dissolved or has ceased to exist as the result of a merger or other reorganization transaction; or

(d) The period of duration of the registered foreign limited liability company expires.

(2) The Secretary of State may terminate a registered foreign limited liability company's registration by:
(a) Filing a notice of termination or noting the termination in the records of the Secretary of State; and
(b) Delivering a copy of the notice or the information in the notation to the registered foreign limited liability company's registered agent or to the company's principal office, if the company does not have a registered agent in this state.

(3) The notice must state or the information in the notation must include:
(a) The effective date of the termination, which must be at least 45 days after the date on which the Secretary of State delivers the copy of the notice or the information in the notation; and
(b) The grounds for the termination.

(4) The authority of the registered limited liability company to do business in this state ceases on the effective date of the notice of termination or of the notation described in subsection (2) of this section unless before the effective date the company cures each of the grounds for termination listed in the notice or notation. If the registered foreign limited liability company cures the grounds, the Secretary of State shall file a record that withdraws the termination.

(5) The Secretary of State's termination of a registered foreign limited liability company’s registration appoints the Secretary of State as the company's agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action that arose during the time the company was registered to do business in this state.

(6) A termination of a registered foreign limited liability company's registration terminates the authority of the company's registered agent.

SECTION 85. Reinstatement of Authority of Foreign Limited Liability Company. (1) A foreign limited liability company may apply to reinstate a registration that the Secretary of State terminated under section 84 of this 2023 Act if the company submits the application not later than five years after the effective date of the termination. An application under this section must:

(a) State the name of the foreign limited liability company at the time of the termination.
(b) State the address of the foreign limited liability company’s principal office and the name, address and mailing address of the company’s registered agent in this state. All addresses must be physical addresses that include the number and street name.

(d) Declare that the foreign limited liability company has cured all conditions that provided grounds for the Secretary of State to terminate the company's registration under section 84 of this 2023 Act, or that the conditions no longer exist.

(2) To become reinstated, a foreign limited liability company shall pay all fees, taxes, interest and penalties the foreign limited liability company:
(a) Owed to the Secretary of State or to another agency of this state at the time of the termination; and
(b) Would have owed to the Secretary of State or to another agency of the state during the period in which the registration of the limited liability company was terminated.

(3) If the Secretary of State determines that an application under subsection (1) of this section is complete and correct and that the foreign limited liability company has made all payments described in subsection (2) of this section, the Secretary of State shall prepare and file a statement of reinstatement that:
(a) Identifies the name of the reinstated registered foreign limited liability company; and
(b) States the substance of the Secretary of State's determination and the effective date of the reinstatement.

(4) The Secretary of State may waive the requirement under subsection (1) of this section that the foreign limited liability company apply for reinstatement within five years after the date of termination if the company requests the waiver and provides evidence of the company's continued existence as an active concern during the period following termination.

(5) Once a reinstatement under this section becomes effective:
(a) The reinstatement relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the termination;
(b) The registered foreign limited liability company resumes carrying on the company's activities and affairs as if the termination had not occurred.

(6) A person's rights that arise out of an act or omission in reliance on the termination before the person knew or had notice of the reinstatement are not affected.

SECTION 86. Judicial Review of Denial of Reinstatement. (1) If the Secretary of State denies a foreign limited liability company's application for reinstatement following termination, the Secretary of State shall serve the limited liability company with a notice in a record that explains the reasons for the denial.

(2) The foreign limited liability company may appeal the denial of the reinstatement under ORS chapter 183.

(3) After a plan of merger is approved and before a statement of merger becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. A party to the plan may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved, unless the plan provides otherwise.

(4) If a party to a plan of merger abandons the plan after a statement of merger was delivered to the Secretary of State for filing and before the statement of merger is effective, before the statement of merger becomes effective the party shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of abandonment signed by a party to the plan of merger. The statement of abandonment takes effect upon filing and the merger does not become effective.

(k) For a person that no longer holds an interest in a merging limited liability company in which the person previously had interest holder liability:

(B) The person does not have interest holder liability under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act for any debt, obligation or other liability that the surviving entity incurs after the merger is effective, except that for a period of one year after the effective date of the merger the person has personal liability for liabilities the surviving entity incurs if:

(i) Before the merger the person was a partner in a merging partnership or a general partner in a merging limited liability partnership and was personally liable for the debts of the partnership or limited liability partnership;

(ii) After the merger the person would ordinarily be protected from personal liability; and

(iii) Another party to the transaction that created the liability reasonably believes that the person has personal liability for any debt, obligation or other liability the surviving entity incurred and did not receive notice of the merger;

(C) Sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act apply, as if the merger did not occur, to a release, collection or discharge of any of the person's interest holder liability that remains under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph; and

(D) With respect to any of the person's interest holder liability that remains under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the person has the rights of contribution from any other person that are available, as if the merger did not occur, under the merging limited liability company's operating agreement, under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act or under law other than sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.

