(c) Any notice provided to a covered individual of the individual’s liability for recovery of benefits under this section must include a description of:

(A) The basis for the director’s decision that benefits have been overpaid; and

(B) The consequences of the overpayment, including recovery of the overpaid amount and the possibility of waiver under section 3 of this 2023 Act.

(2) Subject to ORS 657B.410, a decision of the director under this section does not authorize the recovery of the amount of any benefits paid to a covered individual until the decision is final.

(3) The director may bring a civil action against a covered individual to recover amounts paid to the individual in excess of the maximum benefits allowable pursuant to this chapter.

SECTION 3. Waiver of recovery of overpaid benefits. (1) The Director of the Employment Department shall waive recovery of overpaid benefits under section 2 of this 2023 Act if the director finds that the benefits are recoverable due to a change in state law, the application of which has caused the disqualification of benefits previously paid.

(2) The director may not waive recovery under this section of overpaid benefits that are subject to the penalty imposed under ORS 657B.120 (3).

(3) The director may waive establishment and recovery of overpaid benefits when no decision has been issued under ORS 657B.120 or section 2 of this 2023 Act and the amount of the overpayment is equal to or less than one-half of the maximum weekly benefit amount in effect at the time the overpayment is discovered.

(4) Any waiver granted under this section extinguishes all liability of the debtor for the waived amounts.

SECTION 4. Ineligibility for benefits upon conviction of fraud in obtaining benefits. (1) If a person is convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of willfully making a false statement or misrepresentation, or willfully failing to report a material fact, to obtain any benefits under this chapter, in addition to any penalties imposed by the court, the person shall:

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, the overpayment may not be canceled if the debt is being recovered by payments or deductions that were received within the last three months or if repayment of the overpayment is required under section 4 of this 2023 Act.

(2) If an amount paid to a covered individual as benefits, for which the covered individual has been found liable under the provisions of section 2 of this 2023 Act to have deducted from benefits payable, has not been waived under section 3 of this 2023 Act, paid or deducted from benefits otherwise payable to the individual for any week or weeks within five years following the week in which the decision establishing the overpayment became final, the overpayment, together with the record of the overpayment and the resulting shortage, shall be canceled.

The director may determine that the amount of interest or penalty due and unpaid is uncollectible, and write off the amount. In making the determination that interest or a penalty is uncollectible, the director shall consider, among other factors:
