

I have been a farmer, hunter and fisherman my entire life. I have a deep connection and respect for the land. My footprint on this earth is always about best practices for the future.

By processing my own food by raising, hunting and fishing. It leaves the world with a more sustainable and healthy footprint. Those traditions must continue . Loading your grocery cart with process food packaging is not. That's is why I support HJR 5.