(L) A foreign entity that is the surviving entity may be served with process in this state for collecting and enforcing any of a merging limited liability company's debts, obligations or other liabilities as provided in section 20 of this 2023 Act; and

(2) Except as otherwise provided in a merging entity's organic law or organic rules, a merger does not provide rights to an interest holder, governor or third party that the interest holder, governor or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the merging entity.

SECTION 103. Interest Exchange Authorized. (1) By complying with sections 103 to 108 of this 2023 Act:

(a) A limited liability company may acquire all of one or more classes or series of interests of another domestic entity or foreign entity in exchange for interests, securities, obligations, money or other property, rights to acquire interests or securities or any combination of interests, securities, obligations, money, property or rights; or change under sections 103 to 108 of this 2023 Act if the laws of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation authorize the interest exchange.

(3) If a protected agreement includes a provision that applies to a merger of a limited liability company but does not refer to an interest exchange, the provision applies to an interest exchange in which the limited liability company is the acquired entity as if the interest exchange were a merger until the provision is amended after the effective date of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 104. Plan of Interest Exchange. (1) A limited liability company may be the acquired entity in an interest exchange under sections 103 to 108 of this 2023 Act by approving a plan of interest exchange. The plan must be a record and must:

(2) A plan of interest exchange may include, in addition to the elements required under subsection (1) of this section, any other provision not otherwise prohibited by law.

SECTION 105. Approval of Interest Exchange. (1) A plan of interest exchange is not effective unless:

(a) All of the members of the acquired limited liability company that may vote on or consent to any matter have approved the plan; and
(b) Each member of the acquired limited liability company that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations and other liabilities that are incurred after the interest exchange becomes effective approves the plan in a record, unless:

(A) The operating agreement of the acquired limited liability company provides in a record for approving a plan of interest exchange in which the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all of the members of the company can subject all members of the company to interest holder liability; and
(B) The member voted for or consented in a record to the provision described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph or became a member after the provision was adopted.

(2) A plan of interest exchange that involves an acquired domestic entity that is not a limited liability company is not effective unless the entity approves the plan in accordance with the acquired domestic entity's organic law.

(3) A plan of interest exchange that involves an acquired foreign entity is not effective unless the entity approves the plan in accordance with the law of the entity's jurisdiction of formation.

(4) Interest holders of an acquiring entity need not approve the interest exchange unless the acquiring entity's organic law or organic rules provide otherwise.

SECTION 106. Amendment or Abandonment of Plan of Interest Exchange. (1) A plan of interest exchange may be amended only with the consent of each party to the plan, unless
(2) An acquired limited liability company may approve an amendment to a plan of interest exchange:

(a) In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not specify a manner of amendment; or

(B) The articles of organization or the operating agreement of the acquired limited liability company that will become effective immediately after the interest exchange becomes effective, except for changes that under the acquired limited liability company's operating agreement or under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act do not require the approval of the members; or

(C) Any other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect the member in any material respect.

(3) After a plan of interest exchange is approved and before a statement of interest exchange becomes effective, the plan of interest exchange may be abandoned as provided in the plan. An acquired limited liability company may abandon the plan in the same manner that the company approved the plan, unless the plan provides otherwise.

(4) If an acquired limited liability company abandons a plan of interest exchange after a statement of interest exchange was delivered to the Secretary of State for filing and before the statement of interest exchange becomes effective, before the statement of interest exchange becomes effective, the acquired limited liability company shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of abandonment signed by the company. The statement of abandonment takes effect upon filing and the interest exchange does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must:

(a) Identify the acquired limited liability company;

(b) State the date on which the Secretary of State filed the statement of interest exchange; and

(c) Declare that the acquired limited liability company has abandoned the plan of interest exchange in accordance with this section.

SECTION 107. Statement of Interest Exchange; Effective Date of Interest Exchange. (1) For an interest exchange to be effective, an acquired limited liability company must sign and deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a plan of interest exchange and a statement of interest exchange.

(3) In addition to the elements required for a statement of interest exchange under subsection (2) of this section, a statement of interest exchange may include any other provision that is not prohibited by law.

(4) Instead of a statement of interest exchange, an acquired limited liability company may deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a plan of interest exchange that the acquired limited liability company has signed and that complies with subsection (2) of this section. A plan of interest exchange that the Secretary of State files under this subsection has the same effect as a statement of interest exchange. If the Secretary of State files a plan of interest exchange under this subsection, references in sections 103 to 108 of this 2023 Act to a statement of interest exchange refer instead to the plan of interest exchange.

(5) An interest exchange becomes effective when the statement of interest exchange is effective.

