

Submitter: Meredith Holley

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure: HB2004

I support ranked choice voting. As a mediator, I have seen ranked choice voting be one of the most simple, successful ways to allow people with differing perspectives to reach an optimal compromise. There is no down side to ranked choice voting, and it has the potential to help step passed the polarized politics that have so divided our country.