12 treating health care provider poses an imminent danger of death, is terminal 13 in prognosis with a reasonable possibility of death in the near future, or 14 requires constant care;

15 “(c) Any period of disability due to pregnancy, or period of absence for 16 prenatal care; or

17 “(d) Any period of absence for the donation of a body part, organ or tis-18 sue, including preoperative or diagnostic services, surgery, post-operative 19 treatment and recovery.

20 “SECTION 5. ORS 659A.171 is amended to read:

21 “659A.171. (1) After returning to work after taking family leave under the 22 provisions of ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186, an eligible employee is entitled to 23 be restored to the position of employment held by the employee when the 24 leave commenced if that position still exists, without regard to whether the 25 employer filled the position with a replacement worker during the period of 26 family leave. If the position held by the employee at the time family leave 27 commenced no longer exists, the employee is entitled to be restored to any 28 available equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay and 29 other terms and conditions of employment. If an equivalent position is not 30 available at the job site of the employee’s former position, the [employee may

1 be offered] employer shall offer the employee an equivalent position at a 2 job site located within [20] 50 miles of the job site of the employee’s former 3 position, if such a position is available. If equivalent positions are 4 available at multiple job sites, the employer shall first offer the em- 5 ployee the position at the job site that is nearest to the job site of the 6 employee’s former position.

7 “(2) Except for employee benefits used during the period of leave, the 8 taking of family leave under ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 shall not result in the 9 loss of any employment benefit accrued before the date on which the leave 10 commenced.

11 “(3) This section does not entitle any employee to:

12 “(a) Any accrual of seniority or employment benefits during a period of 13 family leave; or

14 “(b) Any right, benefit or position of employment other than the rights, 15 benefits and position that the employee would have been entitled to had the 16 employee not taken the family leave.

17 “(4)(a) Before restoring an employee to a position under subsection (1) of 18 this section, an employer may require that the employee receive certification 19 from the employee’s health care provider that the employee is able to resume 20 work. Certification under this subsection may only be required pursuant to 21 a uniformly applied practice or policy of the employer.

22 “(b) This subsection does not affect the ability of an employer to require 23 an employee during a period of family leave to report periodically to the 24 employer on the employee’s status and on the employee’s intention to return 25 to work.

26 “(5)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, benefits are 27 not required to continue to accrue during a period of family leave unless 28 continuation or accrual is required under an agreement of the employer and 29 the employee, a collective bargaining agreement or an employer policy.

30 “(b) If the employee is provided group health insurance, the employee is 1 entitled to the continuation of group health insurance coverage during the 2 period of family leave on the same terms as if the employee had continued

3 to work. If family member coverage is provided to the employee, family 4 member coverage must be maintained during the period of family leave. The 5 employee must continue to make any regular contributions to the cost of the 6 health insurance premiums.

7 “(c) Notwithstanding ORS 652.610 (3) and except as provided in paragraph 8 (b) of this subsection, if the employer is required or elects to pay any part 9 of the costs of providing disability, life or other insurance coverage for an 10 employee during the period of family leave that should have been paid by the 11 employee, the employer may deduct from the employee’s pay such amounts 12 upon the employee’s return to work until the amount the employer advanced 13 toward the payments is paid. In no event may the total amount deducted for 14 insurance under the provisions of this subsection exceed 10 percent of the 15 employee’s gross pay each pay period.

16 “(6) Notwithstanding ORS 652.610 (3), if the employer pays any part of the 17 costs of health, disability, life or other insurance coverage for an employee 18 under the provisions of subsection (5) of this section, and the employee does 19 not return to employment with the employer after taking family leave, the 20 employer may deduct amounts paid by the employer from any amounts owed 21 by the employer to the employee, or may seek to recover those amounts by 22 any other legal means, unless the employee fails to return to work because 23 of:

24 “(a) A continuation, reoccurrence or onset of a serious health condition 25 that would entitle the employee to leave for one of the purposes specified 26 by ORS 659A.159 (1)(b) or (c); or 27 “(b) Other circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

28 “SECTION 6. ORS 659A.186 is amended to read:

29 “659A.186. (1) ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 do not limit any right of an em-30 ployee to any leave that is similar to the leave described in ORS 659A.159

1 (1) and to which the employee may be entitled under any agreement between 2 the employer and the employee, collective bargaining agreement or employer 3 policy.

4 “(2) ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 shall be construed to the extent possible 5 in a manner that is consistent with any similar provisions of the federal 6 Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993. [Family leave] If family leave taken 7 under ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 qualifies as protected leave pursuant to 8 the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-3) or qual-
9 ifies as family leave or medical leave taken pursuant to ORS chapter 10 657B, family leave taken under ORS 659A.150 to 659A.186 must be taken 11 concurrently with, and not in addition to, any leave taken under the fed-
12 eral Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-3) and under ORS 13 chapter 657B.

“PAID FAMILY LEAVE

16

17 “SECTION 7. Section 8 of this 2023 Act is added to and made a part 18 of ORS chapter 657B.