SECTION 108. Effect of Interest Exchange. (1) When an interest exchange in which the acquired entity is a limited liability company becomes effective:

(f) For a person that no longer holds an interest in an acquired limited liability company in which the person previously had interest holder liability:

(A) The interest exchange does not discharge any interest holder liability under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act that the person incurred before the interest exchange became effective;
(B) The person does not have interest holder liability under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act for any debt, obligation or other liability that the domestic entity incurs after the interest exchange is effective, except that for a period of one year after the effective date of the interest exchange the person has personal liability for liabilities the domestic entity incurs if:

(i) Before the interest exchange the person was a partner in a partnership or a general partner in a limited liability partnership and was personally liable for the debts of the partnership or limited liability partnership;

(ii) After the interest exchange the person would ordinarily be protected from personal liability; and

(iii) Another party to the transaction that created the liability reasonably believes that the person has personal liability for any debt, obligation or other liability the domestic entity incurred and did not receive notice of the interest exchange;

(C) Sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act apply, as if the interest exchange did not occur, to a release, collection or discharge of any of the person’s interest holder liability that remains under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph; and

(D) With respect to any of the person’s interest holder liability that remains under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the person has the rights of contribution from any other person that are available, as if the interest exchange did not occur, under the acquired limited liability company’s operating agreement, under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act or under law other than sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in an acquired limited liability company’s operating agreement, an interest exchange does not provide rights to a member, manager or third party that the member, manager or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the acquired limited liability company.

SECTION 109. Conversion Authorized. (1) By complying with sections 109 to 114 of this 2023 Act, a limited liability company may become:

(a) A different type of domestic entity; or

(b) A different type of foreign entity, if the laws of the foreign entity’s jurisdiction of formation authorize the conversion.

(2) By complying with the provisions of sections 109 to 114 of this 2023 Act that apply to foreign entities, a foreign entity that is not a foreign limited liability company may become a limited liability company if the laws of the foreign entity’s jurisdiction of formation authorize the conversion.

SECTION 110. Plan of Conversion. (1) A limited liability company may convert to a different entity type under sections 109 to 114 of this 2023 Act by approving a plan of conversion. The plan must be a record and must:

(a) State the converting limited liability company's name;

(b) State the name, jurisdiction of formation and entity type of the converted entity;

(c) Describe how the interests in the converting limited liability company will be converted into interests, securities, obligations, money or other property, rights to acquire interests or securities or any combination of interests, securities, obligations, money, property or rights;

(2) A plan of conversion may include, in addition to the elements required under subsection (1) of this section, any other provision not otherwise prohibited by law.

SECTION 111. Approval of Conversion. (1) A plan of conversion is not effective unless:
(a) The converting limited liability company, and all of the members of the converting limited liability company that may vote on or consent to any matter, have approved the plan; and
(b) Each member of the converted limited liability company that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations and other liabilities that are incurred after the conversion becomes effective approves the plan in a record, unless:
(A) The operating agreement of the converting limited liability company provides in a record for approving a plan of conversion in which the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all of the members of the converting limited liability company can subject all members of the converting limited liability company to interest holder liability; and
(B) The member voted for or consented in a record to the provision described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph or became a member after the provision was adopted.
(2) A plan of conversion that involves a converting domestic entity that is not a limited liability company is not effective unless the converting domestic entity approves the plan of conversion in accordance with the converting domestic entity’s organic law.
(3) A plan of conversion that involves a converting foreign entity is not effective unless the entity approves the plan in accordance with the law of the entity’s jurisdiction of formation.

SECTION 112. Amendment or Abandonment of Plan of Conversion. (1) A converting limited liability company’s plan of conversion may be amended:
(a) In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not specify a manner of amendment; or
(b) By the converting limited liability company’s members or managers in the manner the plan of conversion specifies, but a member that may vote on or consent to approving the plan may vote on or consent to any amendment that will change:
(A) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money or other property, rights to acquire interests or securities or any combination of interests, securities, obligations, money, property or rights that any of the members of the converting limited liability company will receive under the plan of conversion;
(B) The public organic record, if any, or private organic rules of the converted entity that will become effective immediately after the conversion becomes effective, except for changes that under the converted entity’s organic law or organic rule do not require the approval of the interest holders of the converted entity; or
(C) Any other terms or conditions of the plan of conversion if the change would adversely affect the member in any material respect.
(2) After a converting limited liability company has approved a plan of conversion and before a statement of conversion becomes effective, the converting limited liability company may abandon the plan as provided in the plan. A converting limited liability company may abandon the plan in the same manner that the company approved the plan, unless the plan provides otherwise.

(3) If a converting limited liability company abandons a plan of conversion after delivering a statement of conversion to the Secretary of State for filing and before the statement of conversion is effective, before the statement of conversion becomes effective the converting limited liability company shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of abandonment signed by the converting limited liability company. The statement of abandonment takes effect upon filing and the conversion does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must:

(a) Identify the converting limited liability company;
(b) State the date on which the Secretary of State filed the statement of conversion; and
(c) Declare that the converting limited liability company has abandoned the plan of conversion in accordance with this section.

SECTION 113. Statement of Conversion; Effective Date of Conversion. (1) For a conver-converting entity with a copy of the plan of conversion without charge upon request;

(3) In addition to the elements required for a statement of conversion under subsection
(2) of this section, a statement of conversion may include any other provision that is not prohibited by law.
(4) If the converted entity is a domestic entity, the public organic record of the domestic entity must comply with the requirements of the laws of this state, except that the public organic record does not need to be signed.
(5) Instead of a statement of conversion, a converting limited liability company may de-deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a plan of conversion that the converting limited liability company signed and that complies with subsection (2) of this section. A plan of conversion that the Secretary of State files under this subsection has the same effect as a statement of conversion. If the Secretary of State files a plan of conversion under this subsection, references in sections 109 to 114 of this 2023 Act to a statement of conversion refer instead to the plan of conversion.

