

Submitter: Camille Reyes

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2458

As an incoming mental health professional to the field conversion therapy is extremely harmful to individuals. It is against the ethics of the American psychological association and we need laws to make sure it does not continue to happen.