I strongly support SB 566. I still remember 2 awful incidents in my own life in which I experienced actions so foreign and horrific to me that I was stunned and could not speak or act in response. I was certainly NOT agreeing or consenting to such behaviors; I was just truly shocked and unable to react. A lack of verbal or physical resistance DOES NOT imply consent or approval. I would be happy to see this wise recognition entered into Oregon law.

Thank you.
