

Submitter: Thomas Busse

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Human Services

Measure: SB569

This unnecessary bill tries to micromanage human behavior to virtue-signal against a non-problem and turns the Commissioner of Labor and Industries into the "Official TV Remote Hog" in a state where we have seen officials use their bully pulpit to harass cake bakers.

Nobody is "out to get" the hearing-impaired, and if someone wants the close captioning to be switched on, are we so awful as a society we need a law for what can be politely asked? Most of the time, people are just looking down at their phones anyway.