19 “SECTION 8. (1) In order to determine whether an individual qual- 20 ifies as a family member by reason of affinity, as that term is used in 21 ORS 657B.010, consideration shall be given to whether there exists a 22 significant personal bond attributed to factors, established by the Di- 23 rector of the Employment Department by rule, that when examined 24 in total, resemble a family relationship.

25 “(2) Rules adopted by the director under this section may include 26 rules for developing and using an attestation form by which an em- 27 ployee may attest to the affinity factors described in subsection (1) of 28 this section.

29 “SECTION 9. ORS 657B.060 is amended to read:

30 “657B.060. (1)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection,

1 after returning to work after a period of family leave, medical leave or safe 2 leave, an eligible employee is entitled to be restored to the position of em-3 ployment held by the employee when the leave commenced, if that position 4 still exists, without regard to whether the employer filled the position with 5 a replacement worker during the period of leave. If the position held by the 6 employee at the time leave commenced no longer exists, the employee is en-7 titled to be restored to any available equivalent position with equivalent 8 employment benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment. If 9 an equivalent position is not available at the job site of the employee's 10 former position, the employer shall offer the employee an equivalent 11 position at a job site located within 50 miles of the job site of the 12 employee's former position, if such a position is available. If equiv- 13 alent positions are available at multiple job sites, the employer shall 14 first offer the employee the position at the job site that is nearest to 15 the job site of the employee's former position.

16 “(b) For employers that employ fewer than 25 employees, if the position 17 held by an eligible employee when the employee's leave commenced no longer 18 exists, an employer may, at the employer's discretion based on business ne-19 cessity, restore the eligible employee to a different position with similar job 20 duties and with the same employment benefits and pay.

21 “(2)(a) During a period in which an eligible employee takes leave de-22 scribed under subsection (1) of this section, the employer shall maintain any 23 health care benefits the employee had prior to taking such leave for the du-24 ration of the leave, as if the employee had continued in employment contin-25 uously during the period of leave. The employee must continue to make 26 any regular contributions to the cost of the health insurance premi- 27 ums.

28 “(b) Notwithstanding ORS 652.610 (3) and except as provided in 29 paragraph (a) of this subsection, if the employer is required or elects 30 to pay any part of the costs of providing disability, life or other in-

1 urance coverage for an eligible employee during the period of family 2 leave that should have been paid by the employee, the employer may 3 deduct from the employee's pay such amounts upon the employee's 4 return to work until the amount the employer advanced toward the 5 payments is paid. In no event may the total amount deducted for in- 6 urance under the provisions of this subsection exceed 10 percent of 7 the employee's gross pay each period.

8 “(3) An eligible employee who has taken leave described under subsection 9 (1) of this section does not lose any employment benefits, including seniority 10 or pension rights, accrued before the date on which the leave commenced.

11 “(4) It is an unlawful employment practice to discriminate against an el-12 igible employee who has invoked any provision of this chapter.

13 “(5) Nothing in this section entitles an eligible employee to accrue em-14 ployment benefits during a period of leave or to a right, benefit or position 15 of employment other than a right, benefit or position to which the employee 16 would have been entitled had the employee not taken leave.

17 “(6)(a) Nothing in this section requires an employer to retain a temporary 18 worker who was hired to replace an eligible employee taking family leave, 19 medical leave or safe leave after the eligible employee has returned to work.

20 “(b) A civil action may not be brought against an employer for taking any 21 of the following actions necessary to restore an eligible employee to the po-22 sition of employment held by the employee as required under subsection (1) 23 of this section:

24 “(A) Terminating the employment of a worker who was hired solely to 25 temporarily replace an eligible employee during a period of leave; or 26 “(B) Removing an employee from a position to which the employee was 27 transferred to temporarily replace an eligible employee while the eligible 28 employee was on leave, and returning the employee to the position originally 29 held by the employee prior to the transfer at the salary or rate of pay and 30 benefits associated with the position.

1 “(c) An employer shall, either at the time of hire or before reassignment, 2 inform a temporary worker or an employee who is reassigned to a position 3 to temporarily replace an eligible employee during a period of leave of the 4 information provided under this subsection.

5 “(7) The protections provided under this section apply only to an eligible 6 employee who was employed by the employer for at least 90 days before 7 taking leave described under subsection (1) of this section.

8
9 “UNIT CAPTIONS

10 11 “SECTION 10. The unit captions used in this 2023 Act are provided 12 only for the convenience of the reader and do not become part of the 13 statutory law of this state or express any legislative intent in the 14 enactment of this 2023 Act.

15
16 “EFFECTIVE AND OPERATIVE DATES

17 18 “SECTION 11. (1) Section 2 of this 2023 Act becomes operative on 19 January 1, 2024.

20 “(2) Section 3 of this 2023 Act becomes operative on September 3, 21 2023.

22 “(3) The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries may 23 adopt rules and take any other action before the operative dates 24 specified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section that is necessary to 25 enable the commissioner, on and after the operative dates specified in 26 subsections (1) and (2) of this section, to undertake and exercise all 27 of the duties, functions and powers conferred on the commissioner 28 under sections 2 and 3 of this 2023 Act.

29 “SECTION 12. This 2023 Act being necessary for the immediate 30 preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is

1 declared to exist, and this 2023 Act takes effect on its passage.”.