(6) If the converted entity is a limited liability company, a conversion becomes effective when the statement of conversion is effective. Otherwise, a conversion becomes effective on the later of:

(a) The date on which the statement of conversion is effective; or

(b) The date that the organic law of the converted entity specifies.

SECTION 114. Effect of Conversion. (1) When a conversion becomes effective:

(a) The converted entity is the same entity as the converting entity without interruption and is organized under and subject to the converted entity’s organic law;

transfer, reversion or impairment;

(c) The converted entity remains subject to the converting entity’s debts, obligations and vested in the converted entity, except as otherwise provided in the plan of conversion or by law;

(e) The name of the converted entity may be substituted for the name of the converting entity in any pending action or proceeding;

(f) The converted entity’s articles of organization become effective;

(g) The provisions of the converted entity’s operating agreement, if any, that are or will be in a record and that were approved as part of the plan of conversion become effective;

(h) An application for registration under ORS 67.603 becomes effective, if the converted entity is a limited liability partnership;

(i) The interests in the converting entity are converted and the interest holders of the converted interests have only the rights that the plan of conversion specifies plus any appraisal rights available under section 95 of this 2023 Act;

(j) A person has interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity only to the extent that the domestic entity’s organic law specifies, and only for debts, obligations and other liabilities incurred after the conversion becomes effective, if the person did not have interest holder liability with respect to the converting entity and became subject to interest holder liability with respect to the domestic entity only as a result of the conversion;

(k) For a person that no longer holds an interest in a converting limited liability company in which the person previously had interest holder liability:

(A) The conversion does not discharge any interest holder liability under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act that the person incurred before the conversion became effective;

(B) The person does not have interest holder liability under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023
Act for any debt, obligation or other liability that arises after the conversion is effective, xcept that for a period of one year after the effective date of the conversion the person has personal liability for liabilities the domestic entity incurs if:

(i) Before the conversion the person was a partner in a partnership or a general partner in a limited liability partnership and was personally liable for the debts of the partnership or limited liability partnership;
(ii) After the conversion the person would ordinarily be protected from personal liability;

incurred and did not receive notice of the conversion;

(C) Sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act apply, as if the conversion did not occur, to a release, collection or discharge of any of the person’s interest holder liability that remains under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph; and

(D) With respect to any of the person’s interest holder liability that remains under sub-paragraph (A) of this paragraph, the person has the rights of contribution from any other person that are available, as if the conversion did not occur, under the converted entity’s organic rules, under sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act or under law other than sections 1 to 125 of this 2023 Act;

(L) The converting entity’s registration of an assumed business name under ORS chapter 648 continues as the assumed business name of the converted entity unless the converted entity is a partnership, in which case the converting entity shall amend or cancel the converting entity’s assumed business name registration under ORS chapter 648 and the partners of the converted partnership shall register the converted partnership’s name as an assumed business name under ORS chapter 648;

(m) A converted entity that is a foreign entity may be served with process in this state to collect and enforce any of the converted entity’s debts, obligations and other liabilities as provided in section 20 of this 2023 Act; and

(n) The converting entity’s registration to do business in this state is canceled when the conversion becomes effective, if the converting entity is a registered foreign entity.

(2) A conversion does not require a converting entity to wind up the converting entity’s activities and affairs and does not cause a dissolution of the converting entity.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in a converting limited liability company’s operating agreement, a conversion does not provide rights to a member, manager or third party that the member, manager or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the converting entity.

SECTION 115. Domestication Authorized. (1) By complying with sections 115 to 120 of this 2023 Act, a limited liability company may become a foreign limited liability company if the laws of the foreign jurisdiction authorize the domestication.

(2) By complying with the provisions of sections 115 to 120 of this 2023 Act that apply to foreign entities, a foreign limited liability company may become a limited liability company if the laws of the foreign limited liability company’s jurisdiction of formation authorize the domestication.

(3) If a protected agreement includes a provision that applies to a merger of a limited liability company but does not refer to a domestication, the provision applies to a domestication of the limited liability company as if the domestication were a merger until the provision is amended after the effective date of this 2023 Act.

SECTION 116. Plan of Domestication. (1) A limited liability company may become a foreign limited liability company under sections 115 to 120 of this 2023 Act by approving a plan limited liability company's operating agreement.

(2) A plan of domestication may include, in addition to the elements required under subsection (1) of this section, any other provision not otherwise prohibited by law.

