A BILL FOR AN ACT
Relating to duties of Oregon Government Ethics Commission; creating new provisions; and repealing ORS 244.250.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:
SECTION 1. ORS 244.250 is repealed.
SECTION 2. The repeal of ORS 244.250 by section 1 of this 2023 Act becomes operative on July 2, 2025.
SECTION 3. (1) The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall conduct a study and, subject to subsection (8) of this section, determine how the judicial department can be made solely responsible for ensuring that public officials in the judicial department, or public officials for whom a public official in the judicial department serves as the appointing authority, comply with all legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, including but not limited to governmental ethics set forth in ORS chapter 244, executive session provisions of the Oregon public meetings law set forth in ORS 192.610 to 192.690 and the regulation of lobbying set forth in ORS 171.725 to 171.785 and 171.992. The Chief Justice shall submit a report in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and must include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to government ethics no later than September 15, 2024.

(2) The Governor shall conduct a study and, subject to subsection (8) of this section, determine how the Governor or the Governor's designee can be made solely responsible for ensuring that public officials in the office of the Governor, public officials in the executive department who are not described in subsections (3) to (7) of this section or public officials for whom the Governor serves as the appointing authority, comply with all legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, including but not limited to governmental ethics set forth in ORS chapter 244, executive session provisions of the Oregon public meetings law set forth in ORS 192.610 to 192.690 and the regulation of lobbying set forth in ORS 171.725 to 171.785 and 171.992. The Governor shall submit a report... in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and must include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to government ethics no later than September 15, 2024.

(3) The Secretary of State shall conduct a study and, subject to subsection (8) of this section, determine how the secretary or the secretary's designee can be made solely responsible for ensuring that public officials in the office of the Secretary of State, or public officials for whom the Secretary of State serves as the appointing authority, comply with all legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, including but not limited to governmental ethics set forth in ORS chapter 244, executive session provisions of the Oregon public meetings law set forth in ORS 192.610 to 192.690 and the regulation of lobbying set forth in ORS 171.725 to 171.785 and 171.992. The secretary shall submit a report in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and must include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to government ethics no later than September 15, 2024.

(4) The State Treasurer shall conduct a study and, subject to subsection (8) of this section, determine how the State Treasurer or the State Treasurer's designee can be made solely responsible for ensuring that public officials in the office of the State Treasurer, or public officials for whom the State Treasurer serves as the appointing authority, comply with all legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, including but not limited to governmental ethics set forth in ORS chapter 244, executive session provisions of the Oregon public meetings law set forth in ORS 192.610 to 192.690 and the regulation of lobbying set forth in ORS 171.725 to 171.785 and 171.992. The State Treasurer shall submit a report in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and must include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to government ethics no later than September 15, 2024.

(5) The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries shall conduct a study and, subject to subsection (8) of this section, determine how the commissioner or the commissioner's designee can be made solely responsible for ensuring that public officials in the office of the commissioner, or public officials for whom the commissioner serves as the appointing authority, comply with all legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, including but not limited to governmental ethics set forth in ORS chapter 244, executive session provisions of the Oregon public meetings law set forth in ORS 192.610 to 192.690 and the regulation of lobbying set forth in ORS 171.725 to 171.785 and 171.992. The commissioner shall submit a report in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and must include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to government ethics no later than September 15, 2024.

(6)(a) The Oregon Government Ethics Commission shall conduct a study and, subject to subsection (8) of this section:

(A) Determine the most efficient method for making each local government and local service district solely responsible for ensuring that public officials affiliated with the local government or local service district comply with all legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, including but not limited to governmental ethics set forth in ORS chapter 244, executive session provisions of the Oregon public meetings law set forth in ORS 192.610 to 192.690 and the regulation of lobbying set forth in ORS 171.725 to 171.785 and 171.992; and
(B) Ensure the orderly dissolution of the Oregon Government Ethics Commission as of July 2, 2025.

(b) The Oregon Government Ethics Commission shall submit a report in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and must include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to government ethics no later than September 15, 2024.

(7) The Attorney General shall conduct a study to determine how the Attorney General or the Attorney General’s designee can be made solely responsible for ensuring that public officials in the office of the Attorney General, public officials who are part of a special government body, public officials for whom the Attorney General serves as the appointing authority and any public official who is not described in subsections (1) to (6) of this section and who is not part of the legislative department, comply with all legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, including but not limited to governmental ethics set forth in ORS chapter 244, executive session provisions of the Oregon public meetings law set forth in ORS 192.610 to 192.690 and the regulation of lobbying set forth in ORS 171.725 to 171.785 and 171.992. The Attorney General shall submit a report in the manner provided by ORS 192.245, and must include recommendations for legislation, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly related to government ethics no later than September 15, 2024.

(8)(a) Reports submitted under this section must include a method for members of the general public to bring a claim in circuit court alleging that:

(A) A public official has failed to comply with a legal requirement currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission; and

(B) The entity responsible for ensuring compliance with the legal requirement has failed to sanction a public official described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph in the manner required by law.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Attorney General may not provide legal advice or be in any way involved in:

(A) Advising public officials about the responsibility of a public official regarding legal requirements currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission; or

(B) Defending a public official in a contested proceeding regarding an allegation that the public official violated a legal requirement currently enforced by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission.
