

Submitter: Kathleen Scally

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2458

People who see themselves as the opposite sex have a mental disorder which was recognized by the medical community not many years ago. Nothing has changed. Since this is no longer classified as a mental disorder, conversion therapy is absolutely warranted. These people need our help. The sooner they get it, the better.