SECTION 117. Approval of Domestication. (1) A plan of domestication is not effective unless:

(a) All of the members of the domesticating limited liability company that may vote on or consent to any matter have approved the plan; and

(b) Each member of the domesticating limited liability company that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations and other liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective approves the plan in a record, unless:

(A) The operating agreement of the domesticating limited liability company provides in a record for approving a plan of domestication in which the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all of the members of the domesticating limited liability company can subject all members of the domesticating limited liability company to interest holder liability; and

(B) The member voted for or consented in a record to the provision described in sub-paragraph (A) of this paragraph or became a member after the provision was adopted.

(2) A plan of domestication for a domesticating foreign limited liability company is not effective unless the company approves the plan in accordance with the laws of the company's jurisdiction of formation.

SECTION 118. Amendment or Abandonment of Plan of Domestication. (1) A domesticating limited liability company's plan of domestication may be amended:

(a) In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not specify a manner of amendment; or

(b) By the members or managers in the manner the plan specifies, but a member that may vote on or consent to approving the plan may vote on or consent to any amendment that will change:

(A) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money or other property,

(B) The articles of organization or operating agreement of the domesticated limited li-

not require the approval of the members; or

(C) Any other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect the member in any material respect.

(2) After a domesticating limited liability company has approved a plan of domestication and before a statement of domestication becomes effective, the domesticating limited liability company may abandon the plan as provided in the plan. A domesticating limited liability company may abandon the plan in the same manner that the company approved the plan, unless the plan provides otherwise.

(3) If a domesticating limited liability company abandons a plan of domestication after delivering a statement of domestication to the Secretary of State for filing and before the statement of domestication is effective, before the statement of domestication becomes effective the domesticating limited liability company shall deliver to the Secretary of State for filing a statement of abandonment signed by the company. The statement of abandonment takes effect upon filing and the domestication does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must:

(a) Identify the domesticating limited liability company;
(b) State the date on which the Secretary of State filed the statement of domestication; and

(3) In addition to the elements required for a statement of domestication under subsection (2) of this section, a statement of domestication may include any other provision that is not prohibited by law.

(4) If the domesticated entity is a limited liability company, the articles of organization of the domesticated entity must comply with the requirements of the laws of this state, except that the articles of organization do not need to be signed.

If the Secretary of State files a plan of domestication under this subsection, references in sections 115 to 120 of this 2023 Act to a statement of domestication refer instead to the plan of domestication.

For purposes of this paragraph, “first class mail” does not include certified, registered, or express mail, return receipt requested, or any other form of mail that may delay or hinder actual delivery of mail to the addressee.

D(2)(d)(ii) Calculation of time. For the purpose of computing any period of time provided by these rules or by statute, service by mail, except as otherwise provided, shall be complete on the day the defendant, or other person authorized by appointment or law, signs a receipt for the mailing, or 3 days after the mailing if mailed to an address within the state, or 7 days after the mailing if mailed to an address outside the state, whichever first occurs.

D(4)(a) Actions arising out of use of roads, highways, streets, or premises open to the public; service by mail.

D(4)(a)(i) In any action arising out of any accident, collision, or other event giving rise to liability in which a motor vehicle may be involved while being operated on the roads, highways, streets, or premises open to the public as defined by law of this state if the plaintiff makes at least one attempt to serve a defendant who operated such motor vehicle, or caused it to be operated on the defendant’s behalf, by a method authorized by subsection D(3) of this rule except service by mail pursuant to subparagraph D(3)(a)(i) of this rule and, as shown by its return, did not effect service, the plaintiff may then serve that defendant by mailings made in accordance with paragraph D(2)(d) of this rule addressed to that defendant at:

D(4)(a)(i)(B) the current residence address, if any, of that defendant shown in the driver records of the Department of Transportation; and
D(4)(a)(i)(C) any other address of that defendant known to the plaintiff at the time of making the mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A) and D(4)(a)(i)(B) of this rule that reasonably might result in actual notice to that defendant. Sufficient service pursuant to this subparagraph may be shown if the proof of service includes a true copy of the envelope in which each of the certified, registered, or express mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A), D(4)(a)(i)(B), and D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule was made showing that it was returned to sender as undeliverable or that the defendant did not sign the receipt. For the purpose of computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules or by statute, service under this subparagraph shall be complete on the latest date on which any of the mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A), D(4)(a)(i)(B), and D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule is made. If the mailing required by part D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule is omitted because the plaintiff did not know of any address other than those specified in parts D(4)(a)(i)(A) and D(4)(a)(i)(B) of this rule, the proof of service shall so certify.

D(4)(a)(ii) Any fee charged by the Department of Transportation for providing address information concerning a party served pursuant to subparagraph D(4)(a)(i) of this rule may be recovered as provided in Rule 68.

D(4)(a)(iii) The requirements for obtaining an order of default against a defendant served pursuant to subparagraph D(4)(a)(i) of this rule are as provided in Rule 69 E.

D(4)(b) Notification of change of address. Any person who, while operating a motor vehicle on the roads, highways, streets, or premises open to the public as defined by law of this state; is involved in any accident, collision, or other event giving rise to liability shall forthwith notify the Department of Transportation of any change of the person’s address occurring within 3 years after the accident, collision, or event.

