

In support of House Continuing Resolution 12

Honoring Frank Moore

The Conservation Angler fully supports HCR 12 honoring Frank Moore, an Oregon Treasure. Many who knew Frank Moore well have written eloquently about this remarkable man. Our remarks will be brief regarding just some of the many reasons for honoring Frank Moore.

- His service to the country in World War II
- His service as a Fish and Wildlife Commissioner
- His commitment and passion for the North Umpqua River across decades
- His willingness to share the river, the secrets and the wild fish with others
- His mountain goat-like sure-footedness while wading
- His iron-clad memory
- His warm smile and long, loving partnership with Jeannie Moore
- His iron-grip handshake
- The love and energy he inspired in generations of other riverkeepers that lives on
