

Submitter: greg stiles

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB290

I oppose this bill because the best action is to let the local communities have control over the schools. The values of one community differ from another. As well, most of the school boards have a greater ability to represent the parents because of the closeness they have to that community. They are more invested.