D(5) Service in foreign country. When service is to be effected on a party in a foreign country, it is also sufficient if service of true copies of the summons and the complaint is made in the manner prescribed by the law of the foreign country for service in that country in its courts of general jurisdiction, or as directed by the foreign authority in response to letters rogatory, or as directed by order of the court. However, in all cases service shall be reasonably calculated to give actual notice.

D(6) Court order for service by other method. When it appears that service is not possible under any method otherwise specified in these rules or other rule or statute, then a motion supported by affidavit or declaration may be filed to request a discretionary court order to allow alternative service by any method or combination of methods that, under the circumstances, is most reasonably calculated to apprise the defendant of the existence and pendency of the action. If the court orders alternative service and the plaintiff knows or with reasonable diligence can ascertain the defendant’s current address, the plaintiff must mail true copies of the summons and the complaint to the defendant at that address by first class mail and any of the following: certified, registered, or express mail, return receipt requested. If the plaintiff does not know, and with reasonable diligence cannot ascertain, the current address of any defendant, the plaintiff must mail true copies of the summons and the complaint by the methods specified above to the defendant at the defendant's last known address. If the plaintiff does not know, and with reasonable diligence cannot ascertain, the defendant's current and last known addresses, a mailing of copies of the summons and the complaint is not required.

D(6)(a) Non-electronic alternative service. Non-electronic forms of alternative service may include, but are not limited to, publication of summons; mailing without publication to a specified post office address of the defendant by first class mail as well as either by certified, registered, or express mail with return receipt requested; or posting at specified locations. The court may specify a respose time in accordance with subsection C(2) of this rule.

D(6)(a)(i) Alternative service by publication. In addition to the contents of a summons as described in section C of this rule, a published summons must also contain a summary statement of the object of the complaint and the demand for relief, and the notice required in subsection C(3) of this rule must state: "The motion or answer or reply must be given to the court clerk or administrator within 30 days of the date of first publication specified herein along with the required filing fee." The published summons must also contain the date of the first publication of the summons.

D(6)(a)(ii)(A) Where published. An order for publication must  direct publication to be made in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the action is commenced or, if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper to be designated as most likely to give notice to the person to be served. The summons must be published four times in successive calendar weeks. If the plaintiff knows of a specific location other than the county in which the action is commenced where publication might reasonably result in actual notice to the defendant, the plaintiff must so state in the affidavit or declaration required by paragraph D(6) of this rule, and the court may order publication in a comparable manner at that location in addition to, or in lieu of, publication in the county in which the action is commenced.

D(6)(a)(ii) Alternative service by posting. The court may order service by posting true copies of the summons and complaint at a designated location in the courthouse where the action is commenced and at any other location that the affidavit or declaration required by subsection D(6) of this rule indicates that the posting might reasonably result in actual notice to the defendant.

D(6)(b) Electronic alternative service. Electronic forms of alternative service may include, but are not limited to: e-mail; text message; facsimile transmission as defined in Rule 9 F; or posting to a social media account. The affidavit or declaration filed with a  motion for electronic alternative service must include: verification that diligent inquiry revealed that the defendant’s residence address, mailing address, and place of employment are unlikely to accomplish service; the reason that plaintiff believes the defendant has recently sent and received transmissions from the specific e-mail address or telephone or facsimile number, or maintains an active social media account on the specific platform the plaintiff asks to use; and facts that indicate the intended recipient is likely to personally receive the electronic transmission. The certificate of service must verify compliance with subparagraph D(6)(b)(i) and subparagraph D(6)(b)(ii) of this rule. An amended certificate of service must be filed if it later becomes evident that the intended recipient did not personally recieve the electronic transmission.

D(6)(b)(i) Content of electronic transmissions. If the court allows service by a specific electronic method, the case name, case number, and name of the court in which the action is pending must be prominently positioned where it is most likely to be read first. For e-mail service, those details must

text. For facsimile service, they must appear at the top of the first page. For posting to a social

D(6)(b)(ii) Format of electronic transmissions. If the court allows alternative service by an electronic method, the summons, complaint, and any other documents must be attached in a file format that is capable of showing a true copy of the original document. When an electronic method is incapable of transferring transmissions that exceed a certain size, the plaintiff must not exceed those express size limitations. If the size of the attachments exceeds the limitations of any electronic method allowed, then multiple sequential transmissions may be sent immediately after the initial transmission to complete service.

D(6)(c) Unknown heirs or persons. If service cannot be made by another method described in this section because defendants are unknown heirs or persons as described in Rule 20 I and J, the action will proceed against the unknown heirs or persons in the same manner as against named defendants served by publication and with like effect; and any unknown heirs or persons who have
or claim any right, estate, lien, or interest in the property in controversy at the time of the commencement of the action, and who are served by publication, will be bound and concluded by the judgment in the action, if the same is in favor of the plaintiff, as effectively as if the action had been brought against those defendants by name.

