Senate Bill 1062
Sponsored by Senator SMITH DB (at the request of Thomas Dole)

SUMMARY
The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Requires person who operates website or online service for commercial purposes that collects consumers’ personally identifiable information to develop, maintain and implement data management practices policy and post policy or link to policy prominently on website or online service home page. Specifies minimum policy requirements.

A BILL FOR AN ACT
Relating to consumers’ personally identifiable information; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 646.608.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section:
(a) "Consumer" means an individual resident of Oregon who seeks to enter or enters into a transaction primarily for personal, family or household purposes.
(b) "Personally identifiable information" means information that can be used to distinguish or trace an individual's identity or, when combined with other personal or identifying information, is linked or linkable to a specific individual.
(2) If a person operates a website or online service for commercial purposes and the website or online service collects a consumer's personally identifiable information, the person shall:
(a) Develop, maintain and implement a data management practices policy as described under subsection (3) of this section regarding the collection and use of consumers' personally identifiable information; and
(b) Post the data management practices policy or a link to the data management practices policy prominently on the website or online service home page.
(3) A data management practices policy developed and maintained under this section must, at a minimum:
(a) Identify the categories of personally identifiable information that the website or online service collects;
(b) Identify the categories of third parties with whom the person may share or shares the personally identifiable information that the website or online service collects;
(c) Contain and describe a process by which a consumer may request to change or change how:
(A) The website or online service collects the consumer's personally identifiable information; or
(B) The person uses or shares the consumer's personally identifiable information;
(d) Contain and describe a process by which a consumer may access and view:

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted.
New sections are in boldfaced type.

LC 4239
(A) The consumer’s personally identifiable information that the website or online service has collected; or
(B) The consumer’s personally identifiable information that the person has used or shared; and
(c) Contain and describe reasonable safeguards the person has adopted to protect consumers’ personally identifiable information.
(4) Violation of this section is an unlawful practice under ORS 646.608.

SECTION 2. ORS 646.608 is amended to read:
646.608. (1) A person engages in an unlawful practice if in the course of the person’s business, vocation or occupation the person does any of the following:
(a) Passes off real estate, goods or services as the real estate, goods or services of another.
(b) Causes likelihood of confusion or of misunderstanding as to the source, sponsorship, approval, or certification of real estate, goods or services.
(c) Causes likelihood of confusion or of misunderstanding as to affiliation, connection, or association with, or certification by, another.
(d) Uses deceptive representations or designations of geographic origin in connection with real estate, goods or services.
(e) Represents that real estate, goods or services have sponsorship, approval, characteristics, ingredients, uses, benefits, quantities or qualities that the real estate, goods or services do not have or that a person has a sponsorship, approval, status, qualification, affiliation, or connection that the person does not have.
(f) Represents that real estate or goods are original or new if the real estate or goods are deteriorated, altered, reconditioned, reclaimed, used or secondhand.
