28 or other factors not caused by a petitioner or those acting on a petitioner's 29 behalf. The court may not diminish the petitioner's burden of proof as set

24 award, whichever is greater, and the remainder as an annuity not to exceed 25 $80,000 per year. The petitioner shall designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries 26 for the annuity.

27 “(b) The court may order that the award be paid in one lump sum if the 14 “(8) Beginning in 2023, and every year thereafter, the State Court Ad-15 ministrator shall determine the percentage increase or decrease in the cost

16 of living for the previous calendar year, based on changes in the Consumer 17 Price Index for All Urban Consumers, West Region (All Items), as published 18 by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor.
19 On or before July 1 of the year in which the State Court Administrator
20 makes the determination required by this subsection, the State Court Ad-21 ministrator shall adjust the amounts prescribed under subsection (5) of this 22 section for the following calendar year by multiplying the amounts applica-
23 ble to the calendar year in which the adjustment is made by the percentage 24 amount determined under this subsection. The adjustment may not exceed 25 three percent for any year. The State Court Administrator shall round the 26 adjusted limitation amount to the nearest $100, but the unrounded amount 27 shall be used to calculate the adjustments to the amounts in subsequent 28 calendar years. The adjusted amounts become effective on July 1 of the year 29 in which the adjustment is made, and apply to all petitions filed under this 30 section on or after July 1 of that year and before July 1 of the subsequent 1 year.

2 “(9)(a) If, on the date a judgment is entered under subsection (5) of this 3 section, the petitioner has won a monetary award against a public body as 4 defined in ORS 174.109 in a separate civil action related to the same subject, 5 or has entered into a settlement agreement with a public body as defined in 6 ORS 174.109 related to the same subject, the amount of economic damages
7 awarded in the separate action or received in the settlement agreement, less 8 any sums paid to litigate the other civil action or obtain the settlement
9 agreement, including, but not limited to, attorney fees, costs and expert fees,
10 shall be deducted from the sum of money to which the petitioner is entitled 11 under this section. The court shall include in the judgment an award to the 12 state of any amount deducted pursuant to this subsection.

13 “(b) If paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply and if, after the 14 date the judgment is entered under subsection (5) of this section, the 18 to the same subject, the petitioner shall reimburse the state for the sum of 19 money paid under the judgment entered under subsection (5) of this section, 20 less any sums paid to litigate the other civil action or obtain the settlement

21 agreement, including, but not limited to, attorney fees, costs and expert fees.
22 A reimbursement required under this subsection may not exceed the amount 23 of the economic damages awarded in the separate civil action or received in 24 the settlement agreement.

25 “(c) An award under this section shall not be offset by any expenses in-26 curred by a public body as defined in ORS 174.109 to secure the petitioner’s
27 custody or conviction, or to feed, clothe, house or provide medical services 28 to the petitioner as a result of the petitioner’s incarceration.

29 “(10) Compensation awarded as a result of a petition for compensation for

4 petitioner may request that judgment include a certificate of innocence 5 finding that the petitioner was innocent of all crimes for which the 6 petitioner was wrongfully convicted.

7 “(b) Upon entry of a judgment granting a petition under this section, the 8 court shall order the associated convictions and arrest records be set aside 9 and sealed from all applicable state and federal systems pursuant to this 10 subsection. The court shall enter the set aside order regardless of whether 11 the petitioner has other criminal convictions or pending criminal cases.

12 “(13) Notwithstanding ORS 12.115, a petition under this section must be 13 filed no later than two years after:

29 vided to other persons, including, but not limited to, financial assistance, 30 housing assistance, mentoring and counseling. Services may be provided

1 while an action is pending and after any judgment is entered, as appropriate 2 for the petitioner.
