

Submitter: Todd Vaughn

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Natural Resources

Measure: SB199

Every Oregon landowner should retain the right to destroy any predator that damages their property, and/or economically impacts them in any negative manner. This is a fundamental right pertaining to the ownership of private property, and this law would unfairly target rural landowners who are most impacted by predation.