Measure: SB199

This is a bad idea. It infringes further on the individual freedom found in owning one's own property. We don't need permission to protect our flocks and herds from predators. Farmers and ranchers are the best conservationists ever! No more restrictions on their ability to make a living, please. There are too many already. This bill sounds like a city slicker's dream. But it is wrong headed at best. I oppose SB 199.
