

Submitter: K Smith

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Behavioral Health and Health Care

Measure: HB2458

Conversion therapy is a dangerous practice that negatively affects the mental health of LGBT people. It has no evidence of being effective, and instead can cause depression and increased risk of suicide.

Conversion therapy has no place in this country. Let's work to protect Oregonian youth from this harmful practice.