D(6)(d) Defending before or after judgment. A defendant against whom service pursuant to this subsection is ordered or that defendant's representatives, on application and sufficient cause shown,
at any time before judgment will be allowed to defend the action. A defendant against whom service pursuant to this subsection is ordered or that defendant's representatives may, on good cause shown
and on any terms that may be proper, be allowed to defend after judgment and within one year after entry of judgment. If the defense is successful, and the judgment or any part thereof has been collected or otherwise enforced, restitution may be ordered by the court, but the title to property sold on execution issued on that judgment, to a purchaser in good faith, will not be affected thereby.

D(6)(e) Defendant who cannot be served. Within the meaning of this subsection, a defendant cannot be served with summons by any method authorized by subsection D(3) of this rule if service pursuant to subparagraph D(4)(a)(i) of this rule is not applicable, the plaintiff attempted service of summons by all of the methods authorized by subsection D(3) of this rule, and the plaintiff was unable to complete service; or if the plaintiff knew that service by these methods could not be accomplished.

SECTION 130. ORCP 7 D, as amended by the Council on Court Procedures on December 10, 2022, and as amended by section 129 of this 2023 Act, is amended to read:

D Manner of service.

and pendency of the action and to afford a reasonable opportunity to appear and defend. Summons may be served in a manner specified in this rule or by any other rule or statute on the defendant or on an agent authorized by appointment or law to accept service of summons for the defendant.
Service may be made, subject to the restrictions and requirements of this rule, by the following methods: personal service of true copies of the summons and the complaint on defendant or an agent of defendant authorized to receive process; substituted service by leaving true copies of the sum-

For the purpose of computing any period of time provided by these rules or by statute, service by mail, except as otherwise provided, shall be complete on the day the defendant, or other person authorized by appointment or law, signs a receipt for the mailing, or 3 days after the mailing if mailed to an address within the state, or 7 days after the mailing if mailed to an address outside the state, whichever first occurs.

D(4) Particular actions involving motor vehicles.

D(4)(a) Actions arising out of use of roads, highways, streets, or premises open to the public; service by mail.

D(4)(a)(i) In any action arising out of any accident, collision, or other event giving rise to liability in which a motor vehicle may be involved while being operated on the roads, highways, streets, or premises open to the public as defined by law of this state if the plaintiff makes at least one attempt to serve a defendant who operated such motor vehicle, or caused it to be operated on the defendant's behalf, by a method authorized by subsection D(3) of this rule except service by mail pursuant to subparagraph D(3)(a)(i) of this rule and, as shown by its return, did not effect service, the plaintiff may then serve that defendant by mailings made in accordance with paragraph D(2)(d) of this rule addressed to that defendant at:

D(4)(a)(i)(A) any residence address provided by that defendant at the scene of the accident;
D(4)(a)(i)(B) the current residence address, if any, shown in the driver records of the Department of Transportation; and
D(4)(a)(i)(C) any other address of that defendant known to the plaintiff at the time of making the mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A) and D(4)(a)(i)(B) of this rule that reasonably might result in actual notice to that defendant. Sufficient service pursuant to this subparagraph may be shown if the proof of service includes a true copy of the envelope in which each of the certified, registered, or express mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A), D(4)(a)(i)(B), and D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule was made showing that it was returned to sender as undeliverable or that the defendant did not sign the receipt. For the purpose of computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules or by statute, service under this subparagraph shall be complete on the latest date on which any of the mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A), D(4)(a)(i)(B), and D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule is made. If the mailing required by part D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule is omitted because the plaintiff did not know of any address other than those specified in parts D(4)(a)(i)(A) and D(4)(a)(i)(B) of this rule, the proof of service shall so certify.

D(4)(a)(ii) Any fee charged by the Department of Transportation for providing address information concerning a party served pursuant to subparagraph D(4)(a)(i) of this rule may be recovered as provided in Rule 68.

D(4)(a)(iii) The requirements for obtaining an order of default against a defendant served pursuant to subparagraph D(4)(a)(i) of this rule are as provided in Rule 69 E.

D(4)(b) Notification of change of address. Any person who; while operating a motor vehicle on the roads, highways, streets, or premises open to the public as defined by law of this state; is involved in any accident, collision, or other event giving rise to liability shall forthwith notify the Department of Transportation of any change of the person’s address occurring within 3 years after the accident, collision, or event.

D(5) Service in foreign country. When service is to be effected on a party in a foreign country, it is also sufficient if service of true copies of the summons and the complaint is made in the manner prescribed by the law of the foreign country for service in that country in its courts of general jurisdiction, or as directed by the foreign authority in response to letters rogatory, or as directed by order of the court. However, in all cases service shall be reasonably calculated to give actual notice.
D(6) Court order for service by other method. When it appears that service is not possible under any method otherwise specified in these rules or other rule or statute, then a motion supported by affidavit or declaration may be filed to request a discretionary court order to allow alternative service by any method or combination of methods that, under the circumstances, is most reasonably calculated to apprise the defendant of the existence and pendency of the action. If the court orders alternative service and the plaintiff knows or with reasonable diligence can ascertain the defendant’s current address, the plaintiff must mail true copies of the summons and the complaint to the defendant at that address by first class mail and any of the following: certified, registered, or express mail, return receipt requested. If the plaintiff does not know, and with reasonable diligence cannot ascertain, the current address of any defendant, the plaintiff must mail true copies of the summons and the complaint by the methods specified above to the defendant at the defendant’s last known address. If the plaintiff does not know, and with reasonable diligence cannot ascertain, the defendant’s current and last known addresses, a mailing of copies of the summons and the complaint is not required.

