10 treating health care provider poses an imminent danger of death, is terminal 11 in prognosis with a reasonable possibility of death in the near future, or 12 requires constant care;

13 “(c) Any period of disability due to pregnancy, or period of absence for 14 prenatal care; or 15 “(d) Any period of absence for the donation of a body part, organ or tis-16 sue, including preoperative or diagnostic services, surgery, post-operative 17 treatment and recovery.

18 “SECTION 5. ORS 659A.171 is amended to read:

19 “659A.171. (1) After returning to work after taking family leave under the 20 provisions of ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186, an eligible employee is entitled to 21 be restored to the position of employment held by the employee when the 22 leave commenced if that position still exists, without regard to whether the 23 employer filled the position with a replacement worker during the period of 24 family leave. If the position held by the employee at the time family leave 25 commenced no longer exists, the employee is entitled to be restored to any 26 available equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay and 27 other terms and conditions of employment. If an equivalent position is not 28 available at the job site of the employee’s former position, the [employee may 29 be offered] employer shall offer the employee an equivalent position at a 30 job site located within [20] 50 miles of the job site of the employee’s former

1 position, if such position is available. If equivalent positions are avail-
2 able at multiple job sites, the employer shall first offer the employee 3 the position at the job site that is nearest to the job site of the 4 employee’s former position.

5 “(2) Except for employee benefits used during the period of leave, the 6 taking of family leave under ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 shall not result in the 7 loss of any employment benefit accrued before the date on which the leave 8 commenced.

9 “(3) This section does not entitle any employee to:

10 “(a) Any accrual of seniority or employment benefits during a period of 11 family leave; or

12 “(b) Any right, benefit or position of employment other than the rights, 13 benefits and position that the employee would have been entitled to had the 14 employee not taken the family leave.

15 “(4)(a) Before restoring an employee to a position under subsection (1) of 16 this section, an employer may require that the employee receive certification 17 from the employee’s health care provider that the employee is able to resume 18 work. Certification under this subsection may only be required pursuant to 19 a uniformly applied practice or policy of the employer.

20 “(b) This subsection does not affect the ability of an employer to require 21 an employee during a period of family leave to report periodically to the 22 employer on the employee’s status and on the employee’s intention to return 23 to work.

24 “(5)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, benefits are 25 not required to continue to accrue during a period of family leave unless 26 continuation or accrual is required under an agreement of the employer and 27 the employee, a collective bargaining agreement or an employer policy.

28 “(b) If the employee is provided group health insurance, the employee is 29 entitled to the continuation of group health insurance coverage during the 30 period of family leave on the same terms as if the employee had continued

1 to work. If family member coverage is provided to the employee, family 2 member coverage must be maintained during the period of family leave. The 3 employee must continue to make any regular contributions to the cost of the 4 health insurance premiums.

5 “(c) Notwithstanding ORS 652.610 (3) and except as provided in paragraph 6 (b) of this subsection, if the employer is required or elects to pay any part 7 of the costs of providing disability, life or other insurance coverage for an 8 employee during the period of family leave that should have been paid by the 9 employee, the employer may deduct from the employee’s pay such amounts 10 upon the employee’s return to work until the amount the employer advanced 11 toward the payments is paid. In no event may the total amount deducted for 12 insurance under the provisions of this subsection exceed 10 percent of the 13 employee’s gross pay each pay period.

14 “(6) Notwithstanding ORS 652.610 (3), if the employer pays any part of the 15 costs of health, disability, life or other insurance coverage for an employee 16 under the provisions of subsection (5) of this section, and the employee does 17 not return to employment with the employer after taking family leave, the 18 employer may deduct amounts paid by the employer from any amounts owed 19 by the employer to the employee, or may seek to recover those amounts by 20 any other legal means, unless the employee fails to return to work because 21 of:

22 “(a) A continuation, reoccurrence or onset of a serious health condition 23 that would entitle the employee to leave for one of the purposes specified 24 by ORS 659A.159 (1)(b) or (c); or 25 “(b) Other circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

26 “SECTION 6. ORS 659A.186 is amended to read:

27 “659A.186. (1) ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 do not limit any right of an em-28 ployee to any leave that is similar to the leave described in ORS 659A.159 29 (1) and to which the employee may be entitled under any agreement between 30 the employer and the employee, collective bargaining agreement or employer

1 policy.

