This is an unconstitutional idea. Ranked choice voting would negate the one vote per person that is prescribed in our US Constitution. It would also abolish the Electoral College wouldn't it? We need to stick to the Constitutional way of doing things. Ranked choice gives votes to a candidate against the wishes of the person who cast the vote. That is a way of stealing a person's vote. This would completely undermine the legitimacy of the vote and cause everyone to lose faith that their vote matters.