D(6)(a) Non-electronic alternative service. Non-electronic forms of alternative service may include, but are not limited to, publication of summons; mailing without publication to a specified post office address of the defendant by first class mail as well as either by certified, registered, or express mail with return receipt requested; or posting at specified locations. The court may specify a response time in accordance with subsection C(2) of this rule.

D(6)(a)(i) Alternative service by publication. In addition to the contents of a summons as described in section C of this rule, a published summons must also contain a summary statement of the object of the complaint and the demand for relief, and the notice required in subsection C(3) of this rule must state: “The motion or answer or reply must be given to the court clerk or administrator within 30 days of the date of first publication specified herein along with the required filing fee.” The published summons must also contain the date of the first publication of the summons.

D(6)(a)(i)(A) Where published. An order for publication must direct publication to be made in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the action is commenced or, if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper to be designated as most likely to give notice to the person to be served. The summons must be published four times in successive calendar weeks. If the plaintiff knows of a specific location other than the county in which the action is commenced where publication might reasonably result in actual notice to the defendant, the plaintiff must so state in the affidavit or declaration required by paragraph D(6) of this rule, and the court may order publication in a comparable manner at that location in addition to, or in lieu of, publication in the county in which the action is commenced.

D(6)(a)(ii) Alternative service by posting. The court may order service by posting true copies of the summons and complaint at a designated location in the courthouse where the action is commenced and at any other location that the affidavit or declaration required by subsection D(6) of this rule indicates that the posting might reasonably result in actual notice to the defendant.

D(6)(b) Electronic alternative service. Electronic forms of alternative service may include, but are not limited to: e-mail; text message; facsimile transmission as defined in Rule 9 F; or posting to a social media account. The affidavit or declaration filed with a motion for electronic alternative service must include: verification that diligent inquiry revealed that the defendant’s residence address, mailing address, and place of employment are unlikely to accomplish service; the reason that plaintiff believes the defendant has recently sent and received transmissions from the specific e-mail address or telephone or facsimile number, or maintains an active social media account on the spe-specific platform the plaintiff asks to use; and facts that indicate the intended recipient is likely to personally receive the electronic transmission. The certificate of service must verify compliance with subparagraph D(6)(b)(i) and subparagraph D(6)(b)(ii) of this rule. An amended certificate of service must be filed if it later becomes evident that the intended recipient did not personally receive the electronic transmission.

D(6)(b)(i) Content of electronic transmissions. If the court allows service by a specific electronic method, the case name, case number, and name of the court in which the action is pending must be prominently positioned where it is most likely to be read first. For e-mail service, those details must appear in the subject line. For text message service, they must appear in the first line of the first
text. For facsimile service, they must appear at the top of the first page. For posting to a social media account, they must appear in the top lines of the posting.

D(6)(b)(ii) Format of electronic transmissions. If the court allows alternative service by an electronic method, the summons, complaint, and any other documents must be attached in a file format that is capable of showing a true copy of the original document. When an electronic method is incapable of transferring transmissions that exceed a certain size, the plaintiff must not exceed those express size limitations. If the size of the attachments exceeds the limitations of any electronic method allowed, then multiple sequential transmissions may be sent immediately after the initial transmission to complete service.

D(6)(c) Unknown heirs or persons. If service cannot be made by another method described in this section because defendants are unknown heirs or persons as described in Rule 20 I and J, the action will proceed against the unknown heirs or persons in the same manner as against named defendants served by publication and with like effect; and any unknown heirs or persons who have
or claim any right, estate, lien, or interest in the property in controversy at the time of the commencement of the action, and who are served by publication, will be bound and concluded by the
brought against those defendants by name.

D(6)(d) Defending before or after judgment. A defendant against whom service pursuant to this
subsection is ordered or that defendant's representatives, on application and sufficient cause shown,
at any time before judgment will be allowed to defend the action. A defendant against whom service
pursuant to this subsection is ordered or that defendant's representatives may, on good cause shown
and on any terms that may be proper, be allowed to defend after judgment and within one year after entry of judgment. If the defense is successful, and the judgment or any part thereof has been collected or otherwise enforced, restitution may be ordered by the court, but the title to property sold on execution issued on that judgment, to a purchaser in good faith, will not be affected thereby.

D(6)(e) Defendant who cannot be served. Within the meaning of this subsection, a defendant cannot be served with summons by any method authorized by subsection D(3) of this rule if service
pursuant to subparagraph D(4)(a)(i) of this rule is not applicable, the plaintiff attempted service of
able to complete service; or if the plaintiff knew that service by these methods could not be accomplished.