2 “(2) ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 shall be construed to the extent possible 3 in a manner that is consistent with any similar provisions of the federal 4 Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993. [Family leave] If family and med-
5 ical leave taken under ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 qualifies as protected 6 leave pursuant to the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993
7 (P.L. 103-3) or qualifies as family leave or medical leave taken pursu-
8 ant to ORS chapter 657B, family and medical leave taken under ORS 9 659A.150 to 659A.186 must be taken concurrently with, and not in addition 10 to, any leave taken under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 11 (P.L. 103-3) and under ORS chapter 657B.

“PAID FAMILY LEAVE

15 “SECTION 7. Section 8 of this 2023 Act is added to and made a part 16 of ORS chapter 657B.

17 “SECTION 8. In order to determine whether an individual qualifies 18 as a family member by reason of affinity, as that term is used in ORS 19 657B.010, consideration shall be given to whether there exists a signif-20 icant personal bond attributed to factors, established by the Director 21 of the Employment Department by rule, that when examined in total, 22 resemble a family relationship.

23 “SECTION 9. ORS 657B.060 is amended to read:

24 “657B.060. (1)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, 25 after returning to work after a period of family leave, medical leave or safe 26 leave, an eligible employee is entitled to be restored to the position of em-27 ployment held by the employee when the leave commenced, if that position 28 still exists, without regard to whether the employer filled the position with 29 a replacement worker during the period of leave. If the position held by the 30 employee at the time leave commenced no longer exists, the employee is en-

1 titled to be restored to any available equivalent position with equivalent 2 employment benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment. If 3 an equivalent position is not available at the job site of the employee’s 4 former position, the employer shall offer the employee an equivalent 5 position at a job site located within 50 miles of the job site of the 6 employee’s former position, if such a position is available. If equiv- 7 alent positions are available at multiple job sites, the employer shall 8 first offer the employee the position at the job site that is nearest to 9 the job site of the employee’s former position.

10 “(b) For employers that employ fewer than 25 employees, if the position 11 held by an eligible employee when the employee’s leave commenced no longer 12 exists, an employer may, at the employer’s discretion based on business ne-13 cessity, restore the eligible employee to a different position with similar job 14 duties and with the same employment benefits and pay.

15 “(2)(a) During a period in which an eligible employee takes leave de-16 scribed under subsection (1) of this section, the employer shall maintain any 17 health care benefits the employee had prior to taking such leave for the du-18 ration of the leave, as if the employee had continued in employment contin-19 uously during the period of leave. The employee must continue to make 20 any regular contributions to the cost of the health insurance premi- 21 ums.

22 “(b) Notwithstanding ORS 652.610 (3) and except as provided in 23 paragraph (a) of this subsection, if the employer is required or elects 24 to pay any part of the costs of providing disability, life or other in- 25 surance coverage for an eligible employee during the period of family 26 leave that should have been paid by the employee, the employer may 27 deduct from the employee’s pay such amounts upon the employee’s 28 return to work until the amount the employer advanced toward the 29 payments is paid. In no event may the total amount deducted for in- 30 surance under the provisions of this subsection exceed 10 percent of

1 the employee's gross pay each period.

2 “(3) An eligible employee who has taken leave described under subsection 3 (1) of this section does not lose any employment benefits, including seniority 4 or pension rights, accrued before the date on which the leave commenced.

5 “(4) It is an unlawful employment practice to discriminate against an el-6 igible employee who has invoked any provision of this chapter.

7 “(5) Nothing in this section entitles an eligible employee to accrue em-8 ployment benefits during a period of leave or to a right, benefit or position 9 of employment other than a right, benefit or position to which the employee 10 would have been entitled had the employee not taken leave.

11 “(6)(a) Nothing in this section requires an employer to retain a temporary 12 worker who was hired to replace an eligible employee taking family leave, 13 medical leave or safe leave after the eligible employee has returned to work.

14 “(b) A civil action may not be brought against an employer for taking any 15 of the following actions necessary to restore an eligible employee to the po-16 sition of employment held by the employee as required under subsection (1) 17 of this section:

18 “(A) Terminating the employment of a worker who was hired solely to 19 temporarily replace an eligible employee during a period of leave; or 20 “(B) Removing an employee from a position to which the employee was 21 transferred to temporarily replace an eligible employee while the eligible 22 employee was on leave, and returning the employee to the position originally 23 held by the employee prior to the transfer at the salary or rate of pay and 24 benefits associated with the position.

25 “(c) An employer shall, either at the time of hire or before reassignment, 26 inform a temporary worker or an employee who is reassigned to a position 27 to temporarily replace an eligible employee during a period of leave of the 28 information provided under this subsection.

29 “(7) The protections provided under this section apply only to an eligible 30 employee who was employed by the employer for at least 90 days before

1 taking leave described under subsection (1) of